VOLUME 14, NUMBER 16 | Published Every Friday by H. C. PADDOCK SONS | ENTERED AS SECOND CLASS MATTER AT ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILLINOIS | ARLINGTON HEIGHTS, ILL., FRIDAY, DECEMBER 13, 1940 | TWO SECTIONS -- 16 PAGES | $2.00 PER YEAR

Christmas Time In Arlington

Arlington Heights is filled with the Christmas spirit. The displays in the stores of the business district shine out during the day and the colored lights carry the message after nightfall. Starting Monday Christmas carols will be on the air. Plans are being made to carry the Christmas spirit into the homes of those who have not their share of this world's goods. Free movies are the greetings of local merchants to their customers. Christmas is everywhere in Arlington Heights.

The local stores have large stocks of holiday goods that they are offering to the public. The stories of their merchandise is told this week in the advertising columns of the second section of this newspaper. The merchants who are doing their part to carry the Christmas spirit into every corner of the community are holding their doors open to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Christmas Shopper.

Starting Monday every store will be open evenings. Some of them are open tonight. It is good weather to go window shopping as an aid to complete that Christmas list.

Arlington Heights is a great town. It is your home. Its stores are your stores. They are your neighbors. Let us all further that neighborly feeling by doing as much as possible of our Christmas shoppping at home.

Racers Outclass Midwest City Champs In Rugged Game

Santa Claus at Gieseke's Saturday Night, Dec. 14

Old Santa will extend the jolly hand of welcome to every boy and girl in Arlington Heights and vicinity Saturday night, December 14, between the hours of 7 and 9 when he makes a special stop at Gieseke's store. Besides shaking hands with every boy and girl present, Santa Claus will accept letters to be forwarded to Christmas headquarters at the North Pole.

OFF TO HAWAII

Ferdinand Weidner left Fort McDonald, California, last week and set sail for Hawaii where he has enlisted in the air corps for three years. He spent last month at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in preparation for his training at Hawaii.

Box Score On Christmas Seal Sale

The returns from the mail sale of Christmas Seals amount to about 30 per cent of the 880 letters distributed on the opening day of the 1940 drive. Personal solicitation has brought in $40.00 through the purchase of $5.00 and $10.00 health bonds. The total returns from letters and bonds is $255.25. When the remaining 70 per cent of the letters are turned in to the committee Arlington Heights should be able to be proud of its assistance in the fight against tuberculosis.

Smith and Dawson Fives Open Cage Season; To Face Celtics Saturday

New York Celtics, one of the classiest of basketball clubs in the professional game, will appear on exhibition against the Smith & Dawson cage five this Saturday evening at the Arlington high school gymnasium at 8:30 o'clock. The Celts feature Nat Hickey, the originator of the pivot, Davey Banks and several others of the original team.

Smith and Dawson, developers of Prospect Heights, are sponsoring two teams this year which opened their regular season Thursday.

In the curtain raiser Des Plaines defeated the locals 36 to 23. The second game saw a well conditioned Itasca team eke out a 43 to 39 win over the heavies.

Sunday afternoon, December 8, Smith and Dawson beat Bensenville 41 to 40 at Bensenville.

Thursday evening, December 12, Smith and Dawson will play Iroquois A. C. The first game will start at 8:00 p. m. at Arlington high gym.

The Realtors have added many new players to their lineup among them Myerick and Kehe, former Arlington high school standouts.

The Smith & Dawson basketball team will play the Harrist Trust & Savings bank team, December 20, in a charity game, sponsored by the Merle Guild Post of the American Legion. All receipts will go to provide Christmas baskets to the needy of this community.

Vehicle Tag Stickers On Sale

With the arrival of the new vehicle tag stickers, last week the wise motorists are buying their 1941 tags at the municipal building now and saving 25 per cent on every tag. The discount positively ends December 31. There were nearly a thousand motorists who made the saving last year, which means that each one saved a dollar. The tags are a sure bet. Enclosed in the customary horse shoe are the three horses, "win, place and show."

Contributions For Xmas Basket Fund Are Needed

While direct personal solicitation of funds for the Christmas baskets are not being made this year, there is a great need for money to complete the baskets. An appeal was issued a week ago, but no cash contributions have appeared as yet. Last year there were forty people who gave a dollar. Money can be left at the office of the village treasurer, the office of Krause & Kehe or the office of Flentie & Behrens.

A master list of Arlington Heights families needing baskets this year, total seventy-three. Some of them will be assigned to local organizations, but there will probably remain sixty baskets to be filled from the community fund. Will you help?

School Vacation For 2 Weeks Only

Pupils attending the Arlington Heights high school and public schools will have two weeks Christmas vacation. School sessions end Friday, December 20 and will not reopen until Monday, Jan. 6.

St. James school will follow the same vacation dates as the public schools, closing Dec. 20 until Jan. 6.

Lutheran School Closes December 24

St. Peter Christian day school will close for the holidays Tuesday, December 24 and reopen January 6.

Christmas Plans Of the Teachers

The current issue of The Cardinal, high school paper, reports the Christmas activities of the teachers as follows:

Mr. Conger plans to stay in Arlington and give the Arlington Theatre a booming business.

Mr. Hayes wil spend the first five days of his vacation visiting his relatives and seeing some good college basketball. The rest of his vacation will be spent in Arlington Heights coaching basketball.

Miss Lindsey is going to stay in Arlington Heights.

Mr. Diggins will spend his time in Harvard, Ill., visiting his folks.

Miss Brown will go to Little Rock and then to New Orleans.

Mr. Campbell plans to visit his folks in Princeton, Ill.

Miss Funk will leave for Urbana, Ill., to spend part of her vacation visiting relatives.

Mr. Rossiter is going to Lexington, Kentucky, for most of his vacation.

Miss Muuss will visit her relatives in Chicago.

Mr. Thompson is going to divide his vacation, spending part of it in Abingdon, Ill., and the other part in Arlington.

Miss Volz is going all the way to Florida. She is also going to New Orleans. On her homeward trip up the Eastern coast she is planning to stop off at Georgia.

Mr. Grose is going to work here in Arlington Heights. He will also wait for an invitation to Christmas dinner.

Miss Bristow likes Little Rock, Arkansas, and that is where she will spend part of her vacation with her folks. Then she will go to New Orleans.

Mr. Thornton is going to stay in Arlington and really celebrate. If he has any time left he will work on his radio transmitter.

Mr. Costain is staying home this Christmas and don't be surprised if you see him dressed as Santa Claus trying to climb down his chimney.

Mr. Myers will spend his vacation at Amboy, Ill.

Miss Clark will spend her leisure time on Stanley and Oelwin, Iowa, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Elfeld will see the sights in Madison, Wisconsin. The other part of her vacation will be spent in Reivey, Wisconsin.

Mr. Hogate is going to stay in Arlington Heights.

Elementary Teachers

While there are seven teachers in the elementary schools whose homes are in Arlington Heights, there are thirteen who will spend Christmas with their home folks as follows:

Miss Dorothy Edwards, Glencoe, Ill.

Miss Doris Clark, Stanley, Iowa.

Miss Mary Kadel, Byron, Ill.

Miss Genevieve Lawless, New Castle, Ind.

Miss Marian Elliott, Kirkland, Ill.

Mr. Albert Gibas, Walsenburg, Colorado.

Mr. Melvin Anderson, DeKalb, Ill.

Mr. Willard Vanderbeek, Arlington Heights and DeKalb.

Mrs. Beatrice Paszotta, DeKalb.

Miss Martha Sapp, Princeton, Ill.

Miss Mildred Russell, Charleston, Ill.

Miss Laura Grothe, Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. Argola Walk, Newton, Ill.

Miss Betty Gemberling will take advantage of the two weeks vacation to enjoy a trip to Florida.

Forty-six Placed On 'First Call' By Draft Board

32 Per Cent of First Registrants Given 1-A Rating by Draft Board

With the return of the first 150 questionnaires, members of the draft board of district one, Cook county, have completed the classification of the "first of the list." Notices have been mailed to the registrants informing them of the classification in which they have been placed. Any one who feels that he has been wrongly classified has the right to take his case up with the local board and if necessary to the appeal board.

The rules and regulations under which the draft board operates are very explicit as to the method to be followed in determining classification.

Physical examination of the "first twenty" in Class 1-A including volunteers, was started Wednesday by Dr. Cousens, Arlington Heights and Dr. J. C. Schmidtke, Palatine.

Questionnaires for the "next fifty" covering call numbers, 151 to 200 were placed in the mails this week. They are returnable December 18. A large number of those receiving questionnaires are consulting the members of the advisory board which meets every Tuesday and Friday evenings at the village hall in Barrington.

Out of the first 144 on the draft call, forty-six or 32 per cent placed in 1-A classification. These 46 are unmarried and without dependents. If the same ratio holds good for the entire registrant roll, district one will send 900 men to the colors before men with dependents are called.

Five volunteers are awaiting call to service, which will probably fill the district's quota for the next two calls.

Cardinals Meet Crystal Lake Here Friday

The Cardinals, Arlington Heights high school basketball team, will face Crystal Lake Friday night in their third start of the twelve-game Northeast conference schedule. The game will be played on the Arlington floor, which was rebuilt last year and is one of the most attractive in this area. It will bring together two well-matched teams, both of which have strong incentives to win.

The Crystal Lake team has four boys who were reserves on last years' championship team which spread-eagled the Northeast conference field and gave Dundee one of its two defeats. In addition most of the Crystal Lake championship lightweight team has been added to the varsity. This combination features speed and drive, with one tall boy, Smith, working rebounds at both ends of the floor.

The Cardinals, who gave preseason promise of being one of the top teams in the league, are recovering from a series of set-backs which threw them off stride. Despite the complete loss of Ed. Schulenburg, tall floor guard from last year's varsity and of Bob Heinze, promising forward, and the slowing up of Ed. Mueller, veteran forward and of Jim Millay, a guard, both of whom sustained slight injuries in the Niles game, the Cards are high in morale and willingness to bear down. They are beginning to co-ordinate their floor work and they are learning to avoid many of the mistakes usually committed by inexperienced players. They are getting many good shots, game after game, and will undoubtedly begin to cash in on them soon.

The junior-varsity team also lost its best scorer when Joe Morici moved into the vacancy left by Heinze. These boys are playing a hustling type of game and should win many of their remaining games as other players develop.

School spirit among the student body at Arlington has been steadily rising. The special cheering section gives the teams strong support, whether in victory or defeat. This factor, plus the strong spirit of the squad, promises some exciting ball games for the fans.

The Crystal Lake games, varsity and junior-varsity, will be the last home contests before Christmas. Immediately after the holiday, on Friday, January 3, just before school reopens, the Cardinal teams will meet the alumni of the last two years. Warren high school of Gurnee will be the first conference opponent after Christmas, when the Blue Devils come to Arlington on Friday, January 10. The Junior-Varsity plays at 7:30 in a preliminary game on each of these dates.

Crystal Lake lost a pair of games last week-end. The Lakers were beaten 32-27 by Libertyville on Friday and were soundly trounced 44-17 by Hebron on Saturday. The Crystal Lake lightweights had a good week-end by beating Libertyville 36-26 and Hebron 29-27.

Food Will Be Admission Fee at Saturday Matinee

A full movie show suitable for children has been arranged by Arlington Theatre for Saturday matinee, admission to which will be a can or package of non-perishable food. The food will be added to the Christmas baskets that will be packed next week for needy families in Arlington Heights and vicinity.

Children and adults, too, if they are accompanying the children, will be admitted on the same basis. The greater number who attend the matinee, the greater will be the pile of foodstuffs that will carry the Christmas spirit into these homes of the needy.

Children whose family can not supply the food, will be admitted free. This show is for all Arlington Heights children, regardless of their financial means.

School Activities During Holidays

Music Department Plans Trip

The entire music department is planning a trip to Chicago for Saturday, December 28, 1940. It is estimated that about one hundred or more persons will go. If it is possible, a special car will be added to the 8:04 train so that the entire group may go down together.

From 10 to 10:30 a. m. the chorus, which includes about seventy students, will sing over station WMAQ in the NBC studios of the Merchandise Mart. Following this an hour tour of the studios will take place.

Nothing special is planned for the afternoon; therefore the students will probably do some shopping or attend a show in small groups.

In the evening they will all meet and attend a symphony at Orchestra hall.

The opportunity to broadcast is quite an honor to our school, as only three other choruses outside of Chicago, namely Evanston, Maywood and Hinsdale, were invited to present programs. Interesting facts concerning our school will be revealed to the radio audience by an interview between the station announcer and our senior class president, Bob Heinze.

Christmas Assembly

On Friday, December 20, the music department and the dramatics group will give an assembly program. In the orchestra pit you will see the well known Arlington Height high school band under the direction of Mr. Costain. The band will play a special arrangement of Christmas medleys, a comic number entitled "Circus In Review," and various marches and songs. The chorus also will render several pieces among them a negro work song called "Water Boy" in which the solo parts will be sung by Mary Ann Eiler, Marian Hardtke and Virginia Gould.

Then the house lights will be dimmed and the curtain will rise on the one-act play presented by the Dramatics club, entitled "Pop Read A Christmas Carol." This play centers around "Pop," who is trying to read "Dickens' Christmas Carol" He is being continually interrupted by other members of the family.

Following the one-act play, the girls' sextette will sing two songs: "Diane" and a Latin song, "Panis Angelicus." The program will be closed with the audience singing some favorite Christmas carols.

The Senior Class of the Arlington Heights Township high school proudly presents the Snowswirl, a semi-formal dance to be held in the high school gymnasium on Friday evening, December 27th. Dancing will be continuous from 9 until 12. Music will be furnished by Johnny Myrland's orchestra. The price will be a dollar a couple and tickets may be purchased at the door.

City-wide Broadcast Of Christmas Music

St. Peter's Church Spread Yuletide Spirit With Music

St. Peter's Lutheran church will ring in the Christmas season with an evening of music next Wednesday, at eight o'clock when the choirs will present their annual Christmas concert in the church edifice.

The mixed choir will sing the cantata, "The Story of Bethlehem," by William Spence, and the children's choir will assist, singing five carols, among them "Gloria In Excelsis Deo," and "In Old Judea." As in past years interpretive organ music will be a part of the program, Mr. Theodore Pruess playing Dudley Buck's composition "Holy Night." In this selection Mr. Pruess will give a musical description of the biblical account of the Christmas story.

Mr. Arnold Bathje, formerly choirmaster at Bellwood, and recently appointed to the same office at St. Peter's, will direct the mixed choir in the singing of the cantata, and Mr. Pruess, who will also direct the children's choir, will accompany at the organ.

Since the concert will be given on the evening of the last special Advent service, the audience will join in the singing of several Christmas hymns, thus making the evening an entire congregational affair.

"The Story of Bethlehem," composed by William Spence in 1911 is a melodious and tuneful, yet stately piece of music; and the directors' selection of this cantata is an effort to give to the public a better understanding of musical interpretation, not a heavy and tedious performance, but one readily received and eagerly awaited. An indication of the success attendant upon this endeavour is the steady growth in the number of listeners, as well as in the number of singers of a more polished caliber. Where in previous years only a small proportion of the singers had some training in the field of music, the great majority of the members have mastered at least the rudiments of choir work, and quite a few have had extended training. With the organization thus well advanced Mr. Bathje is attempting to set a new standard in local choir work. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the evening's performance.

Special Notice To Arlington Merchants

The regular Thursday morning editions of the Arlington Heights Herald will appear as usual Christmas and New Years weeks. However a special shopping edition will be printed Saturday, December 21 and will be placed on the doorstep of every home in Arlington Heights early Sunday morning. The special edition permits merchants to carry last minute Christmas shopping news into every Arlington Heights home. No additional advertising rate will be charged.

The same edition will carry Christmas greetings.

Special Service At Postoffice For Local Mail

Arlington Heights postoffice has its usual Christmas mailing box in the lobby for letters and cards that are to be delivered to Arlington Heights residents. The rush has already started at the postoffice.

Aliens who have not yet registered can only do so until Saturday. After that date postal employees will be too busy to take the registrations.

Clothing Needed For Younger Children And 'Teen Age

Many appeals for clothing from needy families in Arlington Heights have gone unanswered because the clothing "treasure chest" of the relief office and the community nurse is nearly as bare as Mother Hubbard's cupboard. Particular sizes needed at this time are for years from one to seven and heavy clothing for the teen age, twelve years and above.

Further details can be secured or articles will be called for if you phone either the relief office, Gilbert Klehm, supervisor, phone 451, or the health center office, Mrs. Pino, phone 530.

Merchants Offer Free Movies To Xmas Shoppers

Basket Fund To Also Benefit By Generosity Of Local Business Men

Nearly fifty Arlington Heights merchants are giving away free movie tickets this week that will be honored at the Arlington Theatre December 18, 19, and 20. These firms in previous years have adopted such a means as an expression of their good will to their customers. This year the "theatre guest nights" have an added meaning. It is expected that the oversubscription of the plan will net the Christmas basket fund nearly $75. The merchants are not only giving a movie ticket to their customers, but are also doing a bit for the basket fund.

Tickets are available at the places named below. As the seating capacity of the theatre is limited, when the tickets now in the hands of the business men are exhausted there will be no more available.

Northwest Towns Honor William Busse

Under the leadership of Henry Lutter, mayor of Glenview, a testimonial dinner is being held this Thursday at Link's Restaurant, Lake Ave., Waukegan Rd., in honor of County Commissioner William Busse. Mayors and chiefs of police of northwest towns are sponsoring the event which will probably be attended by five hundred admirers and friends of the commissioner, who is in his 50th year of public service to Cook county.

George Nixon will be master of ceremonies. Richard Lyons and others prominent in political life will be among the guests.

Palatine Hospital Auxiliary and Nurses Club To Hold Party

The second annual Christmas party of the Palatine Hospital Auxiliary and Nurses club will be held at the Palatine high school on Tuesday evening, December 17, at 8 p. m. The entertainment will consist of Christmas pageants, pantomimes, carols, recitations, and a Christmas treat for the children. The Palatine high school band will furnish the music. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

All Churches Will Cooperate in Twelve-day Program

Christmas music by church choirs and other organizations, as well as recordings, will herald the Christmas season in Arlington Heights, starting next Monday. Broadcasting equipment will be installed above the Arlington Heights National Bank with eight loud speakers having sufficient power to enable every resident in the village to hear the programs.

Special broadcasting lines will extend from St. Peter's Lutheran church for programs originating there and from the Presbyterian church for the Sunday cantata.

The park board has offered facilities at the field house to local organizations who desire to use it for broadcasting purposes. The public school and Catholic programs will be broadcast from that place and perhaps others, depending on the transmitting facilities that can be provided by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

The evening programs will be augmented by afternoon recordings with Christmas music predominating. Evening programs that have so far been arranged are:

Monday, December 16 — Music program by high school and elementary schools glee clubs and choruses.

Wednesday, December 18 — Entire cantata program of the Lutheran church will be broadcast.

Thursday, December 19—Methodist church choir.

Friday, December 20—St. James church choir and school children.

Sunday, December 22—Presbyterian church choir cantata.

The broadcasting of Christmas music at this time of the year was introduced to Arlington Heights two years ago by St. Peter's Lutheran church. A repetition of the program was first considered by persons identified with that church. A city-wide program was later suggested and the Trade and Civic association in cooperation with the Lions club are sponsoring the enlarged project.

They have been assured of the financial support on the part of all interests and Monday night authorized the signing of a contract with the Suburban Sound Equipment organization for the broadcasting installation. Business men present at the Monday evening meeting suggested that funds be collected for the broadcasting and the decorations in the business district as a single project. William Gronert, assistant cashier at the bank was named financial chairman. Within 24 hours fifteen business houses phoned their subscriptions of Mr. Gronert. The total expense is in the neighborhood of $250.

The earlier plans permitted commercial announcements during the afternoon, but the committee Monday night decided that such announcements would be contrary to the real thought of Christmas. Business firms which have already subscribed to the fund are:

Boys and Girls Can Meet Santa Claus At C. & N. W. Depot Friday Evening

Air traffic has become so heavy that Santa Claus has sent word to the Hagenbring store that he will use the train to come to Arlington Heights, where he will arrive at 6:43 Friday evening. He will go direct to the Hagenbring store and will have a gift for each and every good boy and girl. Children should urge their parents to accompany them and give Santa a big welcome.

Child Welfare Conference Is Next Wednesday

The Palatine Child Welfare conference will meet next Wednesday from 1 to 2:30 p. m. at the village hall. All mothers are urged to bring their babies for a physical check-up and for advice on care and feeding.

A child specialist and Miss Phelan, our local nurse, will be in charge.

American Mother Writes of Shell-torn England and How She Serves Adopted Country

Paddock Publications has come into possession of a letter from England written by the daughter of E. H. Stellman, who was born and raised on a farm near Bensenville. The daughter is married to J. Elwes Duffield, Esq., who is serving his country as a surgeon on a transport and has, for the last year, been on a ship taking evacuees to Australia and New Zealand and has been bringing troops back to England.

Mrs. Duffield was born in Chicago, grew to womanhood in Auburn Park and after spending six years working on a medical degree at the University of Chicago, married Dr. Duffield who was at that time a Commonwealth Fellow from Oxford and studying at the University of Chicago.

The letter is addressed to the writer's mother and father. The personal messages are allowed to remain in the letter, which, as a whole, paints a vivid picture of the experience through which so many wives and mothers of England are passing and which American women are fortunately missing. The letter follows:

Marcham Manor, Abingdon-
Marcham Manor,
Abingdon-on-Thames, Eng.
November 17, 1940

Dearest Mother and Dad:

I hope I never have another week like the last one. I suppose you heard of the pocket-battleship attacking a convoy in mid Atlantic November 5. John was in that convoy on the Rangitiki (dreadful New Zealand names) and that being the biggest ship was attacked first. Anyway, the first I knew of it was a small notice in the morning paper saying the ship had been attacked by shell fire and had sent out her position by wireless. At the same time I had a telegram from the Admiralty saying the news was confirmed, the losses were expected to be heavy and there was as yet no news of survivors. I thought that was pretty black and was only a sort of discreet interval until it would be followed with the statement that the ship and ship's company must now be considered lost. I didn't think I had ever told you the name of his new ship (since his promotion) so I didn't say a thing until I knew definitely what had happened.

Anyway, for six days there was no news at all except occasional gloomy notices such as weather conditions were so bad that what were not picked up now must be considered lost, etc. I never spent such a time. I cried hard at first but after that I couldn't cry—it was like a tight band around my throat that absolutely locked it up and of course I couldn't let the children know about it, so I had to keep my face straight for them.

I couldn't sleep at night and I couldn't swallow food or even keep down what I did swallow. I lived on strong black tea and I spent most of the days on my knees. Mr. Palmer (our Vicar) held a special service of intercession in the church and had special prayers said at all services for John.

I never realized either how popular John was in the village—there was a continuous stream of rather shy knocks at the back door to see if there was "any news of the 'young squire'" and the telephone never stopped ringing either. I honestly think the Admiralty expected a lot more losses than it had or they would never have sent such a gloomy telegram. They were simply splendid all through

Christmas Time In Arlington

Arlington Heights is filled with the Christmas spirit. The displays in the stores of the business district shine out during the day and the colored lights carry the message after nightfall. Starting Monday Christmas carols will be on the air. Plans are being made to carry the Christmas spirit into the homes of those who have not their share of this world's goods. Free movies are the greetings of local merchants to their customers. Christmas is everywhere in Arlington Heights.

The local stores have large stocks of holiday goods that they are offering to the public. The stories of their merchandise is told this week in the advertising columns of the second section of this newspaper. The merchants who are doing their part to carry the Christmas spirit into every corner of the community are holding their doors open to welcome Mr. and Mrs. Christmas Shopper.

Starting Monday every store will be open evenings. Some of them are open tonight. It is good weather to go window shopping as an aid to complete that Christmas list.

Arlington Heights is a great town. It is your home. Its stores are your stores. They are your neighbors. Let us all further that neighborly feeling by doing as much as possible of our Christmas shoppping at home.

Racers Outclass Midwest City Champs In Rugged Game

Santa Claus at Gieseke's Saturday Night, Dec. 14

Old Santa will extend the jolly hand of welcome to every boy and girl in Arlington Heights and vicinity Saturday night, December 14, between the hours of 7 and 9 when he makes a special stop at Gieseke's store. Besides shaking hands with every boy and girl present, Santa Claus will accept letters to be forwarded to Christmas headquarters at the North Pole.

OFF TO HAWAII

Ferdinand Weidner left Fort McDonald, California, last week and set sail for Hawaii where he has enlisted in the air corps for three years. He spent last month at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., in preparation for his training at Hawaii.

Box Score On Christmas Seal Sale

The returns from the mail sale of Christmas Seals amount to about 30 per cent of the 880 letters distributed on the opening day of the 1940 drive. Personal solicitation has brought in $40.00 through the purchase of $5.00 and $10.00 health bonds. The total returns from letters and bonds is $255.25. When the remaining 70 per cent of the letters are turned in to the committee Arlington Heights should be able to be proud of its assistance in the fight against tuberculosis.

Smith and Dawson Fives Open Cage Season; To Face Celtics Saturday

New York Celtics, one of the classiest of basketball clubs in the professional game, will appear on exhibition against the Smith & Dawson cage five this Saturday evening at the Arlington high school gymnasium at 8:30 o'clock. The Celts feature Nat Hickey, the originator of the pivot, Davey Banks and several others of the original team.

Smith and Dawson, developers of Prospect Heights, are sponsoring two teams this year which opened their regular season Thursday.

In the curtain raiser Des Plaines defeated the locals 36 to 23. The second game saw a well conditioned Itasca team eke out a 43 to 39 win over the heavies.

Sunday afternoon, December 8, Smith and Dawson beat Bensenville 41 to 40 at Bensenville.

Thursday evening, December 12, Smith and Dawson will play Iroquois A. C. The first game will start at 8:00 p. m. at Arlington high gym.

The Realtors have added many new players to their lineup among them Myerick and Kehe, former Arlington high school standouts.

The Smith & Dawson basketball team will play the Harrist Trust & Savings bank team, December 20, in a charity game, sponsored by the Merle Guild Post of the American Legion. All receipts will go to provide Christmas baskets to the needy of this community.

Vehicle Tag Stickers On Sale

With the arrival of the new vehicle tag stickers, last week the wise motorists are buying their 1941 tags at the municipal building now and saving 25 per cent on every tag. The discount positively ends December 31. There were nearly a thousand motorists who made the saving last year, which means that each one saved a dollar. The tags are a sure bet. Enclosed in the customary horse shoe are the three horses, "win, place and show."

American Mother Writes of Shell-torn England and How She Serves Adopted Country

Paddock Publications has come into possession of a letter from England written by the daughter of E. H. Stellman, who was born and raised on a farm near Bensenville. The daughter is married to J. Elwes Duffield, Esq., who is serving his country as a surgeon on a transport and has, for the last year, been on a ship taking evacuees to Australia and New Zealand and has been bringing troops back to England.

Mrs. Duffield was born in Chicago, grew to womanhood in Auburn Park and after spending six years working on a medical degree at the University of Chicago, married Dr. Duffield who was at that time a Commonwealth Fellow from Oxford and studying at the University of Chicago.

The letter is addressed to the writer's mother and father. The personal messages are allowed to remain in the letter, which, as a whole, paints a vivid picture of the experience through which so many wives and mothers of England are passing and which American women are fortunately missing. The letter follows:

Marcham Manor, Abingdon-
Marcham Manor,
Abingdon-on-Thames, Eng.

Dearest Mother and Dad:

I hope I never have another week like the last one. I suppose you heard of the pocket-battleship attacking a convoy in mid Atlantic November 5. John was in that convoy on the Rangitiki (dreadful New Zealand names) and that being the biggest ship was attacked first. Anyway, the first I knew of it was a small notice in the morning paper saying the ship had been attacked by shell fire and had sent out her position by wireless. At the same time I had a telegram from the Admiralty saying the news was confirmed, the losses were expected to be heavy and there was as yet no news of survivors. I thought that was pretty black and was only a sort of discreet interval until it would be followed with the statement that the ship and ship's company must now be considered lost. I didn't think I had ever told you the name of his new ship (since his promotion) so I didn't say a thing until I knew definitely what had happened.

Anyway, for six days there was no news at all except occasional gloomy notices such as weather conditions were so bad that what were not picked up now must be considered lost, etc. I never spent such a time. I cried hard at first but after that I couldn't cry—it was like a tight band around my throat that absolutely locked it up and of course I couldn't let the children know about it, so I had to keep my face straight for them.

I couldn't sleep at night and I couldn't swallow food or even keep down what I did swallow. I lived on strong black tea and I spent most of the days on my knees. Mr. Palmer (our Vicar) held a special service of intercession in the church and had special prayers said at all services for John.

I never realized either how popular John was in the village—there was a continuous stream of rather shy knocks at the back door to see if there was "any news of the 'young squire'" and the telephone never stopped ringing either. I honestly think the Admiralty expected a lot more losses than it had or they would never have sent such a gloomy telegram. They were simply splendid all through

While direct personal solicitation of funds for the Christmas baskets are not being made this year, there is a great need for money to complete the baskets. An appeal was issued a week ago, but no cash contributions have appeared as yet. Last year there were forty people who gave a dollar. Money can be left at the office of the village treasurer, the office of Krause & Kehe or the office of Flentie & Behrens.

A master list of Arlington Heights families needing baskets this year, total seventy-three. Some of them will be assigned to local organizations, but there will probably remain sixty baskets to be filled from the community fund. Will you help?

School Vacation For 2 Weeks Only

Pupils attending the Arlington Heights high school and public schools will have two weeks Christmas vacation. School sessions end Friday, December 20 and will not reopen until Monday, Jan. 6.

St. James school will follow the same vacation dates as the public schools, closing Dec. 20 until Jan. 6.

Lutheran School Closes December 24

St. Peter Christian day school will close for the holidays Tuesday, December 24 and reopen January 6.

Christmas Plans Of the Teachers

The current issue of The Cardinal, high school paper, reports the Christmas activities of the teachers as follows:

Mr. Conger plans to stay in Arlington and give the Arlington Theatre a booming business.

Mr. Hayes wil spend the first five days of his vacation visiting his relatives and seeing some good college basketball. The rest of his vacation will be spent in Arlington Heights coaching basketball.

Miss Lindsey is going to stay in Arlington Heights.

Mr. Diggins will spend his time in Harvard, Ill., visiting his folks.

Miss Brown will go to Little Rock and then to New Orleans.

Mr. Campbell plans to visit his folks in Princeton, Ill.

Miss Funk will leave for Urbana, Ill., to spend part of her vacation visiting relatives.

Mr. Rossiter is going to Lexington, Kentucky, for most of his vacation.

Miss Muuss will visit her relatives in Chicago.

Mr. Thompson is going to divide his vacation, spending part of it in Abingdon, Ill., and the other part in Arlington.

Miss Volz is going all the way to Florida. She is also going to New Orleans. On her homeward trip up the Eastern coast she is planning to stop off at Georgia.

Mr. Grose is going to work here in Arlington Heights. He will also wait for an invitation to Christmas dinner.

Miss Bristow likes Little Rock, Arkansas, and that is where she will spend part of her vacation with her folks. Then she will go to New Orleans.

Mr. Thornton is going to stay in Arlington and really celebrate. If he has any time left he will work on his radio transmitter.

Mr. Costain is staying home this Christmas and don't be surprised if you see him dressed as Santa Claus trying to climb down his chimney.

Mr. Myers will spend his vacation at Amboy, Ill.

Miss Clark will spend her leisure time on Stanley and Oelwin, Iowa, visiting relatives.

Mrs. Elfeld will see the sights in Madison, Wisconsin. The other part of her vacation will be spent in Reivey, Wisconsin.

Mr. Hogate is going to stay in Arlington Heights.

Miss Keeler will spend the vacation visiting relatives in Springfield, Ill.

Elementary Teachers

While there are seven teachers in the elementary schools whose homes are in Arlington Heights, there are thirteen who will spend Christmas with their home folks as follows:

Miss Dorothy Edwards, Glencoe, Ill.

Miss Doris Clark, Stanley, Iowa.

Miss Mary Kadel, Byron, Ill.

Miss Genevieve Lawless, New Castle, Ind.

Miss Marian Elliott, Kirkland, Ill.

Mr. Albert Gibas, Walsenburg, Colorado.

Mr. Melvin Anderson, DeKalb, Ill.

Mr. Willard Vanderbeek, Arlington Heights and DeKalb.

Mrs. Beatrice Paszotta, DeKalb.

Miss Martha Sapp, Princeton, Ill.

Miss Mildred Russell, Charleston, Ill.

Miss Laura Grothe, Decatur, Ill.

Mrs. Argola Walk, Newton, Ill.

Miss Betty Gemberling will take advantage of the two weeks vacation to enjoy a trip to Florida.

Forty-six Placed On 'First Call' By Draft Board

32 Per Cent of First Registrants Given 1-A Rating by Draft Board

With the return of the first 150 questionnaires, members of the draft board of district one, Cook county, have completed the classification of the "first of the list." Notices have been mailed to the registrants informing them of the classification in which they have been placed. Any one who feels that he has been wrongly classified has the right to take his case up with the local board and if necessary to the appeal board.

The rules and regulations under which the draft board operates are very explicit as to the method to be followed in determining classification.

Physical examination of the "first twenty" in Class 1-A including volunteers, was started Wednesday by Dr. Cousens, Arlington Heights and Dr. J. C. Schmidtke, Palatine.

Questionnaires for the "next fifty" covering call numbers, 151 to 200 were placed in the mails this week. They are returnable December 18. A large number of those receiving questionnaires are consulting the members of the advisory board which meets every Tuesday and Friday evenings at the village hall in Barrington.

Out of the first 144 on the draft call, forty-six or 32 per cent placed in 1-A classification. These 46 are unmarried and without dependents. If the same ratio holds good for the entire registrant roll, district one will send 900 men to the colors before men with dependents are called.

Five volunteers are awaiting call to service, which will probably fill the district's quota for the next two calls.

Cardinals Meet Crystal Lake Here Friday

The Cardinals, Arlington Heights high school basketball team, will face Crystal Lake Friday night in their third start of the twelve-game Northeast conference schedule. The game will be played on the Arlington floor, which was rebuilt last year and is one of the most attractive in this area. It will bring together two well-matched teams, both of which have strong incentives to win.

The Crystal Lake team has four boys who were reserves on last years' championship team which spread-eagled the Northeast conference field and gave Dundee one of its two defeats. In addition most of the Crystal Lake championship lightweight team has been added to the varsity. This combination features speed and drive, with one tall boy, Smith, working rebounds at both ends of the floor.

The Cardinals, who gave preseason promise of being one of the top teams in the league, are recovering from a series of set-backs which threw them off stride. Despite the complete loss of Ed. Schulenburg, tall floor guard from last year's varsity and of Bob Heinze, promising forward, and the slowing up of Ed. Mueller, veteran forward and of Jim Millay, a guard, both of whom sustained slight injuries in the Niles game, the Cards are high in morale and willingness to bear down. They are beginning to co-ordinate their floor work and they are learning to avoid many of the mistakes usually committed by inexperienced players. They are getting many good shots, game after game, and will undoubtedly begin to cash in on them soon.

The junior-varsity team also lost its best scorer when Joe Morici moved into the vacancy left by Heinze. These boys are playing a hustling type of game and should win many of their remaining games as other players develop.

School spirit among the student body at Arlington has been steadily rising. The special cheering section gives the teams strong support, whether in victory or defeat. This factor, plus the strong spirit of the squad, promises some exciting ball games for the fans.

The Crystal Lake games, varsity and junior-varsity, will be the last home contests before Christmas. Immediately after the holiday, on Friday, January 3, just before school reopens, the Cardinal teams will meet the alumni of the last two years. Warren high school of Gurnee will be the first conference opponent after Christmas, when the Blue Devils come to Arlington on Friday, January 10. The Junior-Varsity plays at 7:30 in a preliminary game on each of these dates.

Crystal Lake lost a pair of games last week-end. The Lakers were beaten 32-27 by Libertyville on Friday and were soundly trounced 44-17 by Hebron on Saturday. The Crystal Lake lightweights had a good week-end by beating Libertyville 36-26 and Hebron 29-27.

Food Will Be Admission Fee at Saturday Matinee

A full movie show suitable for children has been arranged by Arlington Theatre for Saturday matinee, admission to which will be a can or package of non-perishable food. The food will be added to the Christmas baskets that will be packed next week for needy families in Arlington Heights and vicinity.

Children and adults, too, if they are accompanying the children, will be admitted on the same basis. The greater number who attend the matinee, the greater will be the pile of foodstuffs that will carry the Christmas spirit into these homes of the needy.

Children whose family can not supply the food, will be admitted free. This show is for all Arlington Heights children, regardless of their financial means.

School Activities During Holidays

Music Department Plans Trip

The entire music department is planning a trip to Chicago for Saturday, December 28, 1940. It is estimated that about one hundred or more persons will go. If it is possible, a special car will be added to the 8:04 train so that the entire group may go down together.

From 10 to 10:30 a. m. the chorus, which includes about seventy students, will sing over station WMAQ in the NBC studios of the Merchandise Mart. Following this an hour tour of the studios will take place.

Nothing special is planned for the afternoon; therefore the students will probably do some shopping or attend a show in small groups.

In the evening they will all meet and attend a symphony at Orchestra hall.

The opportunity to broadcast is quite an honor to our school, as only three other choruses outside of Chicago, namely Evanston, Maywood and Hinsdale, were invited to present programs. Interesting facts concerning our school will be revealed to the radio audience by an interview between the station announcer and our senior class president, Bob Heinze.

Christmas Assembly

On Friday, December 20, the music department and the dramatics group will give an assembly program. In the orchestra pit you will see the well known Arlington Height high school band under the direction of Mr. Costain. The band will play a special arrangement of Christmas medleys, a comic number entitled "Circus In Review," and various marches and songs. The chorus also will render several pieces among them a negro work song called "Water Boy" in which the solo parts will be sung by Mary Ann Eiler, Marian Hardtke and Virginia Gould.

Then the house lights will be dimmed and the curtain will rise on the one-act play presented by the Dramatics club, entitled "Pop Read A Christmas Carol." This play centers around "Pop," who is trying to read "Dickens' Christmas Carol" He is being continually interrupted by other members of the family.

Following the one-act play, the girls' sextette will sing two songs: "Diane" and a Latin song, "Panis Angelicus." The program will be closed with the audience singing some favorite Christmas carols.

The Senior Class of the Arlington Heights Township high school proudly presents the Snowswirl, a semi-formal dance to be held in the high school gymnasium on Friday evening, December 27th. Dancing will be continuous from 9 until 12. Music will be furnished by Johnny Myrland's orchestra. The price will be a dollar a couple and tickets may be purchased at the door.

BARRINGTON MODEL HOME CLOSES DECEMBER 23

Residents of northwest Chicagoland who haven't yet visited "the house of the year" at Barrington, Ill., may do so until the evening of December 23, it has been announced by the Barrington Lions club, sponsors of the house.

Approximately 24,000 visitors have inspected the beautiful six-room structure in Jewel Park, Barrington, since it was opened in early fall. The new owner will be announced as the climax of a program to be held December 23, in Barrington High School.

City-wide Broadcast Of Christmas Music

St. Peter's Church Spread Yuletide Spirit With Music

St. Peter's Lutheran church will ring in the Christmas season with an evening of music next Wednesday, at eight o'clock when the choirs will present their annual Christmas concert in the church edifice.

The mixed choir will sing the cantata, "The Story of Bethlehem," by William Spence, and the children's choir will assist, singing five carols, among them "Gloria In Excelsis Deo," and "In Old Judea." As in past years interpretive organ music will be a part of the program, Mr. Theodore Pruess playing Dudley Buck's composition "Holy Night." In this selection Mr. Pruess will give a musical description of the biblical account of the Christmas story.

Mr. Arnold Bathje, formerly choirmaster at Bellwood, and recently appointed to the same office at St. Peter's, will direct the mixed choir in the singing of the cantata, and Mr. Pruess, who will also direct the children's choir, will accompany at the organ.

Since the concert will be given on the evening of the last special Advent service, the audience will join in the singing of several Christmas hymns, thus making the evening an entire congregational affair.

"The Story of Bethlehem," composed by William Spence in 1911 is a melodious and tuneful, yet stately piece of music; and the directors' selection of this cantata is an effort to give to the public a better understanding of musical interpretation, not a heavy and tedious performance, but one readily received and eagerly awaited. An indication of the success attendant upon this endeavour is the steady growth in the number of listeners, as well as in the number of singers of a more polished caliber. Where in previous years only a small proportion of the singers had some training in the field of music, the great majority of the members have mastered at least the rudiments of choir work, and quite a few have had extended training. With the organization thus well advanced Mr. Bathje is attempting to set a new standard in local choir work. An offering will be taken to defray the expenses of the evening's performance.

Special Notice To Arlington Merchants

The regular Thursday morning editions of the Arlington Heights Herald will appear as usual Christmas and New Years weeks. However a special shopping edition will be printed Saturday, December 21 and will be placed on the doorstep of every home in Arlington Heights early Sunday morning. The special edition permits merchants to carry last minute Christmas shopping news into every Arlington Heights home. No additional advertising rate will be charged.

The same edition will carry Christmas greetings.

Special Service At Postoffice For Local Mail

Arlington Heights postoffice has its usual Christmas mailing box in the lobby for letters and cards that are to be delivered to Arlington Heights residents. The rush has already started at the postoffice.

Aliens who have not yet registered can only do so until Saturday. After that date postal employees will be too busy to take the registrations.

Clothing Needed For Younger Children And 'Teen Age

Many appeals for clothing from needy families in Arlington Heights have gone unanswered because the clothing "treasure chest" of the relief office and the community nurse is nearly as bare as Mother Hubbard's cupboard. Particular sizes needed at this time are for years from one to seven and heavy clothing for the teen age, twelve years and above.

Further details can be secured or articles will be called for if you phone either the relief office, Gilbert Klehm, supervisor, phone 451, or the health center office, Mrs. Pino, phone 530.

Merchants Offer Free Movies To Xmas Shoppers

Basket Fund To Also Benefit By Generosity Of Local Business Men

Nearly fifty Arlington Heights merchants are giving away free movie tickets this week that will be honored at the Arlington Theatre December 18, 19, and 20. These firms in previous years have adopted such a means as an expression of their good will to their customers. This year the "theatre guest nights" have an added meaning. It is expected that the oversubscription of the plan will net the Christmas basket fund nearly $75. The merchants are not only giving a movie ticket to their customers, but are also doing a bit for the basket fund.

Tickets are available at the places named below. As the seating capacity of the theatre is limited, when the tickets now in the hands of the business men are exhausted there will be no more available.

Northwest Towns Honor William Busse

Under the leadership of Henry Lutter, mayor of Glenview, a testimonial dinner is being held this Thursday at Link's Restaurant, Lake Ave., Waukegan Rd., in honor of County Commissioner William Busse. Mayors and chiefs of police of northwest towns are sponsoring the event which will probably be attended by five hundred admirers and friends of the commissioner, who is in his 50th year of public service to Cook county.

George Nixon will be master of ceremonies. Richard Lyons and others prominent in political life will be among the guests.

Palatine Hospital Auxiliary and Nurses Club To Hold Party

The second annual Christmas party of the Palatine Hospital Auxiliary and Nurses club will be held at the Palatine high school on Tuesday evening, December 17, at 8 p. m. The entertainment will consist of Christmas pageants, pantomimes, carols, recitations, and a Christmas treat for the children. The Palatine high school band will furnish the music. Everybody is cordially invited to attend.

All Churches Will Cooperate in Twelve-day Program

Christmas music by church choirs and other organizations, as well as recordings, will herald the Christmas season in Arlington Heights, starting next Monday. Broadcasting equipment will be installed above the Arlington Heights National Bank with eight loud speakers having sufficient power to enable every resident in the village to hear the programs.

Special broadcasting lines will extend from St. Peter's Lutheran church for programs originating there and from the Presbyterian church for the Sunday cantata.

The park board has offered facilities at the field house to local organizations who desire to use it for broadcasting purposes. The public school and Catholic programs will be broadcast from that place and perhaps others, depending on the transmitting facilities that can be provided by the Illinois Bell Telephone Co.

The evening programs will be augmented by afternoon recordings with Christmas music predominating. Evening programs that have so far been arranged are:

Monday, December 16 — Music program by high school and elementary schools glee clubs and choruses.

Wednesday, December 18 — Entire cantata program of the Lutheran church will be broadcast.

Thursday, December 19—Methodist church choir.

Friday, December 20—St. James church choir and school children.

Sunday, December 22—Presbyterian church choir cantata.

The broadcasting of Christmas music at this time of the year was introduced to Arlington Heights two years ago by St. Peter's Lutheran church. A repetition of the program was first considered by persons identified with that church. A city-wide program was later suggested and the Trade and Civic association in cooperation with the Lions club are sponsoring the enlarged project.

They have been assured of the financial support on the part of all interests and Monday night authorized the signing of a contract with the Suburban Sound Equipment organization for the broadcasting installation. Business men present at the Monday evening meeting suggested that funds be collected for the broadcasting and the decorations in the business district as a single project. William Gronert, assistant cashier at the bank was named financial chairman. Within 24 hours fifteen business houses phoned their subscriptions of Mr. Gronert. The total expense is in the neighborhood of $250.

The earlier plans permitted commercial announcements during the afternoon, but the committee Monday night decided that such announcements would be contrary to the real thought of Christmas. Business firms which have already subscribed to the fund are:

Boys and Girls Can Meet Santa Claus At C. & N. W. Depot Friday Evening

Air traffic has become so heavy that Santa Claus has sent word to the Hagenbring store that he will use the train to come to Arlington Heights, where he will arrive at 6:43 Friday evening. He will go direct to the Hagenbring store and will have a gift for each and every good boy and girl. Children should urge their parents to accompany them and give Santa a big welcome.

Child Welfare Conference Is Next Wednesday

The Palatine Child Welfare conference will meet next Wednesday from 1 to 2:30 p. m. at the village hall. All mothers are urged to bring their babies for a physical check-up and for advice on care and feeding.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"God the Only Cause and Creator" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 8.

The Golden Text was, "Every house is builded by some man; but he that built all things is God" (Hebrews 3:4).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Many, O Lord my God, are thy wonderful works which thou hast done, and thy thoughts which are to us-ward: they cannot be reckoned up in order unto thee: if I would declare and speak of them, they are more than can be numbered" (Psalms 40:5).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "There is but one creator and one creation. This creation consists of the unfolding of spiritual ideas and their identities, which are embraced in the infinite Mind and forever reflected. These ideas range from the infinitesimal to infinity, and the highest ideas are the sons and daughters of God" (p. 502).

Gems of Thought

Gifts and Giving

The best thing to give to your enemy is forgiveness; to an opponent, tolerance; to a friend, your heart; to your child, a good example; to a father, deference; to your mother, conduct that will make her proud of you; to yourself, respect; to all men, charity.
—Balfour.

What is called liberality is often merely the vanity of giving.
—La Rochefoucauld.

Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.
—James 1:17

Certain occasions, considered either collectively or individually and observed properly, tend to give the activity of man infinite scope; but mere merry-making or needless gift-giving is not that in which human capacities find the most appropriate and proper exercise.
—Mary Baker Eddy.

Mr. and Mrs. John Schanklin and family from Antigo, Wis., are coming to live at 123 So. State rd., where they will be near her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Davidson.

Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Prellberg, So. Pine ave., entertained relatives from the city Sunday.

Mrs. Josephine Sieburg is with her niece, Mrs. Jelenke in Irving Park.

Miss Anna Beckman was called to Palatine last week to see her sister, Mrs. Dinse, who is ill.

Jimmie Brazelton has been sick, unable to attend school several days.

Jackie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Sieburg, is ill.

Sunday evening the Otto Mirs family, 27 So. Evergreen ave., sensed there was a fire in the house. Mr. Mirs went to the attic and found timbers burning and went into action with help of the family the fire was checked before spreading to the whole house. Damage to wiring and plaster, etc., is being repaired. Presence of mind and cooperation served to save the property from heavy damage.

Mrs. Mildred Jelenke returned to Irving Park Saturday after spending a few days last week with Mr. and Mrs. Theo. Mors.

Mrs. J. W. Bruhnke entertained her card club Wednesday afternoon. As they will not have another meeting before the holidays, the program was in keeping with the spirit of Christmas.

Saturday, December 7, Peggy Ann Sieburg was 7 years old. Her mother, Mrs. Kenneth Sieburg, made a party and twenty-one merry children had a rollicking good time wishing Peggy Ann happy birthday. At the close of the day the guests departed tired but happy.

Auxiliary of the V. F. W. met in regular session last week Wednesday and planned for their gifts to comrades in Elgin hospital, contributions for civic baskets and a Christmas party for their members. At close of session they went to home of Miss Ruth Hefferen and her mother where they enjoyed a social program.

If you have old pocketbooks for the Old Peoples Home, call Arl. Hts. 49.

Mrs. Robt. McArdle, W. Campbell ave., was a guest at a luncheon at the Drake Hotel, Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wilke came from Barrington Sunday to join Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Wilke, Mr. and Mrs. Edw. Friese and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Friese in a trip to Des Plaines, where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Friese and everyone enjoyed a fine afternoon and evening.

Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Van Antwerp of Rogers Park were Sunday supper guests of Mr. and Mrs. Jos. E. Brown, E. Euclid ave.

Mrs. W. A. Pfluger and daughter, Mrs. H. H. Topping, So. State rd., entertained in honor of Mrs. Pfluger's birthday, Friday, December 6. Members of her birthday circle were guests in the afternoon. In the evening the men of the families joined in the happy event. A program of games, refreshments in keeping with the Pfluger hospitality, was enjoyed by all present.

Torch Bearers Group of the Camp Fire Girls had a party at the home of Pauline Russell, last Friday night. This was a hard times party and all girls dressed in hard times costumes. Refreshments consisted of root beer and hamburgers. Rose Mary Keller won first prize in games.

Herbert Malzahn has been transferred from the Great Lakes Naval Training station to San Diego, California, where U. S. S. Winslow is harbored.

Miss Olga Skarlosz, 616 East Euclid, who has been confined to her home for the past two weeks due to illness, is reported much improved at this writing.

Fred Tesch Receives Best Wishes From Certified Foods

Fred Tesch, who is manager of Arlington Heights Certified Star Food Stores, 17 E. Miner St., Arlington Heights, received this week the following letter from the Certified organization that tells the policies and principles of that organization with which the Tesch store is associated:

"Mr. Fred Tesch,
Certified Star Food Store,

"It is the policy of our organization, composed of more than forty leading retail food store owners, whose stores are located on the North Shore — from Howard st. (Chicago Limits) to the Wisconsin-Illinois State Line, and from Lake Michigan on the east to the Northwest Highway (Route 14), to promote cooperative purchasing and merchandising of Nationally Advertised Merchandise, thereby bringing to the consumer the very best quality at the lowest possible price.

"Your opening announcement copy published in last week's issue of the Arlington Heights Herald, carried a thrifty message to the housewives of Arlington Heights featuring "Quality Brands" for those who want the best.

All leading Packers and Food Manufacturers including the Booth Fisheries Corporation ("Booth Quick Frozen Foods") have always cooperated with our members 100 per cent in the merchandising of Quality Foods in their respective communities.

"Fred, this letter brings to you and to your associates our best wishes for your continued success."

FINE AT FORTY; FRAIL AT FIFTY

By C. W. Lussman
Of Sieburg Pharmacy

So many things can and do happen to people during the forty to fifty year span of life that one, who at forty could have passed the most rigid physical examination, may at fifty be wondering what really did happen to bring those never-before-remembered feelings.

A physical check-up at forty should be considered imperative by all who reach that age.

It is then most hearts begin to rap out their home runs with occasional stumbles. A few moments in a doctor's office at forty will help you to avoid a frail fifty.

At any age it is best to choose a drug store with a good reputation.

Laurin Issues 'Tax Memo' Exemptions Lowered

E. F. Laurin, of Arlington Heights, auditor and accountant, this week issued a memo containing the more important tax information applicable in 1941. With the increase of taxes and the different kinds of taxation, understanding them and keeping up with changes has become a problem even to the small business man. Laurin's statement follows:

Income Tax for 1940

INDIVIDUALS: The normal tax rate remains at 4%. Surtax rates have been increased. Exemptions have been lowered to $2,000 married and $800 single. This year all persons with a gross income equalling or exceeding their exemptions must file a return even tho there is no tax.

CORPORATIONS: Two tax laws enacted in 1940 resulted in sharp increases in rates and with many complications — the normal tax rates range from 14.85% to 24% with no exemptions—there are two excess profits taxes, one based on the declared value of capital stock with rates remaining at 6% and 12%, and the new excess profits tax based on adjusted net income over $5,000 with rates from 25% to 50%. Computation of taxes on corporations subject to the new excess profits tax will require special treatment.

Income tax returns for 1940 must be filed by March 15, 1941. Duplicate copies of tax returns are no longer required. Information returns (Form 1099) covering wage and other payments to individuals are to be filed by February 15, 1941, as heretofore.

Old Age Benefits Tax

No change in rates and payable quarterly as heretofore. Periodic statements of earnings are to be furnished each employee beginning with 1940—quarterly statements are recommended.

Federal Unemployment Insurance Tax

Returns are filed on annual basis. Employers of 8 or more for at least 20 weeks during 1940 will be subject to this tax for 1940. The rate is 3% (less credit for payments of 2.7% to the State) or net tax of .3%. Returns to be filed and tax paid by January 31, 1941.

Illinois Unemployment Insurance Tax

The rate remains at 2.7% until after 1942, then it will vary from .5% to 3.6% depending upon each employers unemployment experience. Any employer who had 6 or more employees during at least 20 weeks in 1940 will be subject to the tax for 1940 and for 1941. Returns to be made quarterly. Any one ceasing to be an employer of 6 or more must file an application before January 31, 1941 in order to avoid the tax in 1941. Form No. 22 should be filed at time any employee quits or is discharged for cause—blanks can be procured from the State. Beginning in 1940 the tax is based on wages "paid" which may or may not be the same as wages "payable." Only the first $3,000 of wages paid any employee is subject to the tax.

Few Vacancies Remain In Army Air Corps Stationed At Hawaii

Recruiting officers throughout Illinois, Michigan and Wisconsin today were concentrating their efforts on filling enlistment quotas in the Army Air Corps, it was disclosed today by Brig. Gen. Charles H. Bonesteel, commanding the Sixth Corps Area.

"On October 25, nearly 2,000 vacancies were open for enlistment in the Regular Army Air Corps," said General Bonesteel, "but today only approximately 200 vacancies exist for recruits to train at Jefferson Barracks, Mo., with eventual station in Hawaii."

The vacancies are for training in Air Corps technical branches and are not for pilots, it was explained. Enlistments are for three years. Applicants must be between 18 and 35 years of age, able-bodied, unmarried, citizens who are high school graduates or have a journeyman's rating in a mechanical trade.

Seek Flying Cadets

In addition, two Flying Cadet boards are conducting examinations of applicants for appointment as Flying Cadets. The War Department has given the Sixth Corps Area a monthly quota of 250 Flying Cadets. While taking a nine-month flying course, Flying Cadets are furnished meals, quarters, uniforms, medical care and salaries of $75 per month. Qualifications include: age, between 20 and 27, excellent physical condition, unmarried, citizens, without dependents and completion of two years' college or the equivalent. Upon graduation Flying Cadets are commissioned as second lieutenants in the Air Corps Reserve and serve with the Regular Army for three years.

Reviewing Arlington Bowlers

"Orv" Baldwin bowls on Thursday night,
Although he tries with all his might
His average score is pretty low,
But he's just starting now to go.

In softball he was pretty fair,
Pitched with lots of stuff to 'spare,'
A real good sport, he can't be beat,
No better will you ever meet.

Up at Fox river on the bend,
There's lots of fish he told a friend,
He said 'round them willow trees,
The fish are swarmin,' just like bees.

So this fellow went up there,
To see if he could catch a pair;
By-gosh he didn't get a bite,
And hours he spent upon the site.

Well, fishermen are all the same,
So Orval was absolved of blame,
He wouldn't fib, it doesn't seem,
We wonder if he had a dream.

But when it comes to buyin' paint,
A better place, I'm sure there 'aint,'
Than Webber's on North Dunton street,
The best there is—they can't be beat.

Orv knows his paints from A to Z,
That's different than the willow trees;
Don't worry, he is really swell—
But what fish stories he can tell.

There was no write-up with the bowling scores of Monday night league from the secretary and there might be numerous reasons . . . Gaare's lost three games . . . Rox didn't do as well as usual . . . Dixie Kehe was way off form and it is rumored he slipped Rox a "buck" to keep the scores out of the paper. "Wib." Hartmann got 618 and that's his first 600 series in the "majors."

Shutters

Shutters often contribute much to the appeal of homes of colonial or other periodic design, if they are authentic in style. Manufacturers are now making shutters that conform to the architectural style of all common period homes. They may be installed with funds obtained from qualified lending institutions under the modernization credit plan of the Federal Housing administration.

Sun Nearest Star

Being only 92,000,000 miles away, the sun is our nearest star. The nearest of the bodies we commonly call stars and which are identical with our own sun, is the star Proxima Centauri, which is about 26,000,000,000,000 miles distant.

TALES OF THE STREET

(Palatine Story)

SOME EXCITEMENT

The Crane Tech - Palatine basktball game last Saturday night furnished enough excitement to last a whole season.

A full house greeted the two championship teams: Crane of Chicago, and Palatine of the Northwest Conference.

And after a red hot battle during which Palatine led all the way, the game was forfeited to Palatine with only 90 seconds to go when the Crane coach refused to leave the floor after dashing out to complain about something on which there wasn't anything to complain of.

He finally left the floor, taking his team with him and the officials promptly forfeited the game to Palatine.

At the time of the fiasco Palatine was in the lead 30 to 26, but the Chicago champions were coming strong and if their coach had let them alone it would have been a roaring finish and anyone's game.

As it was it was a roaring finish anyway but of a different kind.

The crowd, many of whom did not know what had happened, rushed on the floor, clustered around the officials, coaches and players, with everyone talking at once.

One noisy visiting rooter got so vehement to one of the officials that he was given the bums rush out of the building with some of Palatine's prominent citizens leadving the phalanx of rushers.

It was the wildest scene on a local basketball floor since the time many years ago when an official and visiting principal were nearly mobbed on the same floor.

On that occasion the official was ill and in no shape to handle a game and readily admitted after the game that he was terrible.

In Saturday's fiasco the visiting coach lost his head.

Apparently not able to "take it" at seeing his Chicago champions losing to a "bush" team from the couuntry the coach lost his head, for which he was no doubt plenty sorry after it was all over.

The game was a dandy up to that drab finish and both teams played plenty of good basketball and if the Crane team had been let alone it would have been one hair-raising finish.

The Crane lights defeated the Palatine reserves in a game where the Chicago boys showed as speedy a team and as clever a passing game as has been seen in Palatine in many a day.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The Christmas spirit is being manifest in many ways around Palatine.

Prettily decorated Christmas windows in the business district, the Lions club and Legion Christmas trees, the many Christmas parties to be given by the various organizations and last but by no means least the Christmas basket preparations being made by the Legion boys and other cooperating organizations.

And don't for a minute think that there is not plenty of need for help for the less fortunate at this Christmas season and the Legion boys will welcome any help in their basket campaign.

And another thing, to really enjoy the Christmas season anyone needs to be dressed warm and sleep warm and Supervisor John H. Meyer of the local relief office is calling for clothes and bedding that anyone can spare.

Help enjoy the season by helping others be comfortable.

EARLY WINTER

Yes, its an early winter all right, and its a long way to go until next spring.

There is lots of corn and beans still in the farmers' fields and the fellows on the farms are hoping for a little good weather to get some of that blown down corn harvested.

But anyway, its milder than that sub zero wave of last week, which is something to be thankful for.

From 10 to 14 below here in the village, 18 below out on the farms and according to Roger Kappa 20 below in Schaumburg.

And Roger that morning pretty near didn't get to work.

When he struck Plum Grove avenue he had a great desire to turn south and keep going, hunting for those balmy breezes, and the shady live oaks that the Tales of the Street reporter, tells about.

Another thing, this milder weather lets August Hackbarth of Cactus fame come to town in his auto.

We heard reports during that cold snowy weather that August had made him a dog sled and was training his big dog to haul it and that he was on the lookout for some more dogs to complete his team.

Then no matter how bad the winter got he'd come sailing to town over the snow banks with his dog team.

Just like Santa Claus and his reindeer.

And do you notice how much brighter the loop is these days when Hank Roper's "blue streak" is parked down town. It just brightens up the whole scenery.

Parking Space Shrinks

In business districts of representative American cities, legal curb parking space has shrunk from one-third to one-half in the past 10 years.

22 S. STATE ROAD ARLINGTON HEIGHTS

Kindergarten Party

Invitations have been sent to the 82 mothers of Kindergarten children that a Christmas party will be held in the assembly of the north side school Friday morning, December 20 at ten o'clock. Dorothy Edwards, the teacher, has received word that Santa is coming and will bring some fine things for the kindergarten room.

Robins Damage Crops

Game Warden B. S. Frederickson of San Jose, Calif., advised the board of supervisors that damage to the strawberry crop in the famous Santa Clara valley will be heavy this year. Robins, he explained, had arrived at the same time as the strawberries began to ripen and ate them as fast as they turned red.

Reviewing Arlington Bowlers

"Orv" Baldwin bowls on Thursday night,
Although he tries with all his might
His average score is pretty low,
But he's just starting now to go.

In softball he was pretty fair,
Pitched with lots of stuff to 'spare,'
A real good sport, he can't be beat,
No better will you ever meet.

Up at Fox river on the bend,
There's lots of fish he told a friend,
He said 'round them willow trees,
The fish are swarmin,' just like bees.

So this fellow went up there,
To see if he could catch a pair;
By-gosh he didn't get a bite,
And hours he spent upon the site.

Well, fishermen are all the same,
So Orval was absolved of blame,
He wouldn't fib, it doesn't seem,
We wonder if he had a dream.

But when it comes to buyin' paint,
A better place, I'm sure there 'aint,'
Than Webber's on North Dunton street,
The best there is—they can't be beat.

Orv knows his paints from A to Z,
That's different than the willow trees;
Don't worry, he is really swell—
But what fish stories he can tell.

There was no write-up with the bowling scores of Monday night league from the secretary and there might be numerous reasons . . . Gaare's lost three games . . . Rox didn't do as well as usual . . . Dixie Kehe was way off form and it is rumored he slipped Rox a "buck" to keep the scores out of the paper. "Wib." Hartmann got 618 and that's his first 600 series in the "majors."

Shutters

Shutters often contribute much to the appeal of homes of colonial or other periodic design, if they are authentic in style. Manufacturers are now making shutters that conform to the architectural style of all common period homes. They may be installed with funds obtained from qualified lending institutions under the modernization credit plan of the Federal Housing administration.

Sun Nearest Star

Being only 92,000,000 miles away, the sun is our nearest star. The nearest of the bodies we commonly call stars and which are identical with our own sun, is the star Proxima Centauri, which is about 26,000,000,000,000 miles distant.

TALES OF THE STREET

(Palatine Story)

SOME EXCITEMENT

The Crane Tech - Palatine basktball game last Saturday night furnished enough excitement to last a whole season.

A full house greeted the two championship teams: Crane of Chicago, and Palatine of the Northwest Conference.

And after a red hot battle during which Palatine led all the way, the game was forfeited to Palatine with only 90 seconds to go when the Crane coach refused to leave the floor after dashing out to complain about something on which there wasn't anything to complain of.

He finally left the floor, taking his team with him and the officials promptly forfeited the game to Palatine.

At the time of the fiasco Palatine was in the lead 30 to 26, but the Chicago champions were coming strong and if their coach had let them alone it would have been a roaring finish and anyone's game.

As it was it was a roaring finish anyway but of a different kind.

The crowd, many of whom did not know what had happened, rushed on the floor, clustered around the officials, coaches and players, with everyone talking at once.

One noisy visiting rooter got so vehement to one of the officials that he was given the bums rush out of the building with some of Palatine's prominent citizens leading the phalanx of rushers.

It was the wildest scene on a local basketball floor since the time many years ago when an official and visiting principal were nearly mobbed on the same floor.

On that occasion the official was ill and in no shape to handle a game and readily admitted after the game that he was terrible.

In Saturday's fiasco the visiting coach lost his head.

Apparently not able to "take it" at seeing his Chicago champions losing to a "bush" team from the couuntry the coach lost his head, for which he was no doubt plenty sorry after it was all over.

The game was a dandy up to that drab finish and both teams played plenty of good basketball and if the Crane team had been let alone it would have been one hair-raising finish.

The Crane lights defeated the Palatine reserves in a game where the Chicago boys showed as speedy a team and as clever a passing game as has been seen in Palatine in many a day.

CHRISTMAS SPIRIT

The Christmas spirit is being manifest in many ways around Palatine.

Prettily decorated Christmas windows in the business district, the Lions club and Legion Christmas trees, the many Christmas parties to be given by the various organizations and last but by no means least the Christmas basket preparations being made by the Legion boys and other cooperating organizations.

And don't for a minute think that there is not plenty of need for help for the less fortunate at this Christmas season and the Legion boys will welcome any help in their basket campaign.

And another thing, to really enjoy the Christmas season anyone needs to be dressed warm and sleep warm and Supervisor John H. Meyer of the local relief office is calling for clothes and bedding that anyone can spare.

Help enjoy the season by helping others be comfortable.

EARLY WINTER

Yes, its an early winter all right, and its a long way to go until next spring.

There is lots of corn and beans still in the farmers' fields and the fellows on the farms are hoping for a little good weather to get some of that blown down corn harvested.

But anyway, its milder than that sub zero wave of last week, which is something to be thankful for.

From 10 to 14 below here in the village, 18 below out on the farms and according to Roger Kappa 20 below in Schaumburg.

And Roger that morning pretty near didn't get to work.

When he struck Plum Grove avenue he had a great desire to turn south and keep going, hunting for those balmy breezes, and the shady live oaks that the Tales of the Street reporter, tells about.

Another thing, this milder weather lets August Hackbarth of Cactus fame come to town in his auto.

We heard reports during that cold snowy weather that August had made him a dog sled and was training his big dog to haul it and that he was on the lookout for some more dogs to complete his team.

Then no matter how bad the winter got he'd come sailing to town over the snow banks with his dog team.

Just like Santa Claus and his reindeer.

And do you notice how much brighter the loop is these days when Hank Roper's "blue streak" is parked down town. It just brightens up the whole scenery.

Parking Space Shrinks

In business districts of representative American cities, legal curb parking space has shrunk from one-third to one-half in the past 10 years.

Kindergarten Party

Invitations have been sent to the 82 mothers of Kindergarten children that a Christmas party will be held in the assembly of the north side school Friday morning, December 20 at ten o'clock. Dorothy Edwards, the teacher, has received word that Santa is coming and will bring some fine things for the kindergarten room.

Robins Damage Crops

Game Warden B. S. Frederickson of San Jose, Calif., advised the board of supervisors that damage to the strawberry crop in the famous Santa Clara valley will be heavy this year. Robins, he explained, had arrived at the same time as the strawberries began to ripen and ate them as fast as they turned red.

"THE END OF THE TRAIL"
A Sports Party for the "Gang"

Elsie who lives on the edge of town is giving a Sports Party next Saturday. The guests will be members of the high school senior class with whom Elsie pals around. She calls them "the gang".

The gang have been instructed to come in warm sports clothes prepared to skate . . . if the ice is firm enough . . . or go hiking through the woods . . . or whatever turns up. They are promised eats at the end of the trail . . . which, of course, is Elsie's house.

Elsie has decided that she wants to carry out an all-American pioneer atmosphere. No fancy food at the table . . . but good old American standbys. So here is the menu that Elsie, her mother and I have arranged for the party.

Brunswick Stew Hot Corn Bread Honey
Molded Cranberry Salad Filled with Apples and Peanuts
Dark Plum Duff with Creamy Sauce
Cocoa or Coffee

I wish I had the space to tell you all about the history of this old Virginia favorite, Brunswick Stew. It's been served at community gatherings for generations. Corn bread just naturally seems to go with it. Although one can substitute hot biscuits if they are preferred.

Elsie was doubtful about the molded cranberry salad . . . until it was pointed out that it was made up of such all American standbys as cranberries, peanuts and apples.

And the Dark Plum Duff Steamed Pudding comes from our west coast and is made with our own American prunes. It's really a delicious dessert from California pioneer days.

Before supper Elsie is going to pin a bit of paper on the back of each guest with the name of some American pioneer. There will be Daniel Boone . . . Kit Carson . . . Marcus Whitman, etc. Each guest will have to guess who he is from the remarks made to him by the other guests.

After supper there will be a buffalo hunt . . . and I'll send directions for this game to any who write for them.

BRUNSWICK STEW

Cut up 1 large stewing chicken . . . add 2 qt. water . . . 2 slices bacon (cut up) . . . 1 onion (sliced) . . . and 1 tsp. salt. Stew for 2 hours. Then remove chicken from bones and cut into fairly large pieces.

Put back in stew and add 3 large tomatoes or 2½ cups canned tomatoes (a No. 2 can) . . . 2 large potatoes, sliced . . . 1 cup canned baby lima beans . . . 1 tsp. sugar . . . 2 tsp. salt . . . and ½ tsp. pepper . . . and a dash of red pepper.

Let boil ½ hour and add 2½ cups whole kernel corn (a No. 2 can). Let boil another ½ hour and add 2 tbsp. melted butter and 2 tbsp. flour blended together to thicken.

This can be kept thin enough to serve in soup plates . . . or it can be thickened enough to serve on hot biscuits or toast. This amount makes 8 servings.

DARK PLUM DUFF

Beat 2 eggs well. Then stir 1 cup brown sugar into ½ cup melted shortening and add to the egg. Add 2 cups cooked prunes (measured after draining and pitting) which have been well drained and cut into small pieces.

Sift 1 cup sifted flour and ½ tsp. salt together, and add to prune mixture. Add 1 tsp. soda last, dissolved in 1 tbsp. cold milk. Mix well. Fill one 7-inch tube center mold (1 qt.) or coffee cans, or individual custard cups, well greased, not more than ⅔ full. Cover. Steam 1 hour. Serve hot with Creamy Sauce.

Note: Dark Plum Duff may be steam-baked instead of steamed. Use greased custard cups, filling each cup not more than ⅔ full. Set cups in pan of hot water (having water reach well up on cups). Bake 45 to 50 minutes in moderate oven (350° F.). 8 to 10 servings.

Creamy Sauce

Beat 1 egg until foamy. Add 5 tbsp. melted butter slowly, then 1½ cups confectioners' sugar. Mix well. Blend in 1 cup whipping cream (½ pt.) which has been beaten stiff. Add 1 tsp. vanilla.

OBITUARIES

Lewis Kruse

Lewis Kruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kruse, of Addison township, passed away suddenly Thursday evening at the Elmhurst hospital, at Elmhurst, at the age of 16 years, 2 months and 3 days.

He was born on October 2, 1924 in Addison township where he has made his home with his parents until the time of his departure.

He leaves to mourn his sudden departure, his loving parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kruse, and two brothers, Clarence and Paul, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were Monday afternoon, at 1:30 p. m. at the home of his parents and at 2:00 p. m. at the Addison Lutheran church; interment in the Addison Lutheran cemetery.

Henry G. Fasse

Henry G. Fasse of Schaumburg township passed away suddenly at his home, Saturday afternoon at the age of 63 years, 11 months and 10 days.

He was born December 27, 1876, in Schaumburg township, received his education and made his home in that township his entire life.

He was united in marriage to Miss Clara Gieseke on September 10, 1903, at the Schaumburg Lutheran church by Rev. Mueller. This couple always made their home at their present location.

He leaves to mourn his sudden departure, his loving wife, Clara, and five living children, Wilbert, Evelyn, Raymond, Adeline and Harold; one daughter-in-law; a mother-in-law, Mrs. Engel Gieseke; two sisters, Mrs. Amalia Meyer, Mrs. Amanda Gieseke; nine sisters-in-law and ten brothers-in-law.

Funeral services were Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. from his home and at 2:00 p. m. at the Schaumburg Lutheran church, Rev. Behling officiating, Mr. Hamann rendering the organ selections; interment was in the Schaumburg Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. Margaret Mundy

Mrs. Margaret Mundy, daughter of Henry and Mary Bergman, was born January 30, 1878 in Chicago.

She received the Sacrament of Baptism and her early Christian training in Confirmation instruction in an Evangelical church in Chicago; a member of the Evangelical Synod of North America.

She was married to Albert C. Mundy Feb. 15, 1903 by the Rev. J. C. Hoffmeister, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church at Palatine at that time. Mr. and Mrs. Mundy have made their home in Palatine since their marriage.

Mrs. Mundy has been sick for about five months. About a week ago she became seriously ill and gradually grew worse until she died at 5 p. m. Monday, December 2, at the Sherman hospital in Elgin at the age of 62 years, 10 months and 2 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her husband, Mr. Albert C. Mundy of Palatine; her mother, Mrs. Mary Bergman, of Elgin; one brother, Mr. John Bergman and family of Elgin; two uncles, Mr. Daniel and Mr. John Bergman and their families of Palatine; one aunt, Mrs. Margaret Kniggee and family of Palatine; a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, December 5, from the Danielsen funeral home in Palatine at 2 p. m.

Interment was made in the Mt. Hope cemetery at Highland Grove. Rev. W. F. Huebner, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church in Palatine, officiated.

Palatine Little Tots

JOHNNY LUERSSEN

Meet Johnny, folks. This picture does not do him justice because it was taken two months ago. He is now 6½ months old and has never been ill a day. Dad is a little put out because the youngster does not seem to recognize him as readily as he does his mother. Dad is getting even, however, and vows that the first word the boy shall say will be daddy. Having made the acquaintance of Johnny you will want to know who are his parents. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Luerssen and they reside at 19 S. Bothwell st., Palatine.

BARBARA ANN

At first we were not going to put any name under this picture and see how many basketball fans could recognize the features of Gray Sanborn's daughter. But there are some Palatine people who may not know Gray and Barbara Ann is old enough and active enough to be "on her own."

Barbara is four years old, has brown hair and gray eyes. The only trouble she has in the world is her dog, "Mitzie" who does not always mind her orders. Her hobby is play acting. Her greatest interest is the high school band and basketball games, and if Palatine was nearer to Hollywood, we could see in Barbara Ann, a baby movie star. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gray Sanborn, 309 N. Brockway, Palatine.

GEORGE BEYER, JR.

George Beyer, Sr., has several reasons to be rather proud of the "chip off the old block." Junior looks like his dad; likes to cut capers as well as his dad and "mother" says with his little drum he can drown out any noise that dad may make. In fact George, Jr., with his blue eyes and light hair is king of all he surveys at 255 West Slade Street, Palatine.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to relatives, neighbors and friends for kindness and sympathy etxended us in our bereavement. Also for the use of cars and for floral tribute.

Mrs. William Kreft and Family.

Palatine Christmas Tree Fund Grows

The Christmas tree sponsored by the Lions club with the aid of contributions from citizens and business houses is a reality once more.

A fine 25 foot tree was erected in the Abelman lot Tuesday.

That tree will again furnish a lot of Christmas atmosphere to the business district during the holiday season and along with the smaller trees in front of the business houses will make the Palatine business district a festive appearing center of activity.

Chairman Roy La Londe of the committee in charge of the tree and attendant celebrations reports substantial contributions toward the fund.

Over $30.00 was donated by individual members of the Lions club at their meeting last week.

Judge Henry Roper $1; Wm. Kehe Jr. $2; Clarence Collignon $1; W. S. Williams $1; Harrison Kincaid $1; James Harz $1; Saunders Oil Co. $2; Thos. Hart $1; Gray Sanborn $1; Stuart Paddock $2; Chas. Palatine Farmers Win Top Corn Yield

An outstanding corn yield of 131.6 bushels per acre, has just won the championship for Elmer Plote, of Palatine, for Cook County in the 1940 North Corn Belt Seed Growers, Inc., yield contest.

Mr. Plote's corn was grown under just ordinary farm conditions and good farming practices. His yield is considerably better then double the average for his county. It was produced with Pfister's 266.

The runner-up to Mr. Plote, for second place, was Edward Bohlin, Route 2, Palatine, with a yield of 123 bushels per acre with the same hybrid strain. The yield checks were made by a representative of the seed company, and local neighbor witnesses.

Many farmers cooperated this year in producing high yields of corn, in similar contests throughout the corn belt, according to Mr. Adolph Busse, of Arlington Heights.

EAST MAINE

MABEL WARNCKE, Editor

St. Matthews Ladies Aid sincerely appreciate the 450 folks coming out to make their turkey dinner a success Wednesday evening, Dec. 4. Guess it takes more than a snowy night with slippery highways to keep the folks away when such a delicious dinner is in the offing. Mrs. Fred Lehman was the lucky winner of the beautiful doll awarded.

Otto Jaacks celebrated his birthday anniversary December 4th. A houseful of friends and neighbors came to help him commemorate the occasion. Card games were the order of the evening and sand-

Marold Glowke slipped on his icy yard last Saturday morning and sustained a sprained ankle, so he will be laid up for the next few weeks.

The East Maine public school will have their Christmas program and party at the school house Friday afternoon, December 20.

Louis Koch was stricken with acute appendicitis Thursday night and underwent an appendectomy at the Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines, early December 6. He is convalescing satisfactorily. Gordon McLennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. McLennan of Golf road, is expected home from the hospital the end of this week. He also submitted to an appendectomy on December 1.

Sprinkle Early

Early morning is the best time to sprinkle the lawn. A thorough wetting is best; it promotes deep, healthy roots in contrast to the shallow root system of grass lightly sprinkled.

"THE END OF THE TRAIL"
A Sports Party for the "Gang"

Elsie who lives on the edge of town is giving a Sports Party next Saturday. The guests will be members of the high school senior class with whom Elsie pals around. She calls them "the gang".

The gang have been instructed to come in warm sports clothes prepared to skate . . . if the ice is firm enough . . . or go hiking through the woods . . . or whatever turns up. They are promised eats at the end of the trail . . . which, of course, is Elsie's house.

Elsie has decided that she wants to carry out an All-American pioneer atmosphere. No fancy food at the table . . . but good old American standbys. So here is the menu that Elsie, her mother and I have arranged for the party.

Brunswick Stew Hot Corn Bread Honey
Molded Cranberry Salad Filled with Apples and Peanuts
Dark Plum Duff with Creamy Sauce
Cocoa or Coffee

I wish I had the space to tell you all about the history of this old Virginia favorite, Brunswick Stew. It's been served at community gatherings for generations. Corn bread just naturally seems to go with it. Although one can substitute hot biscuits if they are preferred.

Elsie was doubtful about the molded cranberry salad . . . until it was pointed out that it was made up of such all American standbys as cranberries, peanuts and apples.

And the Dark Plum Duff Steamed Pudding comes from our west coast and is made with our own American prunes. It's really a delicious dessert from California pioneer days.

Before supper Elsie is going to pin a bit of paper on the back of each guest with the name of some American pioneer. There will be Daniel Boone . . . Kit Carson . . . Marcus Whitman, etc. Each guest will have to guess who he is from the remarks made to him by the other guests.

After supper there will be a buffalo hunt . . . and I'll send directions for this game to any who write for them.

BRUNSWICK STEW

Cut up 1 large stewing chicken . . . add 2 qt. water . . . 2 slices bacon (cut up) . . . 1 onion (sliced) . . . and 1 tsp. salt. Stew for 2 hours. Then remove chicken from bones and cut into fairly large pieces.

Put back in stew and add 3 large tomatoes or 2½ cups canned tomatoes (a No. 2 can) . . . 2 large potatoes, sliced . . . 1 cup canned baby lima beans . . . 1 tsp. sugar . . . 2 tsp. salt . . . and ½ tsp. pepper . . . and a dash of red pepper.

Let boil ½ hour and add 2½ cups whole kernel corn (a No. 2 can).

Let boil another ½ hour and add 2 tbsp. melted butter and 2 tbsp. flour blended together to thicken.

This can be kept thin enough to serve in soup plates . . . or it can be thickened enough to serve on hot biscuits or toast. This amount makes 8 servings.

DARK PLUM DUFF

Beat 2 eggs well. Then stir 1 cup brown sugar into ½ cup melted shortening and add to the egg. Add 2 cups cooked prunes (measured after draining and pitting) which have been well drained and cut into small pieces.

Sift 1 cup sifted flour and ½ tsp. salt together, and add to prune mixture. Add 1 tsp. soda last, dissolved in 1 tbsp. cold milk. Mix well. Fill one 7-inch tube center mold (1 qt.) or coffee cans, or individual custard cups, well greased, not more than ⅔ full. Cover. Steam 1 hour. Serve hot with Creamy Sauce.

Note: Dark Plum Duff may be steam-baked instead of steamed. Use greased custard cups, filling each cup not more than ⅔ full. Set cups in pan of hot water (having water reach well up on cups). Bake 45 to 50 minutes in moderate oven (350° F.). 8 to 10 servings.

Creamy Sauce

Beat 1 egg until foamy. Add 5 tbsp. melted butter slowly, then 1½ cups confectioners' sugar. Mix well. Blend in 1 cup whipping cream (½ pt.) which has been beaten stiff. Add 1 tsp. vanilla.

OBITUARIES

Lewis Kruse

Lewis Kruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kruse, of Addison township passed away suddenly Thursday evening at the Elmhurst hospital, at Elmhurst, at the age of 16 years, 2 months and 3 days.

He was born on October 2, 1924 in Addison township where he has made his home with his parents until the time of his departure.

He leaves to mourn his sudden departure, his loving parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edward Kruse, and two brothers, Clarence and Paul, and many other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were Monday afternoon, at 1:30 p. m. at the home of his parents and at 2:00 p. m. at the Addison Lutheran church; interment in the Addison Lutheran cemetery.

Henry G. Fasse

Henry G. Fasse of Schaumburg township passed away suddenly at his home, Saturday afternoon at the age of 63 years, 11 months and 10 days.

He was born December 27, 1876, in Schaumburg township, received his education and made his home in that township his entire life.

He was united in marriage to Miss Clara Gieseke on September 10, 1903, at the Schaumburg Lutheran church by Rev. Mueller. This couple always made their home at their present location.

He leaves to mourn his sudden departure, his loving wife, Clara, and five living children, Wilbert, Evelyn, Raymond, Adeline and Harold; one daughter-in-law; a mother-in-law, Mrs. Engel Gieseke; two sisters, Mrs. Amalia Meyer, Mrs. Amanda Gieseke; nine sisters-in-law and ten brothers-in-law.

Funeral services were Wednesday afternoon at 1:30 p. m. from his home and at 2:00 p. m. at the Schaumburg Lutheran church, Rev. Behling officiating, Mr. Hamann rendering the organ selections; interment was in the Schaumburg Lutheran cemetery.

Mrs. Margaret Mundy

Mrs. Margaret Mundy, daughter of Henry and Mary Bergman, was born January 30, 1878 in Chicago.

She received the Sacrament of Baptism and her early Christian training in Confirmation instruction in an Evangelical church in Chicago; a member of the Evangelical Synod of North America.

She was married to Albert C. Mundy Feb. 15, 1903 by the Rev. J. C. Hoffmeister, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical church at Palatine at that time. Mr. and Mrs. Mundy have made their home in Palatine since their marriage.

Mrs. Mundy has been sick for about five months. About a week ago she became seriously ill and gradually grew worse until she died at 5 p. m. Monday, December 2, at the Sherman hospital in Elgin at the age of 62 years, 10 months and 2 days.

She leaves to mourn her departure, her husband, Mr. Albert C. Mundy of Palatine; her mother, Mrs. Mary Bergman, of Elgin; one brother, Mr. John Bergman and family of Elgin; two uncles, Mr. Daniel and Mr. John Bergman and their families of Palatine; one aunt, Mrs. Margaret Kniggee and family of Palatine; a number of nieces and nephews and other relatives and friends.

Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon, December 5, from the Danielsen funeral home in Palatine at 2 p. m.

Interment was made in the Mt. Hope cemetery at Highland Grove. Rev. W. F. Huebner, pastor of St. Paul's Evangelical and Reformed church in Palatine, officiated.

Palatine Little Tots

JOHNNY LUERSSEN

Meet Johnny, folks. This picture does not do him justice because it was taken two months ago. He is now 6½ months old and has never been ill a day. Dad is a little put out because the youngster does not seem to recognize him as readily as he does his mother. Dad is getting even, however, and vows that the first word the boy shall say will be daddy. Having made the acquaintance of Johnny you will want to know who are his parents. They are Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Luerssen and they reside at 19 S. Bothwell st., Palatine.

BARBARA ANN

At first we were not going to put any name under this picture and see how many basketball fans could recognize the features of Gray Sanborn's daughter. But there are some Palatine people who may not know Gray and Barbara Ann is old enough and active enough to be "on her own."

Barbara is four years old, has brown hair and gray eyes. The only trouble she has in the world is her dog, "Mitzie" who does not always mind her orders. Her hobby is play acting. Her greatest interest is the high school band and basketball games, and if Palatine was nearer to Hollywood, we could see in Barbara Ann, a baby movie star. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Gray Sanborn, 309 N. Brockway, Palatine.

GEORGE BEYER, JR.

George Beyer, Sr., has several reasons to be rather proud of the "chip off the old block." Junior looks like his dad; likes to cut capers as well as his dad and "mother" says with his little drum he can drown out any noise that dad may make. In fact George, Jr., with his blue eyes and light hair is king of all he surveys at 255 West Slade Street, Palatine.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish to express our sincere appreciation to relatives, neighbors and friends for kindness and sympathy etxended us in our bereavement. Also for the use of cars and for floral tribute.

Mrs. William Kreft and Family.

Palatine Christmas Tree Fund Grows

The Christmas tree sponsored by the Lions club with the aid of contributions from citizens and business houses is a reality once more.

A fine 25 foot tree was erected in the Abelman lot Tuesday.

That tree will again furnish a lot of Christmas atmosphere to the business district during the holiday season and along with the smaller trees in front of the business houses will make the Palatine business district a festive appearing center of activity.

Chairman Roy La Londe of the committee in charge of the tree and attendant celebrations reports substantial contributions toward the fund.

Over $30.00 was donated by individual members of the Lions dub at their meeting last week.

Judge Henry Roper $1; Wm. Kehe Jr. $2; Clarence Collignon $1; W. S. Williams $1; Harrison Kincaid $1; James Harz $1; Saunders Oil Co. $2; Thos. Hart $1; Gray Sanborn $1; Stuart Paddock $2; Chas. Folkerts $1; Wm. G. Ost $1; F. F. Wente $2; Dr. C. D. Starck $1; Otto Gaare $3; Phillips 66 Oil Sta. (Wahl) $2; Adolph Godknecht $1; Ed. L. Karls $1; Layman Hay $1; Earl Lihme $1; E. P. Steinrinck $1; F. F. Danielsen $2; Larry Koch $1; Wm. H. De Pue $1; Palatine Town. Dem. Org. $1; W. R. Comfort Sons $2; Peter Horse Const. Co. $1; Hartleb's Pharmacy $1; Betty's Food Shop $1; Pure Oil Sta. (A. M. Kunze) $2; W. A. Danielsen $1; A. C. Zimmer $1; R. L. La Londe $2; Eddy Haemker $2; Palatine Twp. Republican Club $2.

The subscription list is still open and additional contributions will be acknowledged in future editions.

Palatine Farmers Win Top Corn Yield

An outstanding corn yield of 131.6 bushels per acre, has just won the championship for Elmer Plote, of Palatine, for Cook County in the 1940 North Corn Belt Seed Growers, Inc., yield contest.

Mr. Plote's corn was grown under just ordinary farm conditions and good farming practices. His yield is considerably better then double the average for his county. It was produced with Pfister's 266.

The runner-up to Mr. Plote, for second place, was Edward Bohlin, Route 2, Palatine, with a yield of 123 bushels per acre with the same hybrid strain. The yield checks were made by a representative of the seed company, and local neighbor witnesses.

Many farmers cooperated this year in producing high yields of corn, in similar contests throughout the corn belt, according to Mr. Adolph Busse, of Arlington Heights.

EAST MAINE

MABEL WARNCKE, Editor

St. Matthews Ladies Aid sincerely appreciate the 450 folks coming out to make their turkey dinner a success Wednesday evening, Dec. 4. Guess it takes more than a snowy night with slippery highways to keep the folks away when such a delicious dinner is in the offing. Mrs. Fred Lehman was the lucky winner of the beautiful doll awarded.

Otto Jaacks celebrated his birthday anniversary December 4th. A houseful of friends and neighbors came to help him commemorate the occasion. Card games were the order of the evening and sand-

Martin Gieweke slipped on his icy yard last Saturday morning and sustained a sprained ankle, so he will be laid up for the next few weeks.

The East Maine public school will have their Christmas program and party at the school house Friday afternoon, December 20.

Louis Koch was stricken with wiches and cake were served later. acute appendicitis Thursday night and underwent an appendectomy at the Northwestern hospital in Des Plaines, early December 6. He is convalescing satisfactorily. Gordon McLennan, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. McLennan of Golf road, is expected home from the hospital the end of this week. He also submitted to an appendectomy on December 1.

Sprinkle Early

Early morning is the best time to sprinkle the lawn. A thorough wetting is best; it promotes deep, healthy roots in contrast to the shallow root system of grass lightly sprinkled.

MOUNT PROSPECT

Arlington Heights High School Graduate Receives High Honors

This week at Iowa State College, Ralph Spears of Mt. Prospect, a graduate of Arlington Heights township high school, is on probation as an initiate to the national honorary engineering fraternity Tau Beta Pi. His fundamental training was received in Mount Prospect public schools and he is now in his senior year at Iowa State College, majoring in Architectural Engineering. In his Junior year he was elected to Tau Sigma Delta, a national honorary fraternity of Architectural Engineers. In addition to academic efforts, he earned a school letter as student manager of Varsity football. Iowa State College competes in Big Six football with such teams as Oklahoma, Missouri, Kansas, Kansas State and Nebraska.

Lions Club News

As no doubt many of you noticed the local business men have again shown Christmas spirit by decorating the town with numerous wreaths hung on the lamp posts about the business district; other decorations, lights, etc., will follow. BUY AT HOME!

MOTHERS: You who are on the home stretch now, the race is nearing the end. Don't forget the first 1941 baby of Mt. Prospect receives a $15.00 bank account donated by the Lions club.

HEY YOU KIDS: The toboggan slide is back in shape, as strong and slippery as ever; there's no turning back when you're half way down; down with the snow—done with your home work?—down with the toboggan.

Annual Xmas Seal Sale

Were you asked what is the greatest cause of death to people between the ages of 15-45 years, would you know that the answer is Tuberculosis? Would you know, too, that the annual Christmas Seal Sale raises the principal funds with which tuberculosis is fought?

To most people these facts are a revelation, for generally speaking where this dread disease has never struck a home, its devastating results are never felt, and the inclination is to ignore the work that is being done to fight tuberculosis. It is estimated that there are more than 500,000 active cases of tuberculosis in the United States. Since tuberculosis is contagious, it is also preventable, and therefore the general deduction that no home is safe until all are safe, should be of vital concern to every American.

The Christmas Seal mobilizes all Americans once a year to help wage this battle against the spread of tuberculosis. For 34 years these pennies have united to assist in the scientific research which has reduced the death rate 76%. Last year alone the number of deaths dropped 46.6% per 100,000 population in the United States, and in Illinois the mortality rate was 45.2% less than the national rate.

Today tuberculosis ranks seventh in importance as the cause of deaths, but it has only been gradually forced into this position since 1912, where up to that time it had been the first cause of death. These figures may be gratifying, yet they are no picture of the true situation for they cannot tell the special problems that still exist in this fight against tuberculosis until the cause can be won. Even now 175 persons die every day from tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis is no respecter of age, yet the fact that its death toll nets the heaviest return in the ages between 15-45, proves that this disease robs this country of young people during their most productive years of life. Annually, 35,000 young people of this age group are claimed by tuberculosis, and although the death rate has been reduced from 222 per 100,000 population in 1911 to 19 per 100,000 in 1939, the Christmas Seal pennies still have work to do before tuberculosis is stamped out.

Since tuberculosis is a highly communicable disease, stressing the importance of early discovery can not be overestimated. Thus the anti-tuberculosis program has encouraged tuberculin testing in the schools, provided X-rays, diagnostic chest clinics, physical examinations, and health education. These means of checking before the spread of the disease can continue, are important practical features of wiping out tuberculosis.

The message of the double-barred cross which symbolizes the anti-tuberculosis fight is stressed perennially in a crusade to overcome this dread disease. The Christmas Seal pennies and dollars have aroused a nation against the disease and has made this war against tuberculosis one of the greatest of all wars. To overcome one of man's worst enemies means total defense for a nation of healthy Americans ready to meet all crises with sound bodies and strong man-power.

The meetings are open to all and the officers of the Mount Prospect Camera club extend this invitation to anyone who would like to attend.

American Legion Auxiliary

A most enjoyable Christmas meeting of the Auxiliary was held on Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Gilson.

The most important business of the evening was the additional work taken on by the unit at the Edward Hines hospital. At least seven additional trips will be made there this year, as Mount Prospect has been given every second Wednesday instead of every fifth Friday.

A decrease was made in the pledge to the Department Treasure Chest fund, in order to give the hospital chairman an additional fund for use at Hines for the purchase of cigarettes for the men in wards assigned to the unit.

On December 23, Mount Prospect Unit will assist in the trimming of Christmas trees for each and every patient. A fund was created for the purchase of socks for the hospitalized men, also gifts of used socks will be appreciated by Mrs. Verret, but they must be clean and mended.

The Americanism chairman, Mrs. Crawford, gave a brief report and a donation was made to the District Normal Cottage Fund.

Because of the holidays, it was voted to dispense with the last meeting in December.

The members played "Bingo" and exchanged Christmas gifts, following the close of the business meeting, after which the hostess served appropriate Christmas refreshments.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohout Celebrate Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Kohout, 210 Elmhurst rd., celebrated their fifteenth wedding anniversary Saturday, December 7. Mrs. Kohout's sister, Mrs. R. Meine of Hinsdale, celebrated her thirty-fifth wedding anniversary. More than seventy people were present for the occasion and an enjoyable evening was had by all.

A Christmas Drama church service will be held at The South Church on Sunday evening, December 15, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Preparations for the service have been carried out by The South Church Players and the Instrumental Ensemble group.

Club Calendar

December 13—Children's Christmas party sponsored by the Woman's club.
December 16 — Camera club meeting.
December 17 — Woman's club Christmas play.
December 19 — Woman's Circle Christmas party.
December 19—Catholic Woman's club Christmas party.

The many friends of Mr. L. C. Risberg, former publisher of the REVIEW, will be glad to hear that he is rapidly recovering from his appendectomy. Latest report is that Roy is promoting a bingo game in his room at the hospital.

Woman's Circle Christmas Party

The Woman's Circle will meet at the home of Mrs. Fasick, 306 South Wa-Pella ave. for their annual Christmas party on Thursday, December 19, instead of Wednesday, December 18, as planned.

TURKEY DINNER AT LEGION HALL

The American Legion Post is sponsoring a party on Friday evening, December 20, at which turkeys will be given to the holders of lucky numbers. The party will be held in the American Legion hall on Northwest Highway and everyone is welcome to attend. No admission charge will be made and if you're lucky you may bring home a Christmas turkey.

Even after hundreds of miles, people mistrust their eyes when they see its snail-like pace from the Full mark toward Empty—they don't see how it's possible for a car as big as Buick to go so far on so little.

But it does—and for good reasons.

The whole FIREBALL engine was designed and built to get the most good out of modern gasolines.

And the simple secret of Compound Carburetion is that it keeps your engine running on its most frugal diet for all normal driving—and provides full feed only when you need, want and call for the lift of extra wallop.

Meantime even the gears are helping save money—for the regular high gear in a Buick gives you the economy of the so-called "gas-saving" top speeds you hear about.

The big thing is, of course, that this is no small car that's setting these economy figures. There are all the room, size, impressiveness, comfort and downright thrilling performance you expect from a Buick.

So it isn't because the needle's out of kilter that it goes down so slowly. It's simply because it's in a FIREBALL Buick.

Annual Xmas Seal Sale

Were you asked what is the greatest cause of death to people between the ages of 15-45 years, would you know that the answer is Tuberculosis? Would you know, too, that the annual Christmas Seal Sale raises the principal funds with which tuberculosis is fought?

To most people these facts are a revelation, for generally speaking where this dread disease has never struck a home, its devastating results are never felt, and the inclination is to ignore the work that is being done to fight tuberculosis. It is estimated that there are more than 500,000 active cases of tuberculosis in the United States. Since tuberculosis is contagious, it is also preventable, and therefore the general deduction that no home is safe until all are safe, should be of vital concern to every American.

The Christmas Seal mobilizes all Americans once a year to help wage this battle against the spread of tuberculosis. For 34 years these pennies have united to assist in the scientific research which has reduced the death rate 76%. Last year alone the number of deaths dropped 46.6% per 100,000 population in the United States, and in Illinois the mortality rate was 45.2% less than the national rate.

Today tuberculosis ranks seventh in importance as the cause of deaths, but it has only been gradually forced into this position since 1912, where up to that time it had been the first cause of death. These figures may be gratifying, yet they are no picture of the true situation for they cannot tell the special problems that still exist in this fight against tuberculosis until the cause can be won. Even now 175 persons die every day from tuberculosis.

Tuberculosis is no respecter of age, yet the fact that its death toll nets the heaviest return in the ages between 15-45, proves that this disease robs this country of young people during their most productive years of life. Annually, 35,000 young people of this age group are claimed by tuberculosis, and although the death rate has been reduced from 222 per 100,000 population in 1911 to 19 per 100,000 in 1939, the Christmas Seal pennies still have work to do before tuberculosis is stamped out.

Since tuberculosis is a highly communicable disease, stressing the importance of early discovery can not be overestimated. Thus the anti-tuberculosis program has encouraged tuberculin testing in the schools, provided X-rays, diagnostic chest clinics, physical examinations, and health education. These means of checking before the spread of the disease can continue, are important practical features of wiping out tuberculosis.

The message of the double-barred cross which symbolizes the anti-tuberculosis fight is stressed perennially in a crusade to overcome this dread disease. The Christmas Seal pennies and dollars have aroused a nation against the disease and has made this war against tuberculosis one of the greatest of all wars. To overcome one of man's worst enemies means total defense for a nation of healthy Americans ready to meet all crises with sound bodies and strong man-power.

it and the minute there was any news they telephoned it through to me (and all other wives) before it was released to either the radio or newspapers. They always do that in case of disasters and it is a comforting thought to the 'next of kin.'

Suddenly I learned the Rangitiki had got in and I knew that even if John had been killed I should know what had happened and knowing the worst is a lot better than suspense.

When I still did not hear from John when the ship was in I thought he was probably a casualty. Two days after that he got a telegram through (it took 48 hours for it to come 80 miles) saying he was all right and the minute they let him off the ship he telephoned.

The sound of his voice was indescribable—to me it was like the corpse waking at a funeral. He had to stay in port five days while repairs were made on the ship, but today he got home. He has a fortnight's leave. He looked very tired, probably from the long watches the officers had to stand while they were getting away from this raider.

He is as cheerful as ever and it certainly has not rattled him in the least. He said it was a very narrow squeak and that he never expected to get out alive. He said it was not only the gallantry of the Jervis Bay that saved them, but a combination of so many other things. The wind happened to be just in the right direction so that the smoke floats they threw over immediately were blown in the right direction.

The weather was the kind that made it possible for them to make the most of their engines and the attack was made just as dusk was coming on which was a very big help. The night was cloudy with the moon mostly below the clouds and that helped screen them. No shells struck them or it would have been curtains for the Rangitiki—a shell that size would have blown her right out of the water—but shells landed close enough to rock her and to plaster her with splinters. John dug some very bad ones out of his cabin window frame which he brought home. I asked him what he did while this was going on—they were shelled for five hours—and he said he put on his life-belt and his steel helmet, ate a big meal in case he might not get another and prayed.

The American Consulate has refused me a visa for a belligerent ship for, as far as they are concerned, I am an American (they choose to ignore my English passport) and they have no truck with British ships. Flying is still out with Clippers booked until July and the American Evacuee ship has not been sent either. I don't care really aside from the disappointment of not seeing you and people like Beulah and Harriet. After all, my place is here. We are British now and no better than 40 million other British and if John can take his life in his hands to do his part, we can do ours. I think ours is not to rush around looking for a hole to crawl into, but to keep as healthy and cheerful as possible and to provide a place for him to come home to on these few leaves he gets.

I think food will be a problem—probaly a serious one, but we shall have to make the best of that. We have replaced all flowers in the garden, outside of perennials, with vegetables and our silkies (Chinese chickens with beautiful plumage) provide us with four or five tiny eggs each day. As long as we feed the wild ducks they stay on the brook, are almost self-sufficient and are a reserve in themselves. They are not laying now, but should begin next month again.

John said even if we could get visas he would not allow us to put a foot on a ship under any circumstances. He said the sinkings now are a lot higher than we think and that while he was crossing the Atlantic the wireless room would receive at least three SOS's a day from ships singing with their lifeboats gone or smashed. He said the smaller ships sink in a very few minutes but the big ones usually sink in ten or fifteen minutes.

When he is not busy, medically, he decodes messages for the wireless staff just to have something to do. He wears his life-beit all day over his uniform and at night sleeps in one—a special one. He never gets all his clothes off either—they have to be prepared for open boats in all weather so he always has on a suit of thick all-wool underwear and at night pajamas and life belts over that. In the morning he has a bath and a fresh suit of wool underwear and his uniform on top of that.

He doesn't seem to mind doing all this himself or what he has to face, but he won't let us do it. Since he certainly knows what he is talking about I am not going to add to his worries by not taking his advice. He says the Germans are absolutely everywhere in submarines and planes. Bodies of children from the City of Benares are still floating around.

I cannot tell you my disappointment at not being able to come home, from a purely selfish point of view, but we must just put it down to the war. We all must serve in one way or another now. I really feel happier in staying because I am doing my duty that way. The night Coventry was bombed so heavily we heard the heavy German bombers going over us for 5 hours—not once in all that time was there a five minute interval. Last night Coventry and Birmington got it again and we heard them over for 6 hours, absolutely non-stop. We could also hear, faintly, a terrific barrage of gun fire

The need is very great, among poor people, for warm clothing for they cannot pay the advanced prices for clothing—even if the rationing allowed it.

John brought five pounds of butter from New Zealand so for once we are having real butter. I gave a half pound each to three families in the village not that we could not eat it ourselves, but those poor little children needed it as much as my children.

John got me some lovely boots in Nova Scotia—water-proofed black velvet up over the ankles with black fur tops and sheepskin linings. They are very warm and look lovely and—they are just what is being worn in Nova Scotia. I don't know how he managed it for he had just an hour in Halifax and it is about like Yubs, Wisconsin, as a shopping center. He stopped at Wellington, New Zealand only long enough to get a very sick patient up country to a hospital.

This week I went to the theater to see Beatrice Lillie in a very funny and rather vulgar show. A laugh is a good thing these days.

So you and your friends are collecting old buttons? I'll get you some from the officers coats.

I wish I could give you the details of the Jervis Bay—they are absolutely thrilling but they would never pass the Censor—they would give too much of naval methods and tactics. I will some day. On John's way out to Australia a submarine got one of the ships in the convoy. Coming back—during the height of the attack, John saw four ships (ours) on fire at once.

I am sorry the Empress of Britain went down—it was a very nice ship, but I did not think it was up to the Bremen for comfort.

My 28th birthday passed quietly and for the first time in my whole life I didn't have a cake but with two ounces each of butter and sugar for each one of us for the week a cake would have cut into the precious store of sugar. We are allowed four ounces of meat each, per week, you may be sure we enjoy the Swift's bacon you send. I could stand in line and buy lungs, kidneys, tripe, etc., but I call that awful and prefer to go without.

With love, Jean.

Henry F. Mueller, Prop.

Not everyone realizes that bowling is a healthful and pleasant exercise, with all the requirements of a good clean sport. It has been said that bowling is America's passport to health. An hour of bowling will keep a healthy man or woman.

The Glenview Recreation Co. have equipped their establishment to meet all the requirements of the game. They have invested much money and time modernizing the building and selecting their alleys and furnishings and now have an up-to-date establishment where both old and young alike meet for recreation. Many ladies will tell you of their thrilling experience after an afternoon or evening of bowling there.

Bowling is now the most popular indoor sport known. It is played and enjoyed by both sexes and its popularity is perhaps due in a large measure to this fact. It is not a new game, having been played for something like five centuries; but its popularity has reached a peak in the past few years.

Much care is taken to keep their furnishings in the best of condition. They will gladly instruct you in any of the games that can be played with the balls and pins. If you are not familiar with the game, get your friends together, make an appointment and spend an afternoon or evening at this popular recreation center. Their modern lunch room is very popular with the public.

It is a pleasure to compliment the management of these alleys upon the high class of entertainment they offer the people of this section.

RUGEN STORES

Glenview, Ill., Phone 1 Northbrook, Ill., Phone 15

The Rugen Stores well merit their slogan "Known to our patrons since 1881." This establishment originally started up as a trading post right after the civil war and they have been serving the public ever since with quality merchandise, priced right.

The Rugen Stores feature a complete stock of quality groceries, hardware and paints, feed and garden needs, dry goods, footwear and clothing, linoleum and rugs, coal, wood, coke, bldg. materials, radios, electric appliances, refrigeration. Visit their stores in either Glenview or Northbrook.

People throughout this district are well acquainted with this favorite shopping center and the many values it affords them in better quality merchandise. It is a mistaken idea that greater bargains may be obtained in larger cities for this is not true; "Every day in the year is bargain day here" is a fitting slogan for The Rugen Stores.

You'll find values beyond comparison in every department. Quality merchandise at reasonable prices. Attractive merchandise and a large selection from which to choose. If you ask your neighbors they'll tell you that they trade at The Rugen Stores because they can save money on the same merchandise without having to drive elsewhere.

We don't ask you to take our word for it, but we do request that you drop in and see for yourself what savings can be made here. After your first shopping trip you will understand what we mean when we say of The Rugen Stores, "Every day in the year is bargain day here."

GLENVIEW MILLWORK CO.

Glenview, Ill. Phone Glenview 760

The Glenview Millwork Co. is known throughout this section as leaders in the distribution of sash, doors, millwork and allied lines. In their years of experience this firm has attained fame through their progressive business methods and superiority of their products.

They make a specialty of millwork of all kinds and can supply you with sash, doors, special millwork and woodwork of all kinds.

In the olden days when we started to build a home, the first requisite was to find a carpenter who could be trusted to build properly the doors, sash, staircase, and build all the finish into the home. Not so today with this modern concern at your disposal. It is true that you should find a real carpenter but by having the millwork ready-made much time can be saved on interior finish.

In the millwork from this concern you are guaranteed honesty of design, material and workmanship. "Once a customer, always a customer."

The Glenview Millwork Co. knows the needs in woodwork of the people and provides for every modern improvement to better their line. We in this review compliment them upon the very valuable service they are rendering and point to the members of the firm as leading citizens of our community who merit our liberal patronage.

No shells struck them or it would have been curtains for the Rangitiki—a shell that size would have blown her right out of the water—but shells landed close enough to rock her and to plaster her with splinters. John dug some very bad ones out of his cabin window frame which he brought home. I asked him what he did while this was going on—they were shelled for five hours—and he said he put on his life-belt and his steel helmet, ate a big meal in case he might not get another and prayed.

The American Consulate has refused me a visa for a belligerent ship for, as far as they are concerned, I am an American (they choose to ignore my English passport) and they have no truck with British ships. Flying is still out with Clippers booked until July and the American Evacuee ship has not been sent either. I don't care really aside from the disappointment of not seeing you and people like Beulah and Harriet. After all, my place is here. We are British now and no better than 40 million other British and if John can take his life in his hands to do his part, we can do ours. I think ours is not to rush around looking for a hole to crawl into, but to keep as healthy and cheerful as possible and to provide a place for him to come home to on these few leaves he gets.

I think food will be a problem—probaly a serious one, but we shall have to make the best of that. We have replaced all flowers in the garden, outside of perennials, with vegetables and our silkies (Chinese chickens with beautiful plumage) provide us with four or five tiny eggs each day. As long as we feed the wild ducks they stay on the brook, are almost self-sufficient and are a reserve in themselves. They are not laying now, but should begin next month again.

John said even if we could get visas he would not allow us to put a foot on a ship under any circumstances. He said the sinkings now are a lot higher than we think and that while he was crossing the Atlantic the wireless room would receive at least three SOS's a day from ships singing with their lifeboats gone or smashed. He said the smaller ships sink in a very few minutes but the big ones usually sink in ten or fifteen minutes.

When he is not busy, medically, he decodes messages for the wireless staff just to have something to do. He wears his life-beit all day over his uniform and at night sleeps in one—a special one. He never gets all his clothes off either—they have to be prepared for open boats in all weather so he always has on a suit of thick all-wool underwear and at night pajamas and life belts over that. In the morning he has a bath and a fresh suit of wool underwear and his uniform on top of that.

He doesn't seem to mind doing all this himself or what he has to face, but he won't let us do it. Since he certainly knows what he is talking about I am not going to add to his worries by not taking his advice. He says the Germans are absolutely everywhere in submarines and planes. Bodies of children from the City of Benares are still floating around.

I cannot tell you my disappointment at not being able to come home, from a purely selfish point of view, but we must just put it down to the war. We all must serve in one way or another now. I really feel happier in staying because I am doing my duty that way. The night Coventry was bombed so heavily we heard the heavy German bombers going over us for 5 hours—not once in all that time was there a five minute interval. Last night Coventry and Birmington got it again and we heard them over for 6 hours, absolutely non-stop. We could also hear, faintly, a terrific barrage of gun fire.

The need is very great, among poor people, for warm clothing for they cannot pay the advanced prices for clothing—even if the rationing allowed it.

John brought five pounds of butter from New Zealand so for once we are having real butter. I gave a half pound each to three families in the village not that we could not eat it ourselves, but those poor little children needed it as much as my children.

John got me some lovely boots in Nova Scotia—water-proofed black velvet up over the ankles with black fur tops and sheepskin linings. They are very warm and look lovely and—they are just what is being worn in Nova Scotia. I don't know how he managed it for he had just an hour in Halifax and it is about like Yubs, Wisconsin, as a shopping center. He stopped at Wellington, New Zealand only long enough to get a very sick patient up country to a hospital.

This week I went to the theater to see Beatrice Lillie in a very funny and rather vulgar show. A laugh is a good thing these days.

So you and your friends are collecting old buttons? I'll get you some from the officers coats.

I wish I could give you the details of the Jervis Bay—they are absolutely thrilling but they would never pass the Censor—they would give too much of naval methods and tactics. I will some day. On John's way out to Australia a submarine got one of the ships in the convoy. Coming back—during the height of the attack, John saw four ships (ours) on fire at once.

I am sorry the Empress of Britain went down—it was a very nice ship, but I did not think it was up to the Bremen for comfort.

My 28th birthday passed quietly and for the first time in my whole life I didn't have a cake but with two ounces each of butter and sugar for each one of us for the week a cake would have cut into the precious store of sugar. We are allowed four ounces of meat each, per week, you may be sure we enjoy the Swift's bacon you send. I could stand in line and buy lungs, kidneys, tripe, etc., but I call that awful and prefer to go without.

With love, Jean.

GLENVIEW RECREATION CO.

630 Waukegan Rd. Glenview, Ill. Phone Glenview 778

Henry F. Mueller, Prop.

Not everyone realizes that bowling is a healthful and pleasant exercise, with all the requirements of a good clean sport. It has been said that bowling is America's passport to health. An hour of bowling will keep a healthy man or woman.

The Glenview Recreation Co. have equipped their establishment to meet all the requirements of the game. They have invested much money and time modernizing the building and selecting their alleys and furnishings and now have an up-to-date establishment where both old and young alike meet for recreation. Many ladies will tell you of their thrilling experience after an afternoon or evening of bowling there.

Bowling is now the most popular indoor sport known. It is played and enjoyed by both sexes and its popularity is perhaps due in a large measure to this fact. It is not a new game, having been played for something like five centuries; but its popularity has reached a peak in the past few years.

Much care is taken to keep their furnishings in the best of condition. They will gladly instruct you in any of the games that can be played with the balls and pins. If you are not familiar with the game, get your friends together, make an appointment and spend an afternoon or evening at this popular recreation center. Their modern lunch room is very popular with the public.

It is a pleasure to compliment the management of these alleys upon the high class of entertainment they offer the people of this section.

RUGEN STORES

Glenview, Ill., Phone 1 Northbrook, Ill., Phone 15

The Rugen Stores well merit their slogan "Known to our patrons since 1881." This establishment originally started up as a trading post right after the civil war and they have been serving the public ever since with quality merchandise, priced right.

The Rugen Stores feature a complete stock of quality groceries, hardware and paints, feed and garden needs, dry goods, footwear and clothing, linoleum and rugs, coal, wood, coke, bldg. materials, radios, electric appliances, refrigeration. Visit their stores in either Glenview or Northbrook.

People throughout this district are well acquainted with this favorite shopping center and the many values it affords them in better quality merchandise. It is a mistaken idea that greater bargains may be obtained in larger cities for this is not true; "Every day in the year is bargain day here" is a fitting slogan for The Rugen Stores.

You'll find values beyond comparison in every department. Quality merchandise at reasonable prices. Attractive merchandise and a large selection from which to choose. If you ask your neighbors they'll tell you that they trade at The Rugen Stores because they can save money on the same merchandise without having to drive elsewhere.

We don't ask you to take our word for it, but we do request that you drop in and see for yourself what savings can be made here. After your first shopping trip you will understand what we mean when we say of The Rugen Stores, "Every day in the year is bargain day here."

GLENVIEW MILLWORK CO.

Glenview, Ill. Phone Glenview 760

The Glenview Millwork Co. is known throughout this section as leaders in the distribution of sash, doors, millwork and allied lines. In their years of experience this firm has attained fame through their progressive business methods and superiority of their products.

They make a specialty of millwork of all kinds and can supply you with sash, doors, special millwork and woodwork of all kinds.

In the olden days when we started to build a home, the first requisite was to find a carpenter who could be trusted to build properly the doors, sash, staircase, and build all the finish into the home. Not so today with this modern concern at your disposal. It is true that you should find a real carpenter but by having the millwork ready-made much time can be saved on interior finish.

In the millwork from this concern you are guaranteed honesty of design, material and workmanship. "Once a customer, always a customer."

The Glenview Millwork Co. knows the needs in woodwork of the people and provides for every modern improvement to better their line. We in this review compliment them upon the very valuable service they are rendering and point to the members of the firm as leading citizens of our community who merit our liberal patronage.

News Of Prospect Heights

Christmas Party Again Sponsored By Improvement Association

Friday evening, December 20, is a big night for this community. The children are looking forward to it with much anticipation and of course, the doting parents are just as anxious for the big night to arrive. The Prospect Heights Improvements Association once more plays host and Santa Claus to the children of the community, and the children in turn put on their Christmas program under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Mabel Fowler and Mr. John Dawson.

Mrs. Fowler informs us that the lower grades will give "The Doll's Xmas Eve Cantata" and the upper grades are to give two Xmas plays and sing several Xmas carols.

The Prospect Heights Improvement Association and the teachers, Mrs. Fowler and Mr. Dawson wish to cordially invite all of the community to this entertaining Christmas party which has become the most important social event of the year for Prospect Heights. The parties in the past have always been a huge success and we are certain that this one will continue the tradition. Come and see Santa, but don't be late. The program is to get under way at 7:30 p. m., in the basement of the Wheeling Center School, Palatine and Schoenbeck roads.

The Girl Scouts have changed their meeting day from Saturday forenoon to Friday evening. The Court of Honor will meet at 6:45 p. m. and the regular meeting will commence at 7:00 p. m. The meeting will be dismissed at 8:30 p. m. Will all of the girls who are members of the Prospect Heights troop please bring with them to the next meeting pictures for a scrap book, one potatoe, and either a paring or jack knife.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. T. Erwine of Hillside ave. on the loss of Mr. Erwine's mother, who passed away last Sunday, and was laid to rest in southern Illinois.

Mr. Ed. Rauen is recovering from his long illness very fast, and has greatly enjoyed visiting with his many workmates from Teletype who have driven out to see him, also his many neighbors who have dropped in, and friends from Chicago. Last Wednesday evening Ed and Nan had the pleasure of entertaining Ed's two nurses, Miss Mary O'Callaghan, and Miss Ann Bartlett, who had taken such good care of him during his eight weeks stay in the hospital, also Dr. Klein, the interne at Elmhurst hospital, who was constantly in attendance, and last, but by no means least, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Granzig of Mt. Prospect. The folks enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, and enjoyed a pleasant evening forgetting all about surgery and hospitals.

The Wheeling Center Parent-Teacher association are sponsoring a tour of the Mars Candy Company located on Oak Park Ave., between North and Fullerton Aves. in Chicago, on January 8, 1941. This large candy company is noted for its candy, the cleanliness of its plant and the beauty of the buildings which house one of the largest candy companies in the world. The time of the tour and the nominal charge which of course goes to the P.-T. A. treasury for expenditure on our local school, will be announced in a later edition, but for your reservations call Mrs. Roy C. Bolt at 7074-R, as plans must be made for transportation. If you have a car available for that day will you please notify Mrs. Bolt?

Fourteen women from Prospect Heights and two of their guests from Chicago enjoyed the Electrical Institute party sponsored by the Wheeling Center Parent-Teachers association on Tuesday afternoon. The program was most interesting and if you see some clever tricks for lighting up the home for Xmas ten to one the lady of the house has attended the Electrical Institute program. The program was followed by a tea and a grand time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bolt enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home of Mrs. Bolt's mother in Chicago, and later visited Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Rogers Park, who is Mrs. Bolt's brother in law and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nielsen enjoyed dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushee, in Oak Park. The folks celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Bushee, and had a grand time doing same. As usual everyone enjoyed playing pinochle during the afternoon and evening.

Smith and Dawson Backs Cage Teams

Mr. C. Smith of the firm of Smith & Dawson, informs us that he is sponsoring a basketball team which will play at the Arlington Heights high school gym Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The boys who comprise both strings of the team are former alumni stars of the Arlington high school. Though a little older these boys have lost none of their zip and if anything play even a better game than before. They played the Iroquois team last night and as this article goes to press on Wednesday we of course couldn't give you the results, but aside from the regular games scheduled, and these are played against some of the finest teams in the country, they will play a charity game for the Merle Guild Post Christmas Charity fund Friday evening, December 20. They are to meet the celebrated team of the Harris Trust and Savings Bank of Chicago, who were the champion of the banking league of Chicago last year.

We understand that a game Saturday, Dec. 14, will be played with the New York Celts, which is sponsored by none other than Kate Smith of Radio fame.

Some of this information may not be so accurate regarding the date and time, which is always subject to minor changes as all the information was not available when this had to go to press, but if you are interested Mr. Lamb or Mr. Smith can give you full details by the time this reaches you. Don't forget to be on hand to root for the home team.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kruerher of McDonald road have one of those nice new Fords, the lucky people. Well, good luck and lots of pleasure folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller of Mac Donald road, were entertained last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Krueckeberg of Chicago, and report a grand time.

The next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher's association of the Wheeling Center School in Prospect Heights, will be held Tuesday evening, December 17, 1940, at 8:00 o'clock, at the Wheeling Center school, Palatine and Schoenbeck rds. This should be a very colorful and interesting meeting as the classrooms of the school are each to be presented with a flag from the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A large turnout is expected to help augment this occasion and help celebrate the first anniversary of the founding of the Wheeling Center Parent-Teachers association. The Prospect Heights Improvement Association are also going to make a presentation of a purse to the P.-T.A. and the school board. Immediately following the business meeting and presentations, refreshments will be served by the hostess of the evening. Don't forget this date, December 17, 1940, as it is the last time you can attend a P.-T.A. meeting this year, but don't forget '41, if you can't make this one.

The next regular meeting of the Prospect Heights Improvement Association will be held Wednesday evening, December 18, 1940, at the Wheeling Center school, Palatine and Schoenbeck rds. at 8 o'clock. Refreshments served.

We were sorry to hear Mrs. E. Foxworthy was down with a bad cold, but we're happy that she's herself again.

Jacqueline Burch was home last week from school, but we hope her cold has gone with the cold weather, and that she is able to resume her studies.

We hear that Mr. Smith again played the part of generous sponsor by donating five turkeys for the Prospect Heights bowling league to aim at last Wednesday evening. We will pass on the winners in the next edition.

Santa Claus is coming to town, yes siree, we mean Prospect Heights and he's not going to wait until Christmas Eve to pay us that visit. No, sir, he'll be right on hand in Prospect Heights shopping center so that you might give him your orders personally during the week preceding Christmas. Watch for him, and you better be good. By the way folks, our shopping block is putting on a real fancy air of Christmas with all the decorations and the stores, well, they've got or will get anything your heart's desire, and you can't do better anywhere. So why wear yourself out so that you can't enjoy the big day?

Have you thought of a novel way to decorate your home for Christmas? As many of you already know Prospect Heights homes usually take on the Christmas spirit on the outside as well as the inside. That's why so many out of town folks enjoy driving through our community during the holidays. Sort of a hospitable gesture to all. Try to figure out some clever way for your home to spell Christmas Hospitality to neighbors, friends, and passers by and make them want to come to Prospect Heights again.

Mrs. Barber of Wheeling rd. visited her family in St. Joseph, Missouri, for the Thanksgiving holidays and highlighted her trip by flying home. The lucky lady enjoyed it immensely.

Mr. and Mrs. L. Williams of Elmhurst ave., have just returned from a two weeks stay in Kansas City, where they visited Mrs. William's folks, and enjoyed the fine weather, missing all this below zero business we had for the last two weeks. They enjoyed their stay but are glad to be home, too.

Mr. and Mrs. A. Lohr made a hasty trip last week-end to Lexington, Illinois to visit Mr. Lohr's family. They certainly had a grand time.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Bolt and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Delano, of Chicago, on Saturday evening. Mrs. Bolt is their niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Hartke and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Visconti on Saturday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Visconti's birthday. Mrs. Visconti is Mr. Hartke's sister.

Last week in mentioning the bus service we forgot to mention the charges for service. Mr. Lamb has a regular schedule and service charge, there being a weekly charge of $1.00 for those making use of the bus daily to and from the station; 50c for school children, to and from school; 25c to Mt. Prospect, and for shopping or visiting in Prospect Heights the charge is 15c; should there be a group going to any one place in Prospect Heights, the charge is 10c per person. The charge to Des Plaines and Palatine is 50c, and to Arlington Heights 35c. We hope that many of the folks in Prospect Heights will make use of our bus service, especially for shopping and visiting in the community.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krause entertained their pinochle club with the usual members, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mohs, Mr. and Mrs. E. Spire, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Lanliss attending. The folks had a grand time, as usual.

Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. Krause had unexpected company in the form of Mr. and Mrs. C. Bartels, and Mr. and Mrs. L. Paster. Everyone enjoyed the evening playing poker and Mrs. Krause served delicious refreshments during the evening.

Friday afternoon little Charlene Ledyard had a grand time seeing Santa Claus in Chicago, with her mother. Sunday evening Mr. and Mrs. L. Holz and Mr. and Mrs. R. Busse were guests at the Ledyard home and had a very lovely evening playing cards, etc.

Wednesday evening Miss Kathleen Wynn was initiated into the honor art sorority and enjoyed dinner at the Delta Phi Delta fraternity house, Chicago, previous to the initiation.

LETTERS to the Editor

December 5, 1940

Paddock Publications,
Arlington Heights, Illinois
Dear Sirs:

The following editorial appears in the November 1940 issue of the Journal of Accountancy which is an official organ of the American Institute of Accountants:

"From Palatine, Illinois (pop. 2,118. 15 mi. N. E. of Elgin. Fuse factory. Dairy, truck, grain, poultry farms) erupted last June a memorable rash of circulars addressed to law-abiding accountants throughout the country. These folders described a strange and wonderful thing. The seed of a special investigation, undertaken at the request of a 'group of financial interests,' was about to blossom. For the ridiculously small sum of $18 normally, $15 today, and to you, my friend, only fourteen and a quarter ($14.25) could be purchased forty-eight (48) sure-fire plans for getting more clients, and what's more, every one guaranteed to be ethical.

"Occasionally curiosity overcame good judgment (after all, there might be some thing to it) and some certified public accountants parted with good money to find out. They found the "48 plans" to be second-rate form letters, or outlines of tactics which might lead to intimate acquaintance with committees on professional ethics, or precepts so elementary as to be ridiculous. Later, purchasers found that their firms' names had been affixed to a public list of 'underwriters' of the service.

"Some accountants are poorer but wiser. They remain ethical, and their practices remain uncreased. Palatine, Illinois, perhaps has enjoyed a boom in consumers' goods."

This editorial is forwarded to your office for the news value it contains and for the purpose of exposing a certain activity that apparently was great enough to rate comment in a magazine that has national circulation. Whoever the individual was that conceived the idea certainly has been inviting difficulties with Uncle Sam; however, on the other hand perhaps the plan failed before the craft became wise, because the boom in consumers' goods referred to in the editorial has not reached such proportions to command local attention.

Christmas Party Again Sponsored By Improvement Association

Friday evening, December 20, is a big night for this community. The children are looking forward to it with much anticipation and of course, the doting parents are just as anxious for the big night to arrive. The Prospect Heights Improvements Association once more plays host and Santa Claus to the children of the community, and the children in turn put on their Christmas program under the direction of their teachers, Mrs. Mabel Fowler and Mr. John Dawson.

Mrs. Fowler informs us that the lower grades will give "The Doll's Xmas Eve Cantata" and the upper grades are to give two Xmas plays and sing several Xmas carols.

The Prospect Heights Improvement Association and the teachers, Mrs. Fowler and Mr. Dawson wish to cordially invite all of the community to this entertaining Christmas party which has become the most important social event of the year for Prospect Heights. The parties in the past have always been a huge success and we are certain that this one will continue the tradition. Come and see Santa, but don't be late. The program is to get under way at 7:30 p. m., in the basement of the Wheeling Center School, Palatine and Schoenbeck roads.

The Girl Scouts have changed their meeting day from Saturday forenoon to Friday evening. The Court of Honor will meet at 6:45 p. m. and the regular meeting will commence at 7:00 p. m. The meeting will be dismissed at 8:30 p. m. Will all of the girls who are members of the Prospect Heights troop please bring with them to the next meeting pictures for a scrap book, one potatoe, and either a paring or jack knife.

We extend our deepest sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. T. Erwine of Hillside ave. on the loss of Mr. Erwine's mother, who passed away last Sunday, and was laid to rest in southern Illinois.

Mr. Ed. Rauen is recovering from his long illness very fast, and has greatly enjoyed visiting with his many workmates from Teletype who have driven out to see him, also his many neighbors who have dropped in, and friends from Chicago. Last Wednesday evening Ed and Nan had the pleasure of entertaining Ed's two nurses, Miss Mary O'Callaghan, and Miss Ann Bartlett, who had taken such good care of him during his eight weeks stay in the hospital, also Dr. Klein, the interne at Elmhurst hospital, who was constantly in attendance, and last, but by no means least, Dr. and Mrs. W. F. Granzig of Mt. Prospect. The folks enjoyed a delicious turkey dinner, with all the trimmings, and enjoyed a pleasant evening forgetting all about surgery and hospitals.

The Wheeling Center Parent-Teacher association are sponsoring a tour of the Mars Candy Company located on Oak Park Ave., between North and Fullerton Aves. in Chicago, on January 8, 1941. This large candy company is noted for its candy, the cleanliness of its plant and the beauty of the buildings which house one of the largest candy companies in the world. The time of the tour and the nominal charge which of course goes to the P.-T. A. treasury for expenditure on our local school, will be announced in a later edition, but for your reservations call Mrs. Roy C. Bolt at 7074-R, as plans must be made for transportation. If you have a car available for that day will you please notify Mrs. Bolt?

Fourteen women from Prospect Heights and two of their guests from Chicago enjoyed the Electrical Institute party sponsored by the Wheeling Center Parent-Teachers association on Tuesday afternoon. The program was most interesting and if you see some clever tricks for lighting up the home for Xmas ten to one the lady of the house has attended the Electrical Institute program. The program was followed by a tea and a grand time was had by all.

Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Bolt enjoyed Sunday dinner at the home of Mrs. Bolt's mother in Chicago, and later visited Mr. and Mrs. Nelson of Rogers Park, who is Mrs. Bolt's brother in law and sister.

Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nielsen enjoyed dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bushee, in Oak Park. The folks celebrated the birthday of Mrs. Bushee, and had a grand time doing same. As usual everyone enjoyed playing pinochle during the afternoon and evening.

Smith and Dawson Backs Cage Teams

Mr. C. Smith of the firm of Smith & Dawson, informs us that he is sponsoring a basketball team which will play at the Arlington Heights high school gym Thursday evening at 8 o'clock. The boys who comprise both strings of the team are former alumni stars of the Arlington high school. Though a little older these boys have lost none of their zip and if anything play even a better game than before. We understand that a game Saturday, Dec. 14, will be played with the New York Celts, which is sponsored by none other than Kate Smith of Radio fame.

Some of this information may not be so accurate regarding the date and time, which is always subject to minor changes as all the information was not available when this had to go to press, but if you are interested Mr. Lamb or Mr. Smith can give you full details by the time this reaches you. Don't forget to be on hand to root for the home team.

Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Kruerher of McDonald road have one of those nice new Fords, the lucky people. Well, good luck and lots of pleasure folks.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed. Miller of Mac Donald road, were entertained last Saturday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. F. Krueckeberg of Chicago, and report a grand time.

The next regular meeting of the Parent-Teacher's association of the Wheeling Center School in Prospect Heights, will be held Tuesday evening, December 17, 1940, at 8:00 o'clock, at the Wheeling Center school, Palatine and Schoenbeck rds. This should be a very colorful and interesting meeting as the classrooms of the school are each to be presented with a flag from the Veterans of Foreign Wars. A large turnout is expected to help augment this occasion and help celebrate the first anniversary of the founding of the Wheeling Center Parent-Teachers association. The Prospect Heights Improvement Association are also going to make a presentation of a purse to the P.-T.A. and the school board. Immediately following the business meeting and presentations, refreshments will be served by the hostess of the evening. Don't forget this date, December 17, 1940, as it is the last time you can attend a P.-T.A. meeting this year, but don't forget '41, if you can't make this one.

The next regular meeting of the Prospect Heights Improvement Association will be held Wednesday evening, December 18, 1940, at the Wheeling Center school, Palatine and Schoenbeck rds. at 8 o'clock. Refreshments served.

We were sorry to hear Mrs. E. Foxworthy was down with a bad cold, but we're happy that she's herself again.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy C. Bolt and family were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. Delano, of Chicago, on Saturday evening. Mrs. Bolt is their niece.

Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Hartke and family were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. V. Visconti on Saturday evening, the occasion being Mrs. Visconti's birthday. Mrs. Visconti is Mr. Hartke's sister.

Last week in mentioning the bus service we forgot to mention the charges for service. Mr. Lamb has a regular schedule and service charge, there being a weekly charge of $1.00 for those making use of the bus daily to and from the station; 50c for school children, to and from school; 25c to Mt. Prospect, and for shopping or visiting in Prospect Heights the charge is 15c; should there be a group going to any one place in Prospect Heights, the charge is 10c per person. The charge to Des Plaines and Palatine is 50c, and to Arlington Heights 35c. We hope that many of the folks in Prospect Heights will make use of our bus service, especially for shopping and visiting in the community.

Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Krause entertained their pinochle club with the usual members, Mr. and Mrs. E. Mohs, Mr. and Mrs. E. Spire, and Mr. and Mrs. M. Lanliss attending. The folks had a grand time, as usual.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Kodynis and the Frank Smiths entertained several relatives from Chicago last Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stoelting had 12 guests at dinner last Sunday and 20 for supper. They report a most pleasant time.

The Pleasure club has been postponed from Tuesday, the 10th to Tuesday the 17th. Mrs. Cora Schram was not able to have the club until the 17th, so members be sure to come to the Christmas party at Mrs. Schrams on the 17th.

Mrs. Victor Havel was hostess to her Wilmette Bridge club at luncheon and cards at her home on Tuesday, December 10.

Royal Neighbors of America

Camp 7618 R. N. A. held their regular meeting on Monday, Dec. 9, at their hall at 8 p. m.

Election of officers was in order, the following officers were elected: Oracle, Alvina Stoelting; Past Oracle, Minnie Pfingsten; Vice Oracle, Minnie Therrien; Recorder, Caroline Mueller; Receiver, Emily Therrien; Chancellor, Margaret Holste; Inner Sentinel, Alfreda Moeller; delegate, Emily Therrien; alternate, Minnie Therrien.

After the interesting meeting, cards were enjoyed. The winners were Neighbors A. Stoelting and C. Mueller. Next meeting will be on January 13, which will be installation of officers and refreshments. Come and have a good time.

Mrs. Freida Klauer entertained several friends at her home last Friday afternoon.

Mrs. G. B. Hipsley, who has been visiting her son, Earl, in Chicago, for the past few weeks, is back home again. We are glad to report that Mrs. G. Gieske, who had been quite ill, is much better again.

The Woman's club of St. Norberts church held their regular meeting on last Wednesday, December 4, at 2 p. m. at their hall. Election of officers took place, electing Mrs. Therese Ropenack as president; Mrs. Emma Happ as vice president; Mrs. Rose Albrecht, secretary and Mrs. Florence Miller as treasurer. A Christmas party and play given by the children of the school wil be given on Sunday, December 22. The Holy Name Society will sponsor a party some time in January.

The Northbrook P.-T.A. will present their annual Christmas program on Tuesday, December 17, at 8 p. m., entitled "Merry Christmas." Everybody welcome.

Don't forget some poor and needy family this year, a little means so much to some of these worthy causes. Let's make this a Merry Christmas and thank God that we are Americans.

NORTH NORTHFIELD

The annual election of Sunday school officers of the North Northfield Ebenezer Evangelical church was held Sunday morning, December 8. Alfred Paulsen was chosen as superintendent, and M. Miller will be his assistant. Arthur Schneider and Harry Schneider were re-elected to the offices of secretary and treasurer respectively.

This Week in Wheeling

LUCILE SCHNEIDER, Editor Phone 40

Wheeling Camp R. N. A. will hold their parties next Thursday, December 9. A party for the children of members will be held in the afternoon. The annual Christmas party for members and friends will follow in the evening.

Mrs. Frank Welflin underwent a successful operation at the Swedish Covenant hospital in Chicago last Thursday. Mrs. Welflin was seriously ill several weeks ago, following which the operation was found necessary. We trust she will continue to convalesce rapidly.

Wheeling public school closes for the holiday season with a Christmas lunch in the gym on Monday, the 23rd. On Monday evening the annual Community tree sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce will be held in the gym.

PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH

Morning worship, 10:55 o'clock.

Sunday church school, 9:30 a. m.

Are you attending church regularly? If not, what better time to begin than during the season commemorating the Birth of Christ.

Acting and Directing Well Done In Club's Mystery Play

The play "Mystery at Midnight" presented by the Presbtyerian Dramatic club, was well received by good sized audiences on both evenings. The players all carried their parts well and the spell of mystery kept the audience tense until the end.

This was the first mystery play which the club has presented and they are grateful to all who contributed in any way to its success. They have acknowledged a special debt of gratitude to the director, Mr. L. L. Scofield, who gave so liberally of his time and talent to develop the production.

While the primary purpose of such an enterprise may be the financial support received, the true values are by no means confined to that end. Always there is the personal benefit received by each individual who participates in a successful venture.

Two deeper values of special importance to the "American Way" are the dropping of national differences and mutual understanding between differing age levels. The Wheeling presentation of "Mystery at Midnight" was a happy combination of at least six nationalities, drawn from two distinct generations. This is the American and the Christian way.

The regular meeting of the P.-T.A. will be held in the school gym next Monday evening at which time a Christmas party will fill the program.

The Christmas season is coming fast and the next two weeks will be filled with Christmas programs by the various community organizations.

The annual Christmas service of the Presbyterian church will be held true to tradition on Christmas Eve.

Have you remembered to get a supply of Christmas Health Seals? Your Christmas greeting cards should be mailed no later than next week and they will spread more cheer if they carry one of the gay little Health Seals. Get yours from your local committee now.

Two more young men from Wheeling have responded to the "Call to the Colors" by enlisting in the ranks of Uncle Sam. Robert Hartmann has entered the Aviation Corps of the Army and left for Jefferson Barracks, Mo., on Monday, where he will be stationed for several months. Bob has had a course of training as a pilot at Curtis field. Arthur Miller, Jr., has chosen the Navy as his field of training and also left on Monday for Great Lakes Naval Training Station. Arthur has enlisted under the new plan whereby naval recruits under 18 years of age may train until reaching the age of 21 years.

Mr. John Bieber returned home from the hospital on Tuesday afternoon. Mr. Bieber had been under the doctor's care since last summer and was operated on at the Illinois Research hospital on November 30. He rallied nicely after the operation and was eager to return to his home.

Mr. Alfred Schwab has been confined to his home because of illness the past week. His condition has improved but not sufficiently for him to return to work.

On Friday of this week the Mother's Study club will hold their Christmas meeting at the home of Mrs. O. W. Ellwood. The children will hold a central place in the program of the day.

The Chicago Christian Industrial League will make its monthly collection in Wheeling next Monday, December 16.

The Wheeling Recreation club has decided to sponsor a separate evening of recreation for young people of high school age and over in the community hall. Following the holiday season this will be held on Monday evenings. The club will provide adult supervision but the program of activities will be made the responsibility of the young folks themselves. This opportunity of free use of the hall to the young people will be continued as long as enough attend, and make a constructive use of the time spent there. The club has also arranged to have an extension phone placed in the gym. On Saturday the club is serving the luncheon at the annual John Deere demonstration.

Inducing New Growths

Miss Ella Steiger Becomes Bride Of Irving Grotefend

In a pretty home setting, Miss Ella Steiger, daughter of Mr. Charles Steiger of 315 North Belmont ave., Arlington Heights, was united in holy matrimony to Mr. Irving Grotefend, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reginald J. Grotefend of Chicago, on Saturday evening, December 7, at seven o'clock. The nuptial rite was performed by the Reverend Rudolph J. Kalwitz, pastor of St. John Evangelical church, in a single ring ceremony before a group of relatives and friends.

The bride chose ivory as the color scheme for her wedding and tall ivory tapers in candelabra furnished the light for the service and ivory colored chrysanthemums decorated the rooms.

Her floor length gown was fashioned of old ivory faille with touches of gold sequins at the neck, and was made in princess style. She wore a gold sequin butterfly in her hair. Her arm bouquet was of ivory sweetheart roses.

The bride's sister, Lonnie, served as maid of honor and was gowned in aqua blue net with an embroidered jacket. Her arm bouquet was of yellow roses and mums.

Attending the groom was Mr. Theodore Briff of Arlington Heights.

Immediately following the matrimonial rite a reception was held in the home of the bride for the twenty-five guests who had assembled.

After a brief honeymoon the young couple will reside at 315 North Belmont avenue, Arlington Heights.

Mr. Irving Grotefend is employed in Chicago.

Women Who Work Urged To Seek Part-time Jobs

IS your husband jealous of your job? If he is, the fault is partly yours. Here are some tips based on exhaustive and practical observations compiled by John Kobler for the December Good Housekeeping Magazine.

1. Try to reach a clear understanding with your husband about your job. When the problem is fully thrashed out in advance the husband rarely becomes resentful.

2. Don't be too eager to make more money than your husband, especially if he is dissatisfied with his own job.

3. Think twice about taking a dull routine job just for the pay check. Often a married woman is of more value in the home.

4. Investigate the possibility of part-time employment. This offers a happy solution to the problem.

5. Keep feminine. Don't think that because you have a responsible job you must turn masculine to live up to it.

In short, make your husband's happiness your first career. Take care of that, and you'll have no trouble holding your husband—and your job.

A trip through the business community of Arlington Heights finds every store in town in step with the season and alive to the multifarious wants and tastes of the hundreds of holiday gift buyers now looking around and making their selections. Street decorations remind you that Santa Claus is coming . . . while the colorful windows of store after store beckon you as you go down the street and touch you with the Christmas spirit.

In Naval Reserve

Robert H. Eich, son of Mr. and Mrs. John P. Eich, 141 Park Lane, Stonegate, Arlington Heights, is among the 247 students enrolled in the Naval Reserve Officers Training corps at Northwestern university. This year the enrollment is the largest in the history of the unit.

Following four years of training, the student is given an ensign's commission in the Naval Reserve and may, if he wishes, apply for active duty. In addition to classes in naval science and tactics, each member of the unit takes one drill period a week. He must also take at least one cruise on a training ship during the summer between his junior and senior year.

Eich, a freshman in the college of liberal arts, was pledged recently by Phi Kappa Sigma social fraternity. At Arlington Heights township high school, he was editor of the school paper and a member of the band, glee club, science club, and student council.

This week the Arlington merchants invite you to visit their stores and shop around. You'll marvel at the variety and quality you see and you'll be delighted when you find that there are scores of real values at real savings . . . to be had right in your home town. This section of your newspaper devoted almost entirely to news for Christmas shoppers is provided by your home stores to give you an idea of the many gift values being offered here.

Several merchants are already open evenings and starting Monday every store in town will be open evenings until Christmas to provide you with better home shopping convenience. You'll find efficient service and a warm courtesy in every store you visit and you'll find a friendly atmosphere here in Arlington that will make your Christmas shopping a pleasure instead of a chore.

When planning your Christmas gift program, think of your home merchant, he has lots of suggestions to offer . . . and perhaps the right answer to all your problems.

Our Little Tots

NANCY NEVILLE

Nancy did not exactly approve of the above picture. She wanted her bull dog, Jack, to be included, but Jack did not like the looks of the photographer.

The young lady was four years old Tuesday and she is wearing her birthday smile. A smile that will be even broader for Santa Claus.

Residing with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Neville, at 228 So. Mitchell, she has not many neighbors of her own age, but with her big brother, Aubrey 8, at her beck and call, life looks rosy to her.

PATSY O'BRIEN

Patsy O'Brien is a good Irish name and Patsy is happiness personified. Those curls are natural and as she grows older they will probably bid defiance to such common everyday things as beauty shops.

Patsy's best friend is Nita Glow down in the next block, and there are no two warmer friends in Scarsdale. Patsy's hobby is the piano and she delights to practice and sing.

Dad and mother are Mr. and Mrs. Richard O'Brien, 556 S. Belmont ave., Arlington Heights.

DOLLY WORK

The above young lady, Dollie Work, is fairly bubbling over with music. "Jitterbug" is rather a large name for such a small girl, but the description is accurate. With her reddish brown hair and hazel eyes, we can see her as a popularity queen some day. She is never happier than when she is playing the piano or dancing. She told the photographer that she feels sorry for little girls who do not have a dog to pester. And does she pester the Boston bull that follows her around!

Dollies is the first young lady from Mt. Prospect to appear in the gallery of the Paddock publications. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Work, 15 So. Emmerson st., Mt. Prospect.

Baffling Numbers Trick Enlivens Dull Parties

SURE-FIRE fun for any party is a magic "deciphering" trick. Besides adding life to a group that finds conversation running thin, a numbers trick attests the mental prowess of the commanding magician. Royal Health has one in the January issue of Cosmopolitan, that will baffle even the know-alls who usually spoil the fun.

168 V	345	780	558 V	179
564	642 V	186 V	855	377 V
960	840	681	459	971
366	543	285	756	278
762	147	384	657	773

Ask someone to check off from the above diagram one number in each column, naturally while your back is turned, and then have them called off as rapidly as possible and then YOU tell them the total. It's simple as A B C. Suppose the numbers checked off and called were the numbers checked as above. Pay no attention to the hundreds mention. Just listen to the last digit of each number and keep adding them as called off, as

168 only think of 8
10
186 only think of 6
16
558 only think of 8
24
377 only think of 7
31

Now you have the total 31. Always subtract your result from fifty (in this case 31 from 50 is 19) and prefix this difference to your result as 19-31 and that's your answer for this case. It always works. Don't call off your answer as nineteen thirty-one, though; always say one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hertzog Celebrate Fifty-Seventh Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hertzog of Arlington Heights celebrated their 57th wedding anniversary in their home at 416 East Northwest Highway on Sunday, December 8, when 25 relatives and close friends were their guests at a buffet dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Hertzog were married in Reading, Pa., in 1883, later coming to Chicago where they made their home for many years. For the past twenty years they have lived in Arlington Heights, where Mr. Hertzog has maintained a cigar manufacturing business on the location at 416 E. Northwest Highway.

Present at the dinner were the two children of the Hertzogs, Mrs. Leon Wells of Arlington Heights and Mrs. Wallace Ettinger of Edison Park, their families and friends. The Hertzogs have six grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

Mr. and Mrs. Hertzog wish to thank all who extended congratulations and gifts in honor of this happy occasion.

St. John's Ladies Plan Turkey Dinner

Turkey and all the "trimmings" will be on the menu of the Christmas turkey dinner which the St. John's Ladies' Aid of the Evangelical church are planning for the evening of December 19. Tickets are available at 60c for adults and 35c for children, and serving will start at 5 p. m. and will continue until 8 p. m.

Mrs. Victor Reed was hostess to her bridge club for dessert on Monday afternoon. Mrs. Dwight McNally received high honors for the afternoon.

Club Calendar

December 12, Stated meeting of Arlington Heights Chapter O. E. S.

December 19, St. John's Ladies' Aid Christmas turkey dinner.

December 19, O. E. S. joint annual Christmas party.

O.E.S. Girl's Club Elect Officers At Christmas Party

Those who will hold office for the '41 year are Miss Violet Bohm, president; Miss Winifred Schumacher, vice president; Miss Inez Ihle, secretary and Miss Gloria Wilton, treasurer.

Following the business meeting the evening was given over to merriment, with Miss Hilda Wilton in charge of some very entertaining and amusing games. Attractive prizes were won by Violet Bohm, Celia Hausam, Myrtle Frey and Inez Ihle.

Each girl received a Christmas gift from the one who has been her "secret pal" all year, and at this meeting the names of the secret pals were made known.

Very delicious refreshments were served, with Miss Gladys Wilton presiding over the pouring.

The attractive decorations carried out the true Christmas motiff and put every one into the spirit of the occasion, and all too soon this enjoyable party came to an end.

Santa Fashions Toys To Educate Children

FOR thousands of youngsters the country over, Christmas and toys are synonymous. Their December dreams are filled with visions of dolls and electric trains and gaily decorated Christmas trees hiding brightly painted fire engines and rocking horses.

But children aren't the only worshippers of Santa's toys. Parents too, get a thrill from selecting gifts for their young offsprings. Mary Margaret McBride, a small-town girl well-known for her success in sophisticated New York, frankly admits in the January issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine, that she still likes toys for Christmas. Now that she is past the normal doll age her drawers and chests are crammed with every kind of doll—dolls that walk, dolls that talk, Eskimo dolls, Indian dolls and French and Chinese dolls, as well. And they still arouse a childish thrill.

"Modern children," Miss McBride reports, "love their toys as much as we loved ours, though modern parents, educators, and even the toy manufacturers conspire to see that toys do good. The carefully selected 1940 toy is designed to develop a child's skill in handling materials, to stimulate imagination, to encourage resourcefulness and social play—to adjust the child to grown-up living."

When the final Christmas rush does come and Mother peers into new doll houses and Daddy looks wistfully at electric trains, their reactions are watched. Unwittingly, Miss McBride says, they have become guinea pigs in the toy laboratory. Their interest or scorn all goes down in the black book and helps decide what next year's toys shall be like.

But in a modern world of science and invention, the old fashioned Christmas, Miss McBride finds, is still the most beloved.

Man, Donkey Defenders

John Perrio, 70 years old, and his donkey form the defense unit of Breeqhou island, eight miles from Guernsey. With only six miles of island and a dozen inhabitants, Perrio and Clarabelle, his donkey, find they can manage quite well to keep guard.

Adverse Advertising

Little Time for Robbery

If all the claims of St. Joseph oldtimers are valid Jesse James had little time left over for bank robbing after his pool-shooting chores were attended to. A newspaper man, making a check, said there are at least 500 oldsters who relate that they used to shoot pool with Jesse.

Lives Of Famous Americans Associated With Thorne Rooms At Art Institute

A replica of Martha Washingtons' tea service, one of her prized possessions at Mount Vernon, one twelfth actual size; the dining room from the house where George Mason (the author of the Bill of Rights) and Thomas Jefferson are thought to have drafted the Declaration of Independence; folding doors which were designed by Thomas Jefferson (who had a passion for ingenious gadgets); the kind of a house in which Theodore Roosevelt spent his boyhood—all these and many more interesting historical associations are related to the new series of thirty-seven American Rooms in Miniature by Mrs. James Ward Thorne which were open to the public last Friday at the Art Institute of Chicago.

This new series has never been shown before having been completed especially by Mrs. Thorne for this exhibit. Twenty-four of the thirty-seven rooms are exact reproductions of interiors which figure prominently in the history of various periods of the United States. Thirteen combine various elements of actual houses to express completely the spirit of the day. In the modern penthouse in San Francisco, Mrs . Thorne is showing original miniature paintings made for her by Marie Laurencin, Fernand Leger, Survage, Ozenfant, and Jean Hugo, with two pieces of sculpture by the Chicago sculptor, John Storrs.

In the Cape Cod Room there is a charming small tea service on a table to the left; Mrs. Thorne was delighted with it and jestingly bet the maker that he could not produce a childs' tea set. Some weeks later he won his bet by producing an even smaller child's tea set complete with handles on the cups.

Mrs. Thorne herself does much of the upholstering of miniature chairs; she keeps every scrap of material from her evening bags for use some day on a tiny chair or sofa. One of Mrs. Thorne's assistants spends most of her time making the superb rugs for these rooms in needlework; she reproduces oriental rugs, Chinese rugs, hooked rugs, and navajo blankets. She says she works an average of 120 hours to make a rug.

The candles in the rooms of earlier periods all were hand dipped; the hinges all work, many of the clocks will wind and the hands operate. There is a secretary made in England in the drawing room of the Jeremiah Lee Mansion, Marblehead, Massachusetts, in which the drawers all pull out. The many miniature books open and some of them have readable type. The sheet music on the music stands is readable also. On the mantle of the Cape Cod cottage is a tiny bottle with a ship inside. Several of the rooms contain globes of the world with accurate maps. Quoth one: I find I am a child again . . .

Housewives who spend many of their days taking the house apart for dusting and cleaning may sometimes wish for a tiny place built on the scale of Mrs. Thorne's rooms. But, alas, all the silver must be polished each day in Mrs. Thorne's rooms (all the pieces are sterling) and the dust must be cleaned daily from under the beds and in the corners of the stairs, as dust does not shrink to miniature scale for the convenience of these rooms. Today with electric clocks to time our cooking we may forget the days of cooking by hour glasses, three of which are shown in the Williamsburg kitchen—and they all work.

Mrs. Thorne has a charming faculty for putting in human touches in her rooms; on many tables are objects which give a hint of actual human habitation; some knitting left on a table (in the Samuel Wentworth House, actual knitting was started on tiny needles the size of a pin); other rooms have embroidery frames with threads and needles. Miniature copies of current magazines as Time, Vogue, Harpers Bazaar, and Colliers are shown in the George Washington Smith House, Santa Barbara, California.

It Happened Here

Portrait: He was a pioneer out of Kentucky, tall and gaunt with a striking resemblance to Lincoln; he held with books and set great store by bookish learning; he had a few Latin phrases which he loved to use in good thumping fashion, felt that he rubbed shoulders with scholars when he could bring out an apt "multun in parvo" or "cui bono." His few books as a young man included such tones as "Josephus," "The World Displayed," and of course, a large, gilt edged family Bible with striking likelinesses of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Jehovah; births and deaths were recorder here later on, between the Old and New Testaments. Among his books was an Atlas of the Heavens whose pages were large maps of the constellations, familiarizing us with a highway we have happily travelled for many years; as his family grew, his ideal was to provide good reading matter and The Youth's Companion was introduced into the home, never to fail thru succeeding generations, and we never forget the first number, either just come over at dusk with the mail and the family group standing around the table eagerly unfolding it, the young ones crowding to look under mother's arm, the eldest proud because the subscription was in her name. One of the Nation's props fell when The Companion was discontinued. After The Companion, there followed St. Nicholas, The Chatterbox and Wideawake, names familiar to children of that generation. In his latter years, this lover of good reading was an early subscriber to The Outlook, and he and the Editor, Lyman Abbott, saw eye to eye in matters of the spirit.

UNTO THE THIRD AND FOURTH GENERATION

Greatgrandfather liked a book,
they say,
And there weren't many in his day,
But in this day and age there's no

We'll all get books for Christmas,

Books from parents and uncles and aunts—
If books were scarcer, we might

and so
Into our stockings a book will go.
We shirked some traditions and some we forsook,
But every one of us has a book!

The cost of constructing the Maginot line of fortifications in France was $150,000,000. The work required five years.

Seventh District Bazaar, Fiesta Is Success

The fall Bazaar and Fiesta which was given by the Seventh District Woman's club, on November 29 in the Rivioli ball room on the northwest side of Chicago, was a complete success.

The district cleared more than $500.00 and each club that participated made a nice profit, including the Arlington Heights club, who made $37.00 on their apron booth.

The Fiesta attracted more than a thousand people and was the scene of many interesting displays, with entertainment to interest the guests constantly.

Mrs. B. A. Noyes, first vice president of the seventh district, was general chairman in charge of the affair, and Mesdames Briggs, Hines, Nichols, Palmer and Hughes from the local club, worked in the Arlington Heights booth.

Mr. and Mrs. Warren Fellingham and Mr. and Mrs. George Glow were guests at an afternoon tea on Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Lloyd of Glencoe.

Ruth Chatterman's leading man was a luncheon guest and greeted the guests informally. Mr. Bradley, son of Preston Bradley, was the main guest artist and entertained with musical readings.

P. T. A. Meets Next Week

The Parent-Teacher association will hold its regular monthly meeting on next Tuesday evening in the North School, with Howard R. Cannon of Oak Park the guest speaker.

Mr. Cannon is very popular as a speaker on books and this evening meeting gives the fathers an excellent opportunity to hear his interesting manner of presenting the popular books of the day. His subject is "The American Way of Living Understood Thru Books."

Miss Gemberling, music supervisor, will present her girls' chorus singing Christmas carols.

Dorcas Aid Elects Officers

The Dorcas Aid of the St. Peter's Lutheran church met on Tuesday evening in the school hall to elect officers for the ensuing year. Those taking office for '41 are Mrs. Albert Russell, president; Mrs. Walter Karstens, first vice president; Mrs. Engelking, second vice president; Mrs. Grewe, treasurer, and Mrs. Herman Schwolow, secretary. The group will meet again on Friday evening to enjoy a Christmas party in the school hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Busse had as week-end guest her nephew, Richard Jilek, Norwood Park.

Methodist Women's Society Meets

The Women's Society of Christian Service of the Methodist church met on Tuesday evening in the church parlor for their regular monthly meeting. Following the business meeting a Christmas program was presented with Mrs. I. D. Allison reading Christmas stories and Margaret Allison playing Christmas carols on her flute. James Jirak played a clarinet solo accompanied by Barbara Barrett. The Sunday school orchestra played several numbers and the group sang carols.

A social time was enjoyed and refreshments were served by a committee.

Last Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. Paul Taege, Mr. and Mrs. Hy. Busse attended the concert and band given by the Chicago Boys club, given at Sokol Chicago auditorium. John Sovinec was the director of the band.

CHILD HEALTH CONFERENCE SCHEDULE FOR DECEMBER

The child health station schedule for December has been announced as follows:

December 11, Wheeling public school, 1 to 3 p. m.; December 18, Palatine village hall, 1 to 3 p. m.; December 19, Glenview village hall, 1 to 3 p. m.; and December 25, Mount Prospect public library 1 to 3 p. m.

O.E.S. Girl's Club Elect Officers At Christmas Party

The O. E. S. Girl's club met on last Friday evening at the home of their president, Miss Gloria Wilton, to enjoy a Christmas party and to elect officers for the ensuing year.

Those who will hold office for the '41 year are Miss Violet Bohm, president; Miss Winifred Schumacher, vice president; Miss Inez Ihle, secretary and Miss Gloria Wilton, treasurer.

Following the business meeting the evening was given over to merriment, with Miss Hilda Wilton in charge of some very entertaining and amusing games. Attractive prizes were won by Violet Bohm, Celia Hausam, Myrtle Frey and Inez Ihle.

Each girl received a Christmas gift from the one who has been her "secret pal" all year, and at this meeting the names of the secret pals were made known.

Very delicious refreshments were served, with Miss Gladys Wilton presiding over the pouring.

The attractive decorations carried out the true Christmas motiff and put every one into the spirit of the occasion, and all too soon this enjoyable party came to an end.

Santa Fashions Toys To Educate Children

FOR thousands of youngsters the country over, Christmas and toys are synonymous. Their December dreams are filled with visions of dolls and electric trains and gaily decorated Christmas trees hiding brightly painted fire engines and rocking horses.

But children aren't the only worshippers of Santa's toys. Parents too, get a thrill from selecting gifts for their young offsprings. Mary Margaret McBride, a small-town girl well-known for her success in sophisticated New York, frankly admits in the January issue of Cosmopolitan Magazine, that she still likes toys for Christmas. Now that she is past the normal doll age her drawers and chests are crammed with every kind of doll—dolls that walk, dolls that talk, Eskimo dolls, Indian dolls and French and Chinese dolls, as well. And they still arouse a childish thrill.

"Modern children," Miss McBride reports, "love their toys as much as we loved ours, though modern parents, educators, and even the toy manufacturers conspire to see that toys do good. The carefully selected 1940 toy is designed to develop a child's skill in handling materials, to stimulate imagination, to encourage resourcefulness and social play—to adjust the child to grown-up living."

When the final Christmas rush does come and Mother peers into new doll houses and Daddy looks wistfully at electric trains, their reactions are watched. Unwittingly, Miss McBride says, they have become guinea pigs in the toy laboratory. Their interest or scorn all goes down in the black book and helps decide what next year's toys shall be like.

But in a modern world of science and invention, the old fashioned Christmas, Miss McBride finds, is still the most beloved.

John Perrio, 70 years old, and his donkey form the defense unit of Brecqhou island, eight miles from Guernsey. With only six miles of island and a dozen inhabitants, Perrio and Clarabelle, his donkey, find they can manage quite well to keep guard.

Adverse Advertising

Little Time for Robbery

If all the claims of St. Joseph oldtimers are valid Jesse James had little time left over for bank robbing after his pool-shooting chores were attended to. A newspaper man, making a check, said there are at least 500 oldsters who relate that they used to shoot pool with Jesse.

Lives Of Famous Americans Associated With Thorne Rooms At Art Institute

A replica of Martha Washingtons' tea service, one of her prized possessions at Mount Vernon, one twelfth actual size; the dining room from the house where George Mason (the author of the Bill of Rights) and Thomas Jefferson are thought to have drafted the Declaration of Independence; folding doors which were designed by Thomas Jefferson (who had a passion for ingenious gadgets); the kind of a house in which Theodore Roosevelt spent his boyhood—all these and many more interesting historical associations are related to the new series of thirty-seven American Rooms in Miniature by Mrs. James Ward Thorne which were open to the public last Friday at the Art Institute of Chicago.

This new series has never been shown before having been completed especially by Mrs. Thorne for this exhibit. Twenty-four of the thirty-seven rooms are exact reproductions of interiors which figure prominently in the history of various periods of the United States. Thirteen combine various elements of actual houses to express completely the spirit of the day. In the modern penthouse in San Francisco, Mrs . Thorne is showing original miniature paintings made for her by Marie Laurencin, Fernand Leger, Survage, Ozenfant, and Jean Hugo, with two pieces of sculpture by the Chicago sculptor, John Storrs.

In the Cape Cod Room there is a charming small tea service on a table to the left; Mrs. Thorne was delighted with it and jestingly bet the maker that he coull not produce a childs' tea set. Some weeks later he won his bet by producing an even smaller child's tea set complete with handles on the cups.

Mrs. Thorne herself does much of the upholstering of miniature chairs; she keeps every scrap of material from her evening bags for use some day on a tiny chair or sofa. One of Mrs. Thorne's assistants spends most of her time making the superb rugs for these rooms in needlework; she reproduces oriental rugs, Chinese rugs, hooked rugs, and navajo blankets. She says she works an average of 120 hours to make a rug.

The candles in the rooms of earlier periods all were hand dipped; the hinges all work, many of the clocks will wind and the hands operate. There is a secretary made in England in the drawing room of the Jeremiah Lee Mansion, Marblehead, Massachusetts, in which the drawers all pull out. The many miniature books open and some of them have readable type. The sheet music on the music stands is readable also. On the mantle of the Cape Cod cottage is a tiny bottle with a ship inside. Several of the rooms contain globes of the world with accurate maps. Quoth one: I find I am a child again . . .

Housewives who spend many of their days taking the house apart for dusting and cleaning may sometimes wish for a tiny place built on the scale of Mrs. Thorne's rooms. But, alas, all the silver must be polished each day in Mrs. Thorne's rooms (all the pieces are sterling) and the dust must be cleaned daily from under the beds and in the corners of the stairs, as dust does not shrink to miniature scale for the convenience of these rooms. Today with electric clocks to time our cooking we may forget the days of cooking by hour glasses, three of which are shown in the Williamsburg kitchen—and they all work.

Mrs. Thorne has a charming faculty for putting in human touches in her rooms; on many tables are objects which give a hint of actual human habitation; some knitting left on a table (in the Samuel Wentworth House, actual knitting was started on tiny needles the size of a pin); other rooms have embroidery frames with threads and needles. Miniature copies of current magazines as Time, Vogue, Harpers Bazaar, and Colliers are shown in the George Washington Smith House, Santa Barbara, California.

WALTHER LEAGUE

Northern Illinois District

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

Mildred Behrens, Mr. O. A. Koehneke, and yours truly attended a district publicity meeting Sunday afternoon at the Stevens Hotel. Mildred was going to stay for the latter part of the meeting so that we could catch the train to get back in time for the play. However, the meeting was so interesting that we all stayed until the finish and still got back in time. Most of the time was taken up in discussing the problems that the various zone publicity chairmen have in getting cooperation from the society representatives.

We were quite proud to be able to say that we had no definite problems out here; everyone cooperated as well as could be expected and we could always depend on some news. They were quite envious and wondered how we did it. We politely told them that they would have to get some members who were as faithful as ours were before they could do much more.

The meeting proper seemed to prove that most zones had the society people send their news direct to the suburban papers and to the Schwartzkopf Mimeo Service office for the metropolitan papers, but since we were getting along so splendidly out here with our weekly column, we were advised to retain our present program.

After all the build-up we gave our individual reporters and the compliments we received for our zone, we hope none of you will disappoint us and grow lax in sending in the news.

Going over into the sport section, we hear tell that the Itasca and Des Plaines teams are really having a spirited time with their basketball games. Both teams are putting up a grand fight with Itasca holding the lead, but Des Plaines coming up fast behind. We wonder —will the boys from Itasca be able to hold their lead? You all know who we're pulling for, but may the best team win. How's that, Wally?

Tuesday night was "encouragement-problem discussion" meeting held at Higgins-Canfield, but we'll tell you more about that next week.

The Norwood Park kids were at the Arlington play en masse, and after the play they and two girls from Arlington drove out to Cumberland Terrace for some delicious toasted cheese sandwiches and coffee. Had a lot of fun joking and laughing, Wally Fil! with his "Schnozzy" which he bought for the little nephew you heard so much about at the rally, but which at the end of the evening looked more as though it were for the rag peddler than for the nephew, Gordon. By the way, those Leaguers will put on a play sometime in January by the title of "Faith, Hope, and Flarity."

Thanks to Herb Gehrke of Barrington for his card telling us he and his League couldn't attend the meeting at Higgins-Canfield Tuesday evening as that was their regular meeting night. That is the kind of cooperation we like—thanks, Herb.

A sacred Christmas concert will be presented by the Jerusalem Choral and Altar Society Sunday evening at Jerusalem Lutheran church, Morton Grove, under the direction of Mr. Edgar Abraham, principal of St. John's Lutheran school, Niles. Appearing on the program with the choral group as guest organist will be Mr. A. C. Wissmueller, who is organist at Christ Lutheran church of Oak Park.

The following selections will be included in the program.

Festival Fantasia—H. Tschirch.

O, Savior of the World—Pears-Riegger.

Lift Up Your Heads, O ye Gates from the "Messiah"—Handel.

Paper Handkerchiefs Great Sanitary Aid

"DROP the handkerchief" isn't just a game. It holds a lesson. The use of fabric handkerchiefs in winter, when colds are prevalent, is an out-of-date custom. No one should be called upon to handle or launder cold-infected handkerchiefs.

They have no place with today's hygienic standards, Helen Kendall writes in the December issue of Good Housekeeping. Train your children, she advises, to use them not only at home but at school. The general use of paper handkerchiefs is increasing and is a sanitary practice.

Fabric handkerchiefs can be kept snowy white and hygienically clean by the use of a household bleach, which will whiten and disinfect them at the same time. Another way to disinfect handkerchiefs is to soak them in a disinfectant solution before washing. Or they can be boiled in a soapy water for at least 10 minutes.

Lighting Your Christmas Tree

IT'S going to be another electrical Christmas. No doubt of that. The interest in Christmas tree lights has grown to the proportions of a mania almost exceeding the love of trees and tinsel. Whether this is a trouble-free, brilliantly beautiful Christmas, however, remains to be seen. It depends on your luck in avoiding burned-out lamps, on your skill in arranging the lights for the greatest effect.

Actually, no special finesse is required to handle these strings of lights. But if, in years past, you've had troubles—searching for the lamp which put out a whole string of lights, or combating the moisture which ruined outdoor connections—here are a few tips, gathered from the December House Beautiful, to help you over the rough spots.

Indoor lights. There are three sizes of lamp bases and sockets used for home Christmas decoration. They are known as miniature, candelabra and intermediate, and they determine the size of the bulbs. Some are wired in series, some in parallel or multiple.

The series lamps so commonly used during the past decade have miniature bases, come in strings of eight lamps. They are wired so that each lamp is dependent on the other for its supply of current; in other words, the current must pass through one lamp before it reaches the next. If one lamp burns out, therefore, the current is stopped and the other seven also go out.

How Dick Gay's Job In A Filling Station Provided Benefits For His Family

(Note—This is one of a series of feature stories which explains high points of old-age and survivors insurance. The story is based on facts. The names used here are fictitious).

Happy-go-lucky, irresponsible —that was Dick Gay; but Edith, his young wife, adored him and his infant son regarded him with friendly interest when Dick was around —which, to tell the truth, was not very often. Mr. Gay worked at a filling station—four hours in the morning and four at night. That left only the afternoons for him to play.

Then one winter's night Dick Gay died. The doctor said it was pneumonia.

Edith took her baby and her few belongings and went back to her parents. But there were three younger sisters at home and Dad's salary was pitifully small. For awhile the situation seemed rather hopeless. Then one day came a letter from Dick's former employer, calling attention to the fact that the young husband was insured under the Government old-age and survivors insurance system.

Dick's social security card has been lost, but Edith remembered that he had scratched his account number in the back of his watch; so she was able to report his account number when she applied for benefits at the office of the Social Security Board. While in this field office a member of the staff helped her fill out the application blank, which every claimant is expected to do.

Examination of Dick Gay's record showed that he had worked two years and eight months in covered employment since he reached his 21st birthday in 1937; that he had held jobs with four different business concerns and that his average wage amounted to a little less than $100 per month. On the basis of this record—which was maintained for him by the accounting division of the Social Security Board, his wife and baby were awarded monthly benefits of about $30 per month — $18 for the widow, $12 for the child. If Edith does not remarry she will receive a Government check every month until young Richard reaches the age of 18. That is, she will receive this payment unless she goes regularly to work in employment that is covered by the Social Security Act. She might teach in a public school, or enter domestic service, or work for the Government, or for a religious or charitable institution, and still be eligible for monthly insurance benefits; but if she takes a job in a commercial or industrial establishment where she is paid $15 or more per month her payments of survivors insurance will be suspended during the time she is so employed. But regardless of whether or not his mother works or remarries, the son will receive his payment of $12 per month until he is 16 years old (18 if in school).

Further information about old-age and survivors insurance may be obtained at 1045 Lawrence ave., Chicago, office of the Social Security Board.

'The Duchess Bounces In' At Friendly Class

A humorous skit called "The Duchess Bounces In" was presented at the meeting of the Friendly Class of the Presbyterian church on Tuesday afternoon, when the group met to enjoy their annual Christmas party.

Those taking part in the skit were Mesdames Costain, Graham, Hogate, Williams, Groves, Glave, Ratliffe, Neimeyer and Grigsby and the one hilarious act proved highly entertaining.

A Christmas tree lighted and decorated made an attractive setting for the singing of carols and a gift exchange was enjoyed by the guests.

Dessert was served at 2 o'clock preceding the afternoon's program.

The program was in charge of the program chairman, Mrs. Marion Grigsby.

News items for this department should be mailed not later than Monday to Arlene Nagel, publicity chairman, 804 N. Douglas St., Arlington Heights.

Mildred Behrens, Mr. O. A. Koehneke, and yours truly attended a district publicity meeting Sunday afternoon at the Stevens Hotel. Mildred was going to stay for the latter part of the meeting so that we could catch the train to get back in time for the play. However, the meeting was so interesting that we all stayed until the finish and still got back in time. Most of the time was taken up in discussing the problems that the various zone publicity chairmen have in getting cooperation from the society representatives.

We were quite proud to be able to say that we had no definite problems out here; everyone cooperated as well as could be expected and we could always depend on some news. They were quite envious and wondered how we did it. We politely told them that they would have to get some members who were as faithful as ours were before they could do much more.

The meeting proper seemed to prove that most zones had the society people send their news direct to the suburban papers and to the Schwartzkopf Mimeo Service office for the metropolitan papers, but since we were getting along so splendidly out here with our weekly column, we were advised to retain our present program.

After all the build-up we gave our individual reporters and the compliments we received for our zone, we hope none of you will disappoint us and grow lax in sending in the news.

Bob Hope goes Latin as he kisses the hand of his co-star, Paulette Goddard, in Paramount's spine-tingling mystery-comedy — "The Ghost Breakers" — which opens on Sunday at the Palatine Theatre, Palatine.

Movie News.

'The Ghost Breakers' Packs Chills, Chuckles

Spooks to the left of them, spooks to the right of them, Paulette Goddard and Bob Hope, go after ghosts with gags in one of the merriest mystery stories of the season Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, and Wednesday at the Palatine Theatre. It's Paramount's "The Ghost Breakers." It will break you up completely.

Cleverly directed by George Marshall from a well-planned screen-play by Walter DeLeon, it gives Bob Hope ample opportunity to ad lib at the expense of the wierdest assortment of uncanny goings-on ever assembled. Dressed in the latest fashions that display her gorgeous figure to perfection, Paulette Goddard is an eye-ful.

The Northwest Mounted's most exciting man-hunt plays Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when James Oliver Curwood's "River's End" crosses the screen. Starring Dennis Morgan, George Tobias and Elizabeth Earl, the Warner Bros.' thiller tells a dramatic tale of civilization's last outpost and the scarlet-coated Mounties who rule it.

The Dark Continent, savage, sinister and mysterious, becomes the scene of a new adventure film, Universal's "South to Karange," coming this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

A small band of white men and one white woman speeding through the jungles aboard a train which rebellious savages are plotting to destroy, affords the dramatic framework for the action drama. Charles Bickford, James Craig, Luli Deste and John Sutton head the cast.

Lloyd Nolan, who plays the racket overlord with Lew Ayres and Rita Johnson in "The Golden Fleecing," coming Thursday, Friday and Saturday, appears as a rather suave, pleasant-looking fellow who only gets "hard-boiled" when his path is crossed. He patterned the character, he says, from a racketeer he knew while on the stage in an Eastern city. "We used to meet every night at a club," he relates, "but I didn't know until someone told me a month after we met that I was foregathering with a racket chief."

100 Cowboys Bunch 4,500 Herd Of Cattle For Cherokee Strip

One of the largest cattle concentrations for motion pictures will be seen in Paramount's historic romance "Cherokee Strip," starring Richard Dix, coming to the Catlow theatre on Saturday for one night only. One hundred California cowboys under the supervision of Alex Reeves, Long Valley cattle raiser, combed the upper Mojave desert from Bridgeport to Lone Pine and concentrated 4,500 head of cattle at Long Valley where the picture was made.

Butch and Buddy, Universal's little tornadoes, who made their debut with Gloria Jean in "The Underpup," are featured in support of Deanna Durbin in the star's latest picture, "Spring Parade," which comes to the Catlow theatre on Sunday for a two-day engagement.

The bull-fiddle and accordion-playing youngsters will be seen as the mischievous nephews of the baker who employs Deanna Durbin when she comes to the metroplis.

Flaming six-guns, thundering hoofs, red blooded action and a well worked out plot characterize the latest screen adventure of "Hop-along" Cassidy in "Three Men From Texas," which comes to the Catlow theatre Tuesday.

The action takes place in the California of the turn of the century when land grabbing by eastern speculators was at its height. Cassidy, played as usual by William Boyd, is asked by a citizens' committee in the harassed region, to bring law and order to the place, and unable to go, he sends his saddlemate "Lucky."

"Lucky," played by Russell Hayden, gets himself into plenty of trouble, and it is when Cassidy goes to California to extricate him, that the action begins. Cassidy gets him out, all right, and also succeeds in bringing law and order to the community—but not before he gets into some of the most exciting scrapes of his career.

Double featured on Tuesday with "Three Men From Texas," is the new high in high-sterics—"Margie," with an all star cast including Mischa Auer, Nan Grey, Tom Brown, Edgar Kennedy, Allen Jenkins, Eddie Quillan, Wally Vernon and Joy Hodges.

In his long and arduous ring campaign, former light heavyweight king Maxie Rosenbloom faced all kinds of fighters. During the filming Elsa Maxwell's "Public Deb No. 1," which comes to the Catlow theatre Wednesday and Thursday, he squared-off with his most unusual opponent—beautiful Brenda Joyce, who has a top featured role opposite George Murphy in the 20th Century-For picture.

Brenda portrays a debutante who goes in for the manly art of self-defense. Maxie's her boxing instructor. Produced by Darryl F. Zanuck, "Public Deb No. 1" also features Elsa Maxwell, Mischa Auer, Charlie Ruggles and many other popular players.

"Boom Town" Now At Des Plaines

There's something very funny going on in "No Time For Comedy," laugh hit which heads the double feature program opening in Des Plaines on Sunday. James Stewart and Rosalind Russell are the leading players. "They Knew What They Wanted," co-starring Carole Lombard and Charles Laughton, completes the Sunday program.

Heart and Head

The belief that highly emotional persons let their heart interfere with their head is an established medical fact. Dr. Frederic Leavitt of the Philadelphia County hospital told 2,000 physicians. "One American in seven has high blood pressure and one in four, over the age of 53, dies of it," he declared. "For years doctors believed high blood pressure was caused by emotional and nervous disturbances which caused the blood vessels to become tense, then to shrink and harden."

Sugar Syrup

A jar of sugar syrup made up ahead of time and stored in a cool place will be a big help in making a pitcher of lemonade or other fruit-ade on a warm summer afternoon.

Four Northbrook Persons Injured In Skokie Crash

Francis Butler of Lake Forest, was the driver of the car that turned and was struck on the right rear fender. Behind Butler was Harold Browning and his wife of Winnetka waiting to turn. The Willi auto drove around the Butler car and into the Browning vehicle.

Four Injured In Waukegan Road Three Car Collision

Four persons were injured Sunday night on Skokie rd. just north of Willow rd. when one driver lost control of his car and swerved across the pavement into another car.

Charles Robasse, Milwaukee, riding with several others including Edith Paquin of Chicago, was driving north on Waukegan rd. when he lost control of his motor. His car swerved across the pavement into the auto of John Olsen, Chicago, which in turn was hit by another northbound car, that of one Herbert Burt.

Olsen and Dorothy Fink, his passenger, were taken to the Highland Park hospital where he was found to be suffering from deep cuts and a possible fractured skull. The girl suffered a severe chest injury. Robasse and Paquin were taken to the Evanston hospital where the former was treated for cuts and other bruises while the latter received a fractured foot and bruised knees.

SWERVING TRUCK DAMAGES COUNTY SQUAD CAR

A swerving truck which was being passed by a county squad car last Wednesday morning along Skokie near Willow rd. caused the police vehicle to be struck by a third car.

BARRINGTON AUTOIST HIT AT RAND-DUNDEE

Mr. O'Brien had been traveling north on Rand when he made his turn onto Dundee rd. Bernard Allard, Tomahawk, Wis., was driving south and struck the Barrington car on the right side. Neither motorist suffered personal injury.

FREEPORT MAN INJURED AT 58-ALGONQUIN

A Freeport man, Louis Burrells, was injured last Tuesday when the car in which he was riding was struck at the junction of rte. 58 and Algonquin rd.

Burrels, being driven by his chauffeur, Dick Wilken, was traveling east on 58 when a truck driven by Harry Katz, Chicago, going south on rte. 62 allegedly failed to stop. The Burrell's vehicle was pushed into the ditch with Burrells being taken first to the Northwestern and then to the Evanston hospital. The damaged vehicle was taken to the Gaare garage, Arlington Heights.

PARK RIDGE DRIVERS TAKE THE DITCH

Fred Schutt and E. Lutz, Park Ridge, skidded into the ditch Sunday afternoon along Touhy ave. east of River rd. Slippery pavement was blamed for the mishap.

EVANSTONIAN DODGES ACCIDENT BUT SLIDES OFF ROAD, INTO DITCH

Owen Terry, Evanston, dodged one accident Saturday evening, but made one of his own along Dundee rd. just west of Pfingsten rd.

Terry had been driving east and swung out onto the shoulder to avoid hitting an approaching car that preferred the middle half of the rd. Terry's car skidded on the ice and turned over in the ditch.

Terry, his wife, and son were all shaken, but escaped serious injury.

DES PLAINES MOTORISTS COLLIDE WITH NO INJURY

Joseph Sieg was driving west on rte. 14 when E. Long turned from a factory yard and ran into the Sieg vehicle. Both cars suffered slight damage.

WHERE IS MUNSON?

Attention Leonard W. Munson. Your car was found in the ditch early Saturday morning by the county highway police at Cumberland and Lawrence aves.

Skid marks indicated that there was no other car involved in any accident at that point but the car skidded into the ditch for some reason. The vehicle was towed to Hank's garage with the police taking charge of a shotgun found on the seat.

DODGES DOG FROM DITCH, LODGES CAR IN DITCH

Dodging a dog that ran from the ditch Monday morning along rte 54 just north of Dundee rd., caused O. L. Peterson of Long Grove to skid into the ditch. The dog was slightly injured, but could not be found.

SEEK $12,500 FOR ACCIDENT NEAR PALATINE

Ida and Dolores Karlin and Ida Karlinski have sued Irvin L. Bowen in Superior court for a total of $12,500 damages for injuries sustained in an automobile accident August 25. They state they were riding in a car at Dundee rd. and Route 14, Palatine, when the defendant driving his car on Northwest highway collided with their car at the intersection of these roads. Ida Karlin asks $7,500 damages, Dolores and Ida Karlinski, $2,500 each.

Paul Lipman has sued Florence and C. H. Adams in Superior court for $10,000 damages for injuries caused by the Adams car driven by Florence, running into the Lipman car at Dempster st. and Lincoln rd., Morton Grove. It is alleged Florence was drunk.

Norman P. Humphries and A. L. Woodbridge have filed suit in Circuit court against Ken Rogers for injury and damage in an automobile collision November 10 on Northwest Highway near Wilke rd. They allege they were riding in a car with trailer when Rogers drove headlong into them from behind knocking the trailer aside and hitting the car. Humphries says he was injured and asks $3,000 damages. Woodbridge asks $940 for damage to his car, trailer and contents.

Eskel and Svea Nelson have sued Evelyn Unbriet in Superior court for damages for a collision of their cars June 16 at the intersection of highways 53 and 62 eight miles from Des Plaines. Svea asks $10,000 for injuries and Eskel $425 for damage to the car.

FOG BLAMED WHEN PRAIRIE VIEW AUTOIST IS STRUCK

Mary Scherff, Prairie View, was traveling north on Milwaukee ave. in a dense fog Monday morning when her car was struck in the rear by Erwin Wagin of Salem, Wis. Both claimed to be traveling around ten or twenty miles per hour, but the fog was too thick for safe driving.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR

Keep Old Customs

The village of D'Escousse, typical of many small villages on the Isle of Madame in the Cape Breton island of Nova Scotia, retains the oldest of Acadian customs. Although traversed by modern motor roads, the people live much as in the past, with girls and women still wearing the dainty Norman kirtle and the headdress of white linen. The district is celebrated for its hook rugs and loom products made by cottagers who are anticipating a good tourist season by the favorable 10 per cent exchange premium on the American dollar.

Farmers' Institutes —Forty-five years ago the Illinois Legislature created a public corporation called "Illinois Farmers' Institute" to " . . . assist and encourage useful education among the farmers and for developing the agricultural resources of the state . . ." This was in line with similar organizations created in many other states at about the same time. The board of directors of the Illinois Farmers' Institute is composed of the state superintendent of public instruction, director of the State Department of Agriculture, dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, president of the State Horticultural Society, president of the State Dairymen's Association and one member from each congressional district selected by delegates present at the annual meeting.

The directors are required to hold an annual meeting, " . . . for the purpose of developing the greater interest in the cultivation of crops, in the care and breeding of domestic animals, in dairy husbandry, in horticulture, in farm drainage, in improved highways and general farm management, through and by means of liberal discussions of these and kindred subjects . . ."

In addition to the annual meeting required by law, the board sponsors county farmers' institutes held generally during the winter months. These are educational meetings conducted according to a more or less uniform pattern. By law any citizen may avail himself of the educational features of these meetings.

In 1911 an act was passed allowing counties to appropriate up to $300 annually for the use of county farmers' institutes " . . . in their efforts to promote the adoption of the latest approved methods of crop production, the improvement of livestock, the conservation of soil fertility and the improvement of agricultural conditions generally . . . " Also one of the powers of the State Department of Agriculture is "to assist, encourage and promote the organization of farmers' institutes . . ."

The general program of the state farmers' institute is supervised by a secretary whose office is at Springfield. A local president, secretary and treasurer administer the affairs of county institutes.

The laws referred to may be found in the Illinois Revised Statutes, chapter 5, sections 8-16; chapter 34, section 156, and chapter 127, section 40 (19).

Bird's Throat Closes

Birds have one physical advantage over human beings because a nervous reaction closes a bird's throat when it has had enough to eat but a human throat continues to receive food long after the mouth should have been closed.

It's Paramount's "The Ghost Breakers." It will break you up completely.

The Northwest Mounted's most exciting man-hunt plays Sunday, Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday, when James Oliver Curwood's "River's End" crosses the screen. Starring Dennis Morgan, George Tobias and Elizabeth Earl, the Warner Bros.' thiller tells a dramatic tale of civilization's last outpost and the scarlet-coated Mounties who rule it!

The Dark Continent, savage, sinister and mysterious, becomes the scene of a new adventure film, Universal's "South to Karange," coming this Thursday, Friday and Saturday.

A small band of white men and one white woman speeding through the jungles aboard a train which rebellious savages are plotting to destroy, affords the dramatic framework for the action drama. Charles Bickford, James Craig, Luli Deste and John Sutton head the cast.

Lloyd Nolan, who plays the racket overlord with Lew Ayres and Rita Johnson in "The Golden Fleecing," coming Thursday, Friday and Saturday, appears as a rather suave, pleasant-looking fellow who only gets "hard-boiled" when his path is crossed. He patterned the character, he says, from a racketeer he knew while on the stage in an Eastern city. "We used to meet every night at a club," he relates, "but I didn't know until someone told me a month after we met that I was foregathering with a racket chief."

100 Cowboys Bunch 4,500 Herd Of Cattle For Cherokee Strip

One of the largest cattle concentrations for motion pictures will be seen in Paramount's historic romance "Cherokee Strip," starring Richard Dix, coming to the Catlow theatre on Saturday for one night only. One hundred California cowboys under the supervision of Alex Reeves, Long Valley cattle raiser, combed the upper Mojave desert from Bridgeport to Lone Pine and concentrated 4,500 head of cattle at Long Valley where the picture was made.

Butch and Buddy, Universal's little tornadoes, who made their debut with Gloria Jean in "The Underpup," are featured in support of Deanna Durbin in the star's latest picture, "Spring Parade," which comes to the Catlow theatre on Sunday for a two-day engagement.

The bull-fiddle and accordion-playing youngsters will be seen as the mischievous nephews of the baker who employs Deanna Durbin when she comes to the metroplis.

Flaming six-guns, thundering hoofs, red blooded action and a well worked out plot characterize the latest screen adventure of "Hopalong" Cassidy in "Three Men From Texas," which comes to the Catlow theatre Tuesday.

The action takes place in the California of the turn of the century when land grabbing by eastern speculators was at its height. Cassidy, played as usual by William Boyd, is asked by a citizens' committee in the harassed region, to bring law and order to the place, and unable to go, he sends his saddlemate "Lucky."

"Lucky," played by Russell Hayden, gets himself into plenty of trouble, and it is when Cassidy goes to California to extricate him, that the action begins. Cassidy gets him out, all right, and also succeeds in bringing law and order to the community—but not before he gets into some of the most exciting scrapes of his career.

Double featured on Tuesday with "Three Men From Texas," is the new high in high-sterics—"Margie," with an all star cast including Mischa Auer, Nan Grey, Tom Brown, Edgar Kennedy, Allen Jenkins, Eddie Quillan, Wally Vernon and Joy Hodges.

In his long and arduous ring campaign, former light heavyweight king Maxie Rosenbloom faced all kinds of fighters. During the filming Elsa Maxwell's "Public Deb No. 1," which comes to the Catlow theatre Wednesday and Thursday, he squared-off with his most unusual opponent—beautiful Brenda Joyce, who has a top featured role opposite George Murphy in the 20th Century-For picture.

Brenda portrays a debutante who goes in for the manly art of self-defense. Maxie's her boxing instructor. Produced by Darryl F. Zanuck, "Public Deb No. 1" also features Elsa Maxwell, Mischa Auer, Charlie Ruggles and many other popular players.

"Boom Town" Now At Des Plaines

Boasting one of the ace casts ever assembled in a single picture, "Boom Town," thrilling drama of the oil fields, is currently showing at the Des Plaines Theatre. Co-starred in this spectacular film are Clark Gable, Spencer Tracy, Hedy Lamarr and Claudette Colbert. Frank Morgan, popular character actor, also appears in "Boom Town," which finishes its three day run in Des Plaines on Saturday.

There's something very funny going on in "No Time For Comedy," laugh hit which heads the double feature program opening in Des Plaines on Sunday. James Stewart and Rosalind Russell are the leading players. "They Knew What They Wanted," co-starring Carole Lombard and Charles Laughton, completes the Sunday program.

Heart and Head

The belief that highly emotional persons let their heart interfere with their head is an established medical fact. Dr. Frederic Leavitt of the Philadelphia County hospital told 2,000 physicians. "One American in seven has high blood pressure and one in four, over the age of 53, dies of it," he declared. "For years doctors believed high blood pressure was caused by emotional and nervous disturbances which caused the blood vessels to become tense, then to shrink and harden."

Sugar Syrup

A jar of sugar syrup made up ahead of time and stored in a cool place will be a big help in making a pitcher of lemonade or other fruitade on a warm summer afternoon.

Four Northbrook Persons Injured In Skokie Crash

Anton Willi, his wife Anne, and his two daughters Dorothy and Alice were injured Saturday afternoon in a head-on collision at the junction of Skokie and Tower rds.

Willi had been driving north on Skokie about five in the afternoon, when a car facing south made a left turn directly in front of him. Willi attempted to swerve to the left of the turning auto but ran head-on into a second car waiting at that corner.

Francis Butler of Lake Forest, was the driver of the car that turned and was struck on the right rear fender. Behind Butler was Harold Browning and his wife of Winnetka waiting to turn. The Willi auto drove around the Butler car and into the Browning vehicle.

All four members of the Willi family were taken to the Evanston hospital for treatment while the Brownings left with intentions of seeing a doctor. Butler was not hurt.

Four Injured In Waukegan Road Three Car Collision

Four persons were injured Sunday night on Skokie rd. just north of Willow rd. when one driver lost control of his car and swerved across the pavement into another car.

Charles Robasse, Milwaukee, riding with several others including Edith Paquin of Chicago, was driving north on Waukegan rd. when he lost control of his motor. His car swerved across the pavement into the auto of John Olsen, Chicago, which in turn was hit by another northbound car, that of one Herbert Burt.

Olsen and Dorothy Fink, his passenger, were taken to the Highland Park hospital where he was found to be suffering from deep cuts and a possible fractured skull. The girl suffered a severe chest injury. Robasse and Paquin were taken to the Evanston hospital where the former was treated for cuts and other bruises while the latter received a fractured foot and bruised knees.

SWERVING TRUCK DAMAGES COUNTY SQUAD CAR

A swerving truck which was being passed by a county squad car last Wednesday morning along Skokie near Willow rd. caused the police vehicle to be struck by a third car.

Louis Linderman, Kenosha, was driving a truck north on Skokie when he swerved to the left from the outer lane. A passing squad car was forced across the center line and collided with the southbound car of Joseph Biach of Milwaukee.

The police car was taken to the Hi-Way garage while Biach had his vehicle towed to the Northbrook garage.

BARRINGTON AUTOIST HIT AT RAND-DUNDEE

Mr. O'Brien had been traveling north on Rand when he made his turn onto Dundee rd. Bernard Allard, Tomahawk, Wis., was driving south and struck the Barrington car on the right side. Neither motorist suffered personal injury.

FREEPORT MAN INJURED AT 58-ALGONQUIN

A Freeport man, Louis Burrells, was injured last Tuesday when the car in which he was riding was struck at the junction of rte. 58 and Algonquin rd.

Burrels, being driven by his chauffeur, Dick Wilken, was traveling east on 58 when a truck driven by Harry Katz, Chicago, going south on rte. 62 allegedly failed to stop. The Burrell's vehicle was pushed into the ditch with Burrells being taken first to the Northwestern and then to the Evanston hospital. The damaged vehicle was taken to the Gaare garage, Arlington Heights.

PARK RIDGE DRIVERS TAKE THE DITCH

Fred Schutt and E. Lutz, Park Ridge, skidded into the ditch Sunday afternoon along Touhy ave. east of River rd. Slippery pavement was blamed for the mishap.

EVANSTONIAN DODGES ACCIDENT BUT SLIDES OFF ROAD, INTO DITCH

Owen Terry, Evanston, dodged one accident Saturday evening, but made one of his own along Dundee rd. just west of Pfingsten rd.

Terry had been driving east and swung out onto the shoulder to avoid hitting an approaching car that preferred the middle half of the rd. Terry's car skidded on the ice and turned over in the ditch.

Terry, his wife, and son were all shaken, but escaped serious injury.

DES PLAINES MOTORISTS COLLIDE WITH NO INJURY

Two Des Plaines motorists collided Saturday on the Northwest highway near rte. 58, but neither one was hurt.

Joseph Sieg was driving west on rte. 14 when E. Long turned from a factory yard and ran into the Sieg vehicle. Both cars suffered slight damage.

WHERE IS MUNSON?

Attention Leonard W. Munson. Your car was found in the ditch early Saturday morning by the county highway police at Cumberland and Lawrence aves.

Skid marks indicated that there was no other car involved in any accident at that point but the car skidded into the ditch for some reason. The vehicle was towed to Hank's garage with the police taking charge of a shotgun found on the seat.

DODGES DOG FROM DITCH, LODGES CAR IN DITCH

Dodging a dog that ran from the ditch Monday morning along rte 54 just north of Dundee rd., caused O. L. Peterson of Long Grove to skid into the ditch. The dog was slightly injured, but could not be found.

SEEK $12,500 FOR ACCIDENT NEAR PALATINE

Ida and Dolores Karlin and Ida Karlinski have sued Irvin L. Bowen in Superior court for a total of $12,500 damages for injuries sustained in an automobile accident August 25. They state they were riding in a car at Dundee rd. and Route 14, Palatine, when the defendant driving his car on Northwest highway collided with their car at the intersection of these roads. Ida Karlin asks $7,500 damages, Dolores and Ida Karlinski, $2,500 each.

Paul Lipman has sued Florence and C. H. Adams in Superior court for $10,000 damages for injuries caused by the Adams car driven by Florence, running into the Lipman car at Dempster st. and Lincoln rd., Morton Grove. It is alleged Florence was drunk.

Norman P. Humphries and A. L. Woodbridge have filed suit in Circuit court against Ken Rogers for injury and damage in an automobile collision November 10 on Northwest Highway near Wilke rd. They allege they were riding in a car with trailer when Rogers drove headlong into them from behind knocking the trailer aside and hitting the car. Humphries says he was injured and asks $3,000 damages. Woodbridge asks $940 for damage to his car, trailer and contents.

Eskel and Svea Nelson have sued Evelyn Unbriet in Superior court for damages for a collision of their cars June 16 at the intersection of highways 53 and 62 eight miles from Des Plaines. Svea asks $10,000 for injuries and Eskel $425 for damage to the car.

FOG BLAMED WHEN PRAIRIE VIEW AUTOIST IS STRUCK

Mary Scherff, Prairie View, was traveling north on Milwaukee ave. in a dense fog Monday morning when her car was struck in the rear by Erwin Wagin of Salem, Wis. Both claimed to be traveling around ten or twenty miles per hour, but the fog was too thick for safe driving.

RECOVER STOLEN CAR

Keep Old Customs

The village of D'Escousse, typical of many small villages on the Isle of Madame in the Cape Breton island of Nova Scotia, retains the oldest of Acadian customs. Although traversed by modern motor roads, the people live much as in the past, with girls and women still wearing the dainty Norman kirtle and the headdress of white linen. The district is celebrated for its hook rugs and loom products made by cottagers who are anticipating a good tourist season by the favorable 10 per cent exchange premium on the American dollar.

Farmers' Institutes —Forty-five years ago the Illinois Legislature created a public corporation called "Illinois Farmers' Institute" to " . . . assist and encourage useful education among the farmers and for developing the agricultural resources of the state . . ." This was in line with similar organizations created in many other states at about the same time. The board of directors of the Illinois Farmers' Institute is composed of the state superintendent of public instruction, director of the State Department of Agriculture, dean of the College of Agriculture, University of Illinois, president of the State Horticultural Society, president of the State Dairymen's Association and one member from each congressional district selected by delegates present at the annual meeting.

The directors are required to hold an annual meeting, " . . . for the purpose of developing the greater interest in the cultivation of crops, in the care and breeding of domestic animals, in dairy husbandry, in horticulture, in farm drainage, in improved highways and general farm management, through and by means of liberal discussions of these and kindred subjects . . ."

In addition to the annual meeting required by law, the board sponsors county farmers' institutes held generally during the winter months. These are educational meetings conducted according to a more or less uniform pattern. By law any citizen may avail himself of the educational features of these meetings.

In 1911 an act was passed allowing counties to appropriate up to $300 annually for the use of county farmers' institutes " . . . in their efforts to promote the adoption of the latest approved methods of crop production, the improvement of livestock, the conservation of soil fertility and the improvement of agricultural conditions generally . . . " Also one of the powers of the State Department of Agriculture is "to assist, encourage and promote the organization of farmers' institutes . . ."

The general program of the state farmers' institute is supervised by a secretary whose office is at Springfield. A local president, secretary and treasurer administer the affairs of county institutes.

The laws referred to may be found in the Illinois Revised Statutes, chapter 5, sections 8-16; chapter 34, section 156, and chapter 127, section 40 (19).

Bird's Throat Closes

Birds have one physical advantage over human beings because a nervous reaction closes a bird's throat when it has had enough to eat but a human throat continues to receive food long after the mouth should have been closed.

Farm Plat Books Of County Sponsored By Farm Bureau

The farmers of Cook county are being furnished copies of farm plat books of the whole of Cook county by special arrangement of the Cook County Farm Bureau with an atlas publishing company of Rockford.

These plat books will furnish an up-to-date, neat plat of each township showing the roads, railroads and land ownerships in the county. The book has been checked with the aerial photographs taken by the AAA recently and should be highly accurate.

An added feature to these plats will be a full page map of Cook county outlining the recent zoning areas of the county, with a summary description of the uses to which these zoned areas may be put. This book is made possible by advertising that has been taken by many business concerns and the Farm Bureau in the county and they will be valuable records for our farmers for a number of years. The last similar book was published over ten years ago. The book is a paper bound book about 12 inches by 9 inches and may be easily carried in a roll. These books will be of exceptional value to land owners and will probably find considerable use in our next quadrennial reassessment.

Enough books will be provided so that one copy will be furnished to each member of the Cook County Farm Bureau free of charge. The advertising and map making has practically been finished after which it will require two or three months for publication and distribution. Normally these books sell for $3.00 each. Others who would be interested in purchasing such a book might apply to the Farm Bureau who will have charge of distribution in the county.

Trees and Shrubs May Be Planted Until Christmas

Between corn-picking time and Christmas there is still time to plant trees and shrubs if the ground isn't frozen according to H. W. Gilbert, landscape gardening extension specialist of the University of Illinois College of Agriculture.

Oak, hackberry, elm, spiraea, honeysuckles, mockorange, barberry, coralberry and lilacs may be planted now. The sooner they are planted the better since the replaced soil needs sufficient time to knit the roots with the undisturbed soil area around them before the ground freezes.

Ground corn cobs or strawy, well-decayed manure makes a good mulch to apply after the ground freezes for the winter. Bulky material is best kept a few inches away from the crown of the plant to discourage the operations and probably damage by mice.

Gilbert says it is best to wait until spring to plant such fleshy-rooted plants as magnolia, the sumacs, tulip tree, buddleias, vitex and birch. "If in doubt consult a nurseryman," he advises.

Farm Prices and Taxes Subject Of Farm Meeting

What will be the farmers' economic future in view of rapidly fluctuating prices and violent changes that are taking place in the world will be the subject of discussion by Dr. L. J. Norton of the University of Illinois. "We have had Dr. Norton in farmers' meetings at other times," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes, "and we have always found his analysis of a situation very accurate during times of financial stress, and we believe farmers may profitably take a day off to hear this one discussion alone at the annual meeting Thursday, December 12 at LaGrange, Illinois.

Following Dr. Norton Mr. Geo. O. Fairweather, a Cook County Farm Bureau member and a member of a Cook county tax research organization, will discuss how we use 85% of our property tax money which goes to roads, schools, etc. Mr. Fairweather will present a plan to study such returns and give farmers and others an opportunity to make an analysis of the use of local tax money in our townships. The Farm Bureau is heartily in accord with this movement and its membership and others are urged to hear Mr. Fairweather on this question.

The annual meeting will be called to order at 10 a. m. by President Harvey Adair with the reports on membership, insurance, service company, financial, farm advisers, etc. The new By-laws and Constitution for the Cook County Farm Bureau will be presented for adoption.

One of the important features of the meeting will be a free lunch to members and their wives during the noon hour. Last year the Farm Bureau experimented with a free lunch and it proved to be highly successful. The lunch will be furnished by the Farm Bureau and served by the ladies from Elk Grove and Schaumburg townships.

The Cook County Home Bureau, which is being organized at the present time, will have a place on the program in the person of Mrs. Kathryn Van Aken Burns who is state leader of home advisers. Mrs. Burns will speak on organization and procedure for Home Bureau work. It is hoped that by this time the rest of the few remaining pledges to be signed will have been secured. At this time an organization date for the Home Bureau will be announced in Cook county.

The election of officers for the coming year will complete the business part of the annual meeting.

Illinois Farmers To Have More Cash For 1941

Higher Prices For Farm Products Is Predicted

More net cash income for Illinois farm families in 1941 is predicted by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture in "Illinois Farm Outlook for 1941" just published by the college.

Because of higher prices for farm products, farm receipts will very likely be higher in 1941, although these receipts will be partly offset by higher operating costs, the report explains.

Higher operating costs will be found in prices of farm machinery, automobiles, building materials and other supplies needed by farmers. On the other hand prices of staple foods, cotton and rayon goods and operating expenses for the home will probably be very little if any higher in 1941. Farm wages will average higher, reflecting the absorption of more workers in industry and the taking of more men into the army. More use of farm machinery and mechanical power, including electricity, will be an important factor in keeping production costs down.

The demand for farm products is expected to average appreciably stronger in 1941 than 1940 largely because of higher consumers' incomes resulting from industrial expansion. As a result prices of products consumed largely in this country, such as meats, dairy and poultry products, vegetables and some fruits, will be higher. On the other hand prices of products which enter more extensively into world trade, such as wheat, lard and cotton, will be less favorably affected and will not rise appreciably unless European markets are reopened, supplies are reduced by short crops in 1941 or unless an extensive rise in the general price-level takes place in 1941.

Prices of raw materials and of farm products not now supported by commodity loans will probably advance more rapidly than the average prices of other commodities.

In view of the continued blockade of European ports the outlook for exports of U. S. agricultural products is especially unfavorable. On the other hand exports of industrial products to England are expected to continue at an increasing rate as U. S. industrial plants become better able to supply British needs.

Farm families who have higher incomes in 1941 may well use some of it to pay off debts or to buy essential durable goods that will be paid for within the next year or two, college officials suggested.

Feed supplies are abundant. Including corn under seal and owned by the government, the U. S. supplies of feed grains for each animal unit are larger than for any year since 1921, according to the outlook report.

"As long as the price of corn is supported by government loans, supplies will continue to accumulate in the ever-normal granary until the price of hogs rises enough to make it profitable to feed the surpluses. Including the carryover of 701 million bushels on October 1, the supply for 1940-41 is estimated to be about 3 billion bushels. With 3 to 4 per cent less livestock, principally hogs, to feed than in 1939-40, the carryover of corn in the fall of 1941 may well be as large as it was in the fall of 1940. If the shortage of corn in the eastern corn belt is sufficient to pull corn out of Iowa at the loan price, the price in Illinois will be higher than the loan rate because of the lower freight rates from Illinois to eastern markets.

"Further advance in soybean prices depends chiefly upon higher prices of soybean meal and soybean oil, which in turn are largely dependent upon the prices of competing oils and meals. Total supplies of oilmeal feeds will be larger in 1940-41 than in 1939-40, but supplies of soybean meal will be about the same because of a shorter crop and loss of export outlets. Demand for oilmeals may improve somewhat with the higher prices of livestock and of livestock products."

The total U. S. wheat supply for 1940-41 is 1,076 million bushels, and surpluses may be increased if the growing season is favorable in 1941. With an estimated disappearance of 700 million bushels, the carryover next July will be about 370 million bushels. Allotted acreages for 1941 wheat seedings are the same as in 1940.

Supplies of bluegrass, alfalfa and red and alsike-clover seed are larger than in 1939, and are ample for 1941 seedings. Supplies of redtop, sweet clover and timothy seed are 15 to 20 percent below 1939, but are not considered to be seriously short.

Grape rootworm grubs, which caused so much damage to corn and soybeans on legume sod in 1939 and 1940, will be abundant in 1941. If the spring of 1941 is dry, considerable damage will be caused by chinch bugs in central and north-central Illinois. The European corn borer, now present in a number of Illinois counties, will not cause damage in 1941. Most wheat and shelled corn in farm storage will require fumigation for insect control before 1942.

More than the usual seasonal increase in hog prices is expected early in the spring of 1941 and again late in the summer, when marketings will be reduced because of the 10 per cent smaller 1940 pig crops. Inspected hog slaughter for the marketing year just closed totaled more than 47 million head, the largest in 11 years. Marketings next year will be reduced in the face of stronger demand. As a result hog prices should average considerably higher in 1941.

Consumer demand for beef will be stronger than in 1940. During the first half of 1941, cattle prices will probably average somewhat higher than in the first half of 1940 because of less seasonal decline than usual in prices of the better grades of steers and heifers. Higher costs for corn and cattle to go into feedlots will, however, increase fat-cattle costs, although protein feeds and hay may be cheaper. Since feeders preferred light cattle in the fall of 1940, there will likely be a generous supply of fat cattle late in 1941. Price prospects for 1941 appear to be good on fat cattle of medium to good grades for late winter markets, on common to medium cattle for early spring markets and on choice fat cattle for late summer markets.

Stable slaughter supplies of sheep, improved consumer demand and a rise in wool prices suggest some advance in sheep and lamb prices. Heavy consumption and higher prices of wool are expected to continue in 1941.

Prices of chickens, eggs and turkeys are expected to average higher in the first half of 1941 than in the same period in 1940, largely because of the 4 per cent smaller U. S. supplies and stronger consumer demand. During the remainder of 1940 there will be slightly fewer eggs, smaller supplies of chicken meat and about the same supplies of turkey meat as a year ago.

Somewhat stronger prices for dairy products are in prospect, despite a probably increase in total production and a large carryover of storage stocks. In view of the increase in numbers of cows, total milk production will continue upward as long as feed supplies are ample.

Apples will face serious competition with the citrus crop in 1941, which is expected to be of near record size. The market outlook for apples now in storage, however, is encouraging. During the next few years apple production is expected to be moderately lower, but increases for peaches, pears, strawberries and citrus fruits are in prospect.

General improvement in the income of industrial workers will increase the demand for fresh vegetables. Moderately higher prices should prevail, although increased acreage would tend to offset the effect of higher demand.

Low yields have offset the increased 1940 acreage of sweet corn and tomatoes and made the pack about normal or somewhat below. These crops will probably be in a strong position at contracting time. A continued high acreage may be expected. The 1940 pea pack was above normal, hence no increase in acreage is expected. The 1941 Illinois cannery asparagus acreage will be increased by new plantings coming into harvest. Seed supplies of such vegetable crops as carrots, onions, spinach and cauliflower are short.

In meeting the stronger demand for native Illinois forest products this fall and winter, Illinois farmers are advised by the College of Agriculture to harvest only mature trees, cutting them for logs or selling them as stumpage on a marked-tree basis. Lump-sum selling of timber acreage is more unfavorable to the farmer during periods of high demand, such as 1940-41 is expected to be, than during ordinary times.

Home Bureau To Organize In Cook County Jan. 15 With 350 Members

"The Cook County Home Bureau, which has been in the process of organization for two years," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes, "will be organized January 15 probably at LaGrange. So far there are about 325 members and between now and that time it is expected to sign up the remaining 25 or more members." All of those who signed before organization will be considered as charter members of the Home Bureau.

Mrs. Helen Taylor Butner who has assisted in the organization of the Home Bureau, is setting up the various committees for organization. The Home Bureau will probably maintain one office in the Farm Bureau building at Blue Island and another in the post office at Des Plaines. It will be the business of the newly organized Home Bureau to form a board and to set up working units in the county. The board will have the responsibility of the employment of a home adviser.

The work of a Home Bureau is somewhat different than that of a Farm Bureau in that they do not engage in commercial services but their work is largely educational and informational. There will probably be about fourteen units organized in the county. These units will have monthly meetings with the exception of one or two of the summer months. In the monthly meeting one of the lessons that has been outlined by the University on many home making tasks will be used. These lessons involve many subjects that have to do with a home-maker's work. It may be health, kitchen planning, nutrition, textiles and fabrics, budgets, the arrangement of furniture, refinishing of furniture, and a number of other subjects.

In many of the Home Bureau organizations there are a sizeable number of townswomen belonging. This question has been asked numerous times in Cook county. Any townswomen who are interested in knowing more about home making are eligible for Home Bureau membership. It is expected that the Home Bureau will be organized and ready to begin its monthly meetings by the first of February.

Family Boosts Level Of Living By Wise Planning

Changes in modes of living during the past 20 or 30 years from bending over the wash tub and keeping food in a cool stone cave near the house to running an electric washing machine and taking butter out of the refrigerator might be figured as costing at least $900.

Estimating that whereas in the last generation two bicycles at $60 took the place of the $650 or better automobile of today, Mrs. Ruth Crawford Freeman, home accounts specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, points out such changes mean progress in family living but they also take more planning.

"The washtub, wringer and bench at $5, which is replaced now by the electric washing machine at $75; the carpet sweeper, broom and brushes at $10 in the last generation now replaced by the vacuum cleaner at $50 or more, and the cave for food preservation replaced by the electric refrigerator at $150 are examples of the way civilization has changed from meeting a few simple needs to satisfying complicated wants," Mrs. Freeman said.

"The level of living a family desires, then, goes hand in hand with the amount of financial planning they do. While these major infrequent purchases last over a period of years, it takes real planning and dividing of the dollars to avoid a big dent in the family purse at the time of buying."

By setting down short-time and long-time goals in black and white on paper, families can make it easier to think through their problems and desires and formulate a way of reaching their goals, Mrs. Freeman pointed out.

Iroquois Ahead In Use of Rock Phosphate

Iroquois county farmers applied 500 tons of rock phosphate to their soil to increase its fertility during September to set an all-time high for one month's spreading of this fertilizer in any one Illinois county.

Reasons for the record tonnage spread in the county are the emphasis placed on use of phosphate by Farm Adviser H. D. VanMatre through soil-testing meetings, and the convenient system for trucking and spreading the fertilizer. The rock phosphate is shipped in bulk, and the difference in price between bulk and sacked phosphate takes care of the cost of trucking and spreading it on the land. The trucks are equipped with the regular rock phosphate spreaders which make it possible to spread with a minimum loss from blowing.

Most of the Iroquois county farmers who are using phosphate have already applied limestone where the soil needed it and have been growing soil-building clovers. Naturally the next step in their conservation program is the application of rock phosphate to replenish the phosphorus supply of the soil which has been depleted thru many years of hard farming.

Illinois Farmers To Have More Cash For 1941

Higher Prices For Farm Products Is Predicted

More net cash income for Illinois farm families in 1941 is predicted by the University of Illinois College of Agriculture in "Illinois Farm Outlook for 1941" just published by the college.

Because of higher prices for farm products, farm receipts will very likely be higher in 1941, although these receipts will be partly offset by higher operating costs, the report explains.

Higher operating costs will be found in prices of farm machinery, automobiles, building materials and other supplies needed by farmers. Farm wages will average higher, reflecting the absorption of more workers in industry and the taking of more men into the army. Prices of raw materials and of farm products not now supported by commodity loans will probably advance more rapidly than the average prices of other commodities.

In view of the continued blockade of European ports the outlook for exports of U. S. agricultural products is especially unfavorable. On the other hand exports of industrial products to England are expected to continue at an increasing rate as U. S. industrial plants become better able to supply British needs.

Farm families who have higher incomes in 1941 may well use some of it to pay off debts or to buy essential durable goods that will be paid for within the next year or two, college officials suggested.

Total supplies of oilmeal feeds will be larger in 1940-41 than in 1939-40, but supplies of soybean meal will be about the same because of a shorter crop and loss of export outlets. Demand for oilmeals may improve somewhat with the higher prices of livestock and of livestock products."

The total U. S. wheat supply for 1940-41 is 1,076 million bushels, and surpluses may be increased if the growing season is favorable in 1941. With an estimated disappearance of 700 million bushels, the carryover next July will be about 370 million bushels. Allotted acreages for 1941 wheat seedings are the same as in 1940.

Supplies of bluegrass, alfalfa and red and alsike-clover seed are larger than in 1939, and are ample for 1941 seedings. Supplies of red-top, sweet clover and timothy seed are 15 to 20 percent below 1939, but are not considered to be seriously short.

Grape rootworm grubs, which caused so much damage to corn and soybeans on legume sod in 1939 and 1940, will be abundant in 1941. If the spring of 1941 is dry, considerable damage will be caused by chinch bugs in central and north-central Illinois. The European corn borer, now present in a number of Illinois counties, will not cause damage in 1941. Most wheat and shelled corn in farm storage will require fumigation for insect control before 1942.

More than the usual seasonal increase in hog prices is expected early in the spring of 1941 and again late in the summer, when marketings will be reduced because of the 10 per cent smaller 1940 pig crops. Inspected hog slaughter for the marketing year just closed totaled more than 47 million head, the largest in 11 years. Marketings next year will be reduced in the face of stronger demand. As a result hog prices should average considerably higher in 1941.

Consumer demand for beef will be stronger than in 1940. During the first half of 1941, cattle prices will probably average somewhat higher than in the first half of 1940 because of less seasonal decline than usual in prices of the better grades of steers and heifers. Higher costs for corn and cattle to go into feedlots will, however, increase fat-cattle costs, although protein feeds and hay may be cheaper. Since feeders preferred light cattle in the fall of 1940, there will likely be a generous supply of fat cattle late in 1941. Price prospects for 1941 appear to be good on fat cattle of medium to good grades for late winter markets, on common to medium cattle for early spring markets and on choice fat cattle for late summer markets.

Stable slaughter supplies of sheep, improved consumer demand and a rise in wool prices suggest some advance in sheep and lamb prices. Heavy consumption and higher prices of wool are expected to continue in 1941.

Prices of chickens, eggs and turkeys are expected to average higher in the first half of 1941 than in the same period in 1940, largely because of the 4 per cent smaller U. S. supplies and stronger consumer demand. During the remainder of 1940 there will be slightly fewer eggs, smaller supplies of chicken meat and about the same supplies of turkey meat as a year ago.

Somewhat stronger prices for dairy products are in prospect, despite a probably increase in total production and a large carryover of storage stocks. In view of the increase in numbers of cows, total milk production will continue upward as long as feed supplies are ample.

Apples will face serious competition with the citrus crop in 1941, which is expected to be of near record size. The market outlook for apples now in storage, however, is encouraging. During the next few years apple production is expected to be moderately lower, but increases for peaches, pears, strawberries and citrus fruits are in prospect.

General improvement in the income of industrial workers will increase the demand for fresh vegetables. Moderately higher prices should prevail, although increased acreage would tend to offset the effect of higher demand.

Low yields have offset the increased 1940 acreage of sweet corn and tomatoes and made the pack about normal or somewhat below. These crops will probably be in a strong position at contracting time. A continued high acreage may be expected. The 1940 pea pack was above normal, hence no increase in acreage is expected. The 1941 Illinois cannery asparagus acreage will be increased by new plantings coming into harvest. Seed supplies of such vegetable crops as carrots, onions, spinach and cauliflower are short.

In meeting the stronger demand for native Illinois forest products this fall and winter, Illinois farmers are advised by the College of Agriculture to harvest only mature trees, cutting them for logs or selling them as stumpage on a marked-tree basis. Lump-sum selling of timber acreage is more unfavorable to the farmer during periods of high demand, such as 1940-41 is expected to be, than during ordinary times.

Home Bureau To Organize In Cook County Jan. 15 With 350 Members

"The Cook County Home Bureau, which has been in the process of organization for two years," states Farm Adviser C. A. Hughes, "will be organized January 15 probably at LaGrange. So far there are about 325 members and between now and that time it is expected to sign up the remaining 25 or more members." All of those who signed before organization will be considered as charter members of the Home Bureau.

Mrs. Helen Taylor Butner who has assisted in the organization of the Home Bureau, is setting up the various committees for organization. The Home Bureau will probably maintain one office in the Farm Bureau building at Blue Island and another in the post office at Des Plaines. It will be the business of the newly organized Home Bureau to form a board and to set up working units in the county. The board will have the responsibility of the employment of a home adviser.

The work of a Home Bureau is somewhat different than that of a Farm Bureau in that they do not engage in commercial services but their work is largely educational and informational. There will probably be about fourteen units organized in the county. These units will have monthly meetings with the exception of one or two of the summer months. In the monthly meeting one of the lessons that has been outlined by the University on many home making tasks will be used. These lessons involve many subjects that have to do with a home-maker's work. It may be health, kitchen planning, nutrition, textiles and fabrics, budgets, the arrangement of furniture, refinishing of furniture, and a number of other subjects.

In many of the Home Bureau organizations there are a sizeable number of townswomen belonging. This question has been asked numerous times in Cook county. Any townswomen who are interested in knowing more about home making are eligible for Home Bureau membership. It is expected that the Home Bureau will be organized and ready to begin its monthly meetings by the first of February.

Family Boosts Level Of Living By Wise Planning

Changes in modes of living during the past 20 or 30 years, from bending over the wash tub and keeping food in a cool stone cave near the house to running an electric washing machine and taking butter out of the refrigerator might be figured as costing at least $900.

Estimating that whereas in the last generation two bicycles at $60 took the place of the $650 or better automobile of today, Mrs. Ruth Crawford Freeman, home accounts specialist, University of Illinois College of Agriculture, points out such changes mean progress in family living but they also take more planning.

"The washtub, wringer and bench at $5, which is replaced now by the electric washing machine at $75; the carpet sweeper, broom and brushes at $10 in the last generation now replaced by the vacuum cleaner at $50 or more, and the cave for food preservation replaced by the electric refrigerator at $150 are examples of the way civilization has changed from meeting a few simple needs to satisfying complicated wants," Mrs. Freeman said.

"The level of living a family desires, then, goes hand in hand with the amount of financial planning they do. While these major infrequent purchases last over a period of years, it takes real planning and dividing of the dollars to avoid a big dent in the family purse at the time of buying."

By setting down short-time and long-time goals in black and white on paper, families can make it easier to think through their problems and desires and formulate a way of reaching their goals, Mrs. Freeman pointed out.

Iroquois Ahead In Use of Rock Phosphate

Iroquois county farmers applied 500 tons of rock phosphate to their soil to increase its fertility during September to set an all-time high for one month's spreading of this fertilizer in any one Illinois county.

Reasons for the record tonnage spread in the county are the emphasis placed on use of phosphate by Farm Adviser H. D. VanMatre through soil-testing meetings, and the convenient system for trucking and spreading the fertilizer. The rock phosphate is shipped in bulk, and the difference in price between bulk and sacked phosphate takes care of the cost of trucking and spreading it on the land. The trucks are equipped with the regular rock phosphate spreaders which make it possible to spread with a minimum loss from blowing.

Most of the Iroquois county farmers who are using phosphate have already applied limestone where the soil needed it and have been growing soil-building clovers. Naturally the next step in their conservation program is the application of rock phosphate to replenish the phosphorus supply of the soil which has been depleted thru many years of hard farming.

Early Life of Christ

Apart from the scriptures themselves there is no historical and little traditional record of the life of Christ between the ages of 12 and 30 years, when his ministry commenced. There are traditions that during this time he visited India and the British isles, but these rumors are exceedingly valueless so far as an actual historical record is concerned.

Interruptions Hinder Intelligent Reading

TO read anything well, we have to use our minds. But the process of reading does not go on in a vacuum. The external and antecedent conditions may be either favorable or unfavorable.

"As all the well-mannered externals of dining are an aid to digestion," comments Mortimer J. Adler in the December issue of Good Housekeeping, "so a well-arranged occasion for reading facilitates the mental exercise a good book requires." Mr. Adler, whose "How to Read a Book" has aided countless thousands, now has some suggestions to make preliminary to reading.

Before you start, spend some time selecting a book, and save time wasted in irritation. But don't be a butterfly, he admonishes. Pick one book to read, and not half a dozen to toy with. Be sure too, that you have the right chair for the book, unless you're planning to go to sleep.

Once you've started reading, nothing should interrupt. If a radio program is worth listening to, why not read some other time? Conversation is pleasant but why inject competition into your reading? Lastly Mr. Adler warns, don't read with one eye on the clock, for there is no timetable for reading.

Early Life of Christ

Apart from the scriptures themselves there is no historical and little traditional record of the life of Christ between the ages of 12 and 30 years, when his ministry commenced. There are traditions that during this time he visited India and the British isles, but these rumors are exceedingly valueless so far as an actual historical record is concerned.

Interruptions Hinder Intelligent Reading

TO read anything well, we have to use our minds. But the process of reading does not go on in a vacuum. The external and antecedent conditions may be either favorable or unfavorable.

"As all the well-mannered externals of dining are an aid to digestion," comments Mortimer J. Adler in the December issue of Good Housekeeping, "so a well-arranged occasion for reading facilitates the mental exercise a good book requires." Mr. Adler, whose "How to Read a Book" has aided countless thousands, now has some suggestions to make preliminary to reading.

Before you start, spend some time selecting a book, and save time wasted in irritation. But don't be a butterfly, he admonishes. Pick one book to read, and not half a dozen to toy with. Be sure too, that you have the right chair for the book, unless you're planning to go to sleep.

Once you've started reading, nothing should interrupt. If a radio program is worth listening to, why not read some other time? Conversation is pleasant but why inject competition into your reading? Lastly Mr. Adler warns, don't read with one eye on the clock, for there is no time-table for reading.

Arlington, Bensenville Seek First Victories From Crystal Lake, Northbrook

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

We believe that a correction and an explanation are in order concerning Saturday's game between Crane Tech and Palatine. According to the score in the Chicago papers the game was forfeited to Palatine 2-0. There should be a correction on this as the forfeited score was 30-26. The basis for this correction is rule 9, section 4, of the official high school rules which is as follows:

"A team shall forfeit the game if it refuses to play after being instructed to do so by the Referee. If the team to which the game is forfeited is ahead, the score at the time of the forfeiture shall stand. If this team is not ahead the score shall be recorded as 2-0 in its favor." Palatine was leading 30-26 at the time that the game was officially forfeited and there was less than two minutes left to be played.

An Explanation

We are here giving an explanation of the situation which resulted in the forfeiture of the game as many fans who saw it did not realize exactly what transpired and others may be interested. The case in question came with exactly one minute and 47 seconds of play remaining. It was Crane's ball out of bounds under the Palatine basket. The ball was thrown in but deflected by a Palatine boy who was standing too close to the Crane passer.

Tommy Kouzmanoff, umpire of the game, signaled time out and gave the ball to the Crane boy for another throw. While this was going on Palatine called time out. The Crane coach came on the court at this point and protested to Kouzmanoff concerning the right of Palatine to have the time out. Robert Ballard, the referee, called a technical foul on the Crane coach for coming on the court and reported that the officials were addressed in very disrespectful language.

The Crane coach refused to leave the floor and allow his boys to finish the game though they asked permission to do so. Robert Ballard finally declared the game a forfeit.

This is the explanation of the case as given to us by the officials after the game. The Crane coach claimed to have been given a sign that he might go on the court but Tommy Kouzmanoff denied having even seen the coach at that particular time until he was addressing him at close range.

Officiating Was Strict

We are truly sorry that something of this kind happened to mar a hard fought, well played, ball game. The officials spoke well of the attitude of the Crane players. The officiating was strict and naturally Palatine playing a rushing man for man defense was charged with many more fouls than Crane playing a close zone. The close calling, however, cut down on the scrambling on the floor which has characterized some of the recent games and kept the contest from getting rough. Palatine fans were not used to the rather open and frequent cases of coaching from the sidelines and took exception to it, but we understand that is quite common practice in the city league.

Teams Were Entertained

Harry Kincaid, president of the Palatine board and teacher at Crane Tech arranged for Saturday's games. He also helped finance the lunch that was served in the cafeteria for the players of the two schools after the games. In view of his efforts it is unfortunate that the visit of Crane to Palatine could not have been a more pleasant one.

Hot Shooting Streak

Palatine's double success in beating both Northbrook and Crane last week-end was due more than anything else to unusual basket shooting. The number of attempted shots was unusually low and the percentage of hits very high. In both games Palatine attempted 40 shots making 15 against Northbrook for 37.5% and 12 against Crane for an even 30%. In other respects Palatine's playing still leaves much to be desired.

Leyden On Rampage

Those Leyden Eagles at Franklin Park are really setting a fast pace in the Northeast loop with 106 points in two games. They will take on tougher defensive foes from now on with Libertyville their opponent this week. We see Leyden over Libertyville, Arlington beating Crystal Lake, Niles taking Warren, and Woodstock trimming Lake Forest in the Northeast this week. Woodstock and Lake Forest will be battling to retain their undefeated status and keep pace with Leyden.

In the Northwest loop the edge seems to be with Palatine at Barrington, Wauconda as host to Antioch, Ela at Grant and Northbrook in their game with Bensenville. Last week we picked all Northwest winners but slipped on two in the Northeast. The record to date is 11 right and five wrong.

Name Tournament Centers

Announcement from the state office names Waukegan, Woodstock, Glenbard, West Aurora, Bloom, DeKalb, and East Rockford as regional centers in this end of the state. Sectional centers named in Northern Illinois are Waukegan, West Rockford, Joliet, and LaSalle-Peru.

The quarter final tournaments to pick the best four to meet at Champaign, will be held at Elgin, Centralia, Peoria, and Springfield. Probably the winners of the sectional tournaments at Rockford, Waukegan, and Joliet along with the Chicago champ will compete at Elgin.

Bensenville Loses 16-9

In a game marked with poor offensive drive, the Barrington high school Broncho basketball team earned its first conference victory of the season at Bensenville Friday by a score of 16 to 9.

Barrington was strong on defense, holding the Bensenville Bison attack down with a man to man defense but the Bronchos were equally weak in their offense, only scoring five baskets in 55 attempts. Langdale was high point man, getting three of the baskets and one free throw. Gutnik scored all but one of Bensenville's total, Bauman getting one free throw.

Barrington Lights eked out their fourth consecutive win of the year and their second conference victory by beating the Bensenville lightweights, 15 to 13. The Ponies had a difficult time in getting their offense to click, but they finally worked up enough pressure to nose out their opponents.

Leyden Doubles Score On Warren 55-25, In Another One-Sided Game

Leyden swamped Warren Friday for their second top heavy score in a row 55-25. The Eagles led 18-8 at the quarter, 28-10 at the half and 51-23 at the third rest period. Leyden reserves played all the last quarter. Height and the hitting of 22 shots in 65 attempts were the deciding factors.

Leyden also won the lightweight game 26-17 making nine field goals eight out of 16 free throws and 15 fouls. Warren had six baskets, five out of 18 charity tosses and 10 foul penalties. Lofgren had 11 points and Steingraber eight for the winners. Doyle made seven for the losers.

Lake Forest Scores Over Arlington, 31-20

Cards Hold Lead During Most Of First Half

Lake Forest won a well-earned victory over Arlington Heights in a Northeast Conference basketball game last Friday at Lake Forest.

The Scouts trailed through thirteen minutes of the first half, but took the lead then and never lost it again.

The Arlington Cardinals led 9 to 4 at the close of the first quarter, largely as a result of some good rebound work by Becker and Harth. Larson and Lohman had a basket apiece during that period. In the second quarter, Lightbody, of Lake Forest got two one-hand shots from the free-throw circle, where he scored five times during the game. Lohman, Eul and Kellner also scored field goals as the Lake Forest team hit a very warm fifty per cent of its shots in that quarter. Meanwhile the Cardinals were missing fourteen shots and making none. The half ended with Lake Forest leading 15-10.

The third quarter was almost a repetition of the second for the Cardinals as they made one basket in eleven shots. The Scouts did a worse job of shooting, hitting one of sixteen tries. They made two free throws, however, to none by Arlington, making the score 19-12 at the end of the third quarter.

Both teams played much better ball in the fourth quarter and hit a better percentage of their shots. Arlington made three field goals in ten shots and Lake Forest six out of eighteen. The Cardinals also made two free throws. Lightbody was the big gun in this period, making his last three baskets on successive tries from the outer edge of the free throw circle. All were one-hand shots of the pivot variety. Larson scored a rebound while Eul and Lohman hit once each from the field.

Both teams worked hard at set offenses throughout the game and frequently exhibited some well-executed screen plays which resulted in open shots. Inconsistent shooting and some very loose officiating affected the game considerably. Holding, especially under the basket, was frequent as both teams tried hard for the ball, but drew only two penalties in the entire game. To the credit of the boys on both teams it should be said that there was not a single case of intentional roughness.

The junior-varsity game was won by Lake Forest 14-9 when neither team was able to put up a consistent offense. In the second quarter Lake Forest outscored Arlington 6-1, which was the margin of difference at the finish. Arlington made two baskets in thirty-four shots.

Antioch Just Lasts To Beat Grant, 30-28; Still Undefeated

Antioch remained in a tie for first place in the Northwest Conference race by trimming Grant 30-28 in a close battle last week. The Sequoits of Antioch held a 21-13 lead at the half, but Grant narrowed the margin to 23-22 in the third period and gave the winners real competition in the closing minutes. Grant's lightweights won their second victory 22-19.

Palatine Travels To Barrington One Time Jinx

Cardinals 'At Home' To '39 Champions; Bisons On Road

Hayes' winless Arlington fives are going to make a real bid for victories Friday when they are host to Crystal Lake. The Lakers, who last year won the title in both divisions, are having their troubles. The varsity, like Arlington, is still gunning for its first victory while the lights have a lone triumph over Libertyville.

Palatine and Bensenville will both be on the road this week. The Pirates, who have an imposing string of victories, travel to Barrington Friday in a Northwest conference double bill and on Saturday trek to Skokie to play Niles on their big court in the new million dollar high school. Bensenville on the other hand is like Arlington in their guest for victories and will have mighty tough going in the varsity game at Northbrook Friday, but are pretty sure winners in the lightweight game.

Traditional Rivals Meet

When Palatine and Barrington meet it is always a battle royal. Last year the game at Barrington was the highlight of the season and broke a jinx that has followed Palatine teams when playing on the Broncho court. This year the Pirates appear to be stronger and Barrington weaker than the past seasons. The Bronchos who have only a victory over Bensenville to their credit would love nothing more than to upset the Pirates and are likely to be a lot tougher opponents than their record indicates. The lightweight game at least will be a battle for first place honors as the junior Pirates and Barrington's Ponies are both undefeated in conference games. Coach McElroy rates Barrington as the strongest lightweight foe the Palatine boys will meet in the league, so if they have any title hopes they will rest on this game. Unless they pep up more than at Northbrook it will be a Barrington victory, however.

Play at Niles Saturday

Saturday at Niles the Palatine teams will meet teams which may be on a par with the strong Crane quintets which they played last Saturday night. Niles beat Arlington by 13 points and is rated one of the best clubs in the Northeast Conference. The Trojans recently beat New Trier in both games of a double header. Quite a number of fans are expected to follow the Pirates to Barrington and Niles on their week-end basketball expeditions.

Niles and Woodstock Split Double Header In 37-36, 30-28 Game

Niles and Woodstock split a pair of thrillers at Skokie last Friday. Woodstock won the varsity tilt 37-36 while Niles came from behind to take the lightweight game 30-28.

Niles could not stop the combination of Dibler, Joorpetz, and Seagrist in the big game. The score at the half was 22 all and tied at 31 starting the final eight minutes. Podraza led Niles with 13 points while Dibler scored 14 for Woodstock.

Woodstock led in the preliminary until in the last period holding a 15-9 advantage at the half. Domas scored 13 points for Niles.

Libertyville Wins First Conference Game At Expense Of Crystal Lake

Libertyville won their first Northeast conference victory from Crystal Lake Friday, taking the varsity cage game on the Lakers court 32-27. The score was tied 18 all in a close first half, but the Wildcats pulled out to a 26-20 third period advantage and held on to the finish.

With Kaitchnick making 16 points and Eibish 11, the Laker lights won the preliminary 36-31. Eiserman had 10 points for Libertyville and Hanett had eight.

City Champs Meet Their Waterloo At Palatine

Crane Tech Behind All The Way As Pirates Win 30-26

Crane Tech of Chicago, a school of 6500 boys, found out Saturday night that they play a pretty good brand of ball out in the little Northwest conference. The Chicago champs were beaten by Palatine 30-26 in a game which was forfeited in the last two minutes of play by the refusal of the Crane coach to finish the game. Crane took the lightweight game 32-19 with a fine display of shooting and passing.

Pirates Lead All the Way

The city champs of last season, with three returning players, found Palatine plenty tough and trailed all the way. At the quarter the score was 10-6 and it was 22-14 at the half. Crane rallied in the third period on fine work by their star center Zuber and the score was still favoring the Pirates 27-23 at the beginning of the last period.

Stall in Last Quarter

With DeBerge out on fouls and both Hollinger and Hildebrandt having three each the Pirates played safe and held the ball in an effort to force Crane's zone defense to shift to man to man. Crane refused to move out until there were about three minutes to play and then Hahnfeldt promptly scored to practically sew up the game. With one minute and 47 seconds to play the Crane coach came on the floor to protest a decision on the part of the officials and was penalized with a technical foul. The foul was never shot as the coach refused to leave the court and continue the game. The referee Robert Ballard forfeited the contest to Palatine at that point.

Best Performance of Season

Hollinger and Hahnfeldt scored 11 and 10 points respectively for Palatine, as the boys shot from the weak spots in Crane's zone. The team, as a whole, played the best ball of the season to date though over anxiousness cost the team its full strength in the second half due to fouls. Zuber, leading scorer of last year's Crane team, topped the visitors with 12 points.

Crane Lights Win 32-19

After a first half which was very close with Crane leading 14-12 the visiting lightweight team set a fast pace and hit from all angles on long and short shots to whip the junior Pirates 32-19. Corgilione and Blasucci set the pace for Crane. Salvo and Howes scored seven points apiece for Palatine. After Howes went out on fouls Palatine's defensive rebounding fell off and Crane piled up the score. Little Hartman got in the game in the last period and immediately sank a neat basket just as he did at Northbrook the previous night.

Palatine To Compete In De Kalb Holiday Cage Tournament

Palatine has accepted an invitation to compete in the DeKalb high school holiday basketball tournament. The tournament will start Thursday, December 26 and end Saturday night, December 28. It will be played on the court of the Northern Illinois State Teachers College. According to reports the number of teams this year will be restricted as compared with other years. Just who will be entered is not known at this time. Last year the tourney was won by Waterman and the same school will again make a strong bid. Usually quite a number of schools from the West Suburban League and the Little Eight are in the tournament.

Wauconda Beats Ela In Last Quarter Rally

Wauconda and Ela, rivals of long standing, met on the Wauconda court Friday in a pair of very close contests with Wauconda taking the first team game 34-25 with a big last quarter rally and Ela nosing out a 16-15 victory in the preliminary.

The Bulldogs had only a 21-20 lead on the Ela Bears going into the final period but tallied 13 points to their opponents' five. Ela's big quarter was the third when they scored 14 points. Oswald and Froehlke led the Wauconda attack with 10 and eight points respectively. Kropp of Ela kept the Bears in the ball game with 16 points of which 14 came in the second half.

In the lightweight game Ela led 9-6 at the half, but Wauconda went ahead 14-11 in the third period. Baskets by Gleason and Holland won for Ela in the final segment. Harris made seven points for Wauconda and Rudsinski had six for Ela.

Palatine Beats Northbrook By 39-17 Score

Palatine's cagers remained on top in both divisions of the Northwest conference by defeating the Northbrook Vikings 39-17 in the varsity game and 29-9 in the lightweight encounter last Friday evening.

The Pirate varsity did not play particularly good ball from the stand point of passing, but they did hit 15 goals in 40 attempts while Northbrook was making but six out of 55 many of which were of the long and hurried variety.

The Palatine regulars piled up a 11-4 lead the first quarter and were ahead 19-9 and 30-14 at the other quarter rest periods. The reserve five took over in the final period and outscored the Vikings 9-3 with Schwolow, a junior, leading the attack with eight points. Scoring was evenly divided among the Palatine players. The Strauss brothers played best for Northbrook. Santucci and Klein who scored 18 points in the defeat of Barrington the previous week failed to tally a single point. Palatine's lightweights played such poor ball that Coach McElroy used freshmen boys all the second period. The half time score was 8-4.

Arlington, Bensenville Seek First Victories From Crystal Lake, Northbrook

by GERALD A. MC ELROY

We believe that a correction and an explanation are in order concerning Saturday's game between Crane Tech and Palatine. According to the score in the Chicago papers the game was forfeited to Palatine 2-0. There should be a correction on this as the forfeited score was 30-26. The basis for this correction is rule 9, section 4, of the official high school rules which is as follows:

"A team shall forfeit the game if it refuses to play after being instructed to do so by the Referee. If the team to which the game is forfeited is ahead, the score at the time of the forfeiture shall stand. If this team is not ahead the score shall be recorded as 2-0 in its favor." Palatine was leading 30-26 at the time that the game was officially forfeited and there was less than two minutes left to be played.

An Explanation

We are here giving an explanation of the situation which resulted in the forfeiture of the game as many fans who saw it did not realize exactly what transpired and others may be interested. The case in question came with exactly one minute and 47 seconds of play remaining. It was Crane's ball out of bounds under the Palatine basket. The ball was thrown in but deflected by a Palatine boy who was standing too close to the Crane passer.

Tommy Kouzmanoff, umpire of the game, signaled time out and gave the ball to the Crane boy for another throw. While this was going on Palatine called time out. The Crane coach came on the court at this point and protested to Kouzmanoff concerning the right of Palatine to have the time out. Robert Ballard, the referee, called a technical foul on the Crane coach for coaching on the court and reported that the officials were addressed in very disrespectful language.

The Crane coach refused to leave the floor and allow his boys to finish the game though they asked permission to do so. Robert Ballard finally declared the game a forfeit.

This is the explanation of the case as given to us by the officials after the game. The Crane coach claimed to have been given a sign that he might go on the court but Tommy Kouzmanoff denied having even seen the coach at that particular time until he was addressing him at close range.

Officiating Was Strict

We are truly sorry that something of this kind happened to mar a hard fought, well played, ball game. The officials spoke well of the attitude of the Crane players. The officiating was strict and naturally Palatine playing a rushing man for man defense was charged with many more fouls than Crane playing a close zone. The close calling, however, cut down on the scrambling on the floor which has characterized some of the recent games and kept the contest from getting rough. Palatine fans were not used to the rather open and frequent cases of coaching from the sidelines and took exception to it, but we understand that is quite common practice in the city league.

Teams Were Entertained

Harry Kincaid, president of the Palatine board and teacher at Crane Tech arranged for Saturday's games. He also helped finance the lunch that was served in the cafeteria for the players of the two schools after the games. In view of his efforts it is unfortunate that the visit of Crane to Palatine could not have been a more pleasant one.

Hot Shooting Streak

Palatine's double success in beating both Northbrook and Crane last week-end was due more than anything else to unusual basket shooting. The number of attempted shots was unusually low and the percentage of hits very high. In both games Palatine attempted 40 shots making 15 against Northbrook for 37.5% and 12 against Crane for an even 30%. In other respects Palatine's playing still leaves much to be desired.

Leyden On Rampage

Those Leyden Eagles at Franklin Park are really setting a fast pace in the Northeast loop with 106 points in two games. They will take on tougher defensive foes from now on with Libertyville their opponent this week. We see Leyden over Libertyville, Arlington beating Crystal Lake, Niles taking Warren, and Woodstock trimming Lake Forest in the Northeast this week. Woodstock and Lake Forest will be battling to retain their undefeated status and keep pace with Leyden.

In the Northwest loop the edge seems to be with Palatine at Barrington, Wauconda as host to Antioch, Ela at Grant and Northbrook in their game with Bensenville. Last week we picked all Northwest winners but slipped on two in the Northeast. The record to date is 11 right and five wrong.

Name Tournament Centers

Announcement from the state office names Waukegan, Woodstock, Glenbard, West Aurora, Bloom, DeKalb, and East Rockford as regional centers in this end of the state. Sectional centers named in Northern Illinois are Waukegan, West Rockford, Joliet, and LaSalle-Peru.

The quarter final tournaments to pick the best four to meet at Champaign, will be held at Elgin, Centralia, Peoria, and Springfield. Probably the winners of the sectional tournaments at Rockford, Waukegan, and Joliet along with the Chicago champ will compete at Elgin.

Bensenville Loses 16-9

In a game marked with poor offensive drive, the Barrington high school Broncho basketball team earned its first conference victory of the season at Bensenville Friday by a score of 16 to 9.

Barrington was strong on defense, holding the Bensenville Bison attack down with a man to man defense but the Bronchos were equally weak in their offense, only scoring five baskets in 55 attempts. Langdale was high point man, getting three of the baskets and one free throw. Gutnik scored all but one of Bensenville's total, Bauman getting one free throw.

Barrington Lights eked out their fourth consecutive win of the year and their second conference victory by beating the Bensenville lightweights, 15 to 13. The Ponies had a difficult time in getting their offense to click, but they finally worked up enough pressure to nose out their opponents.

Leyden Doubles Score On Warren 55-25, In Another One-Sided Game

Leyden swamped Warren Friday for their second top heavy score in a row 55-25. The Eagles led 18-8 at the quarter, 28-10 at the half and 51-23 at the third rest period. Leyden reserves played all the last quarter. Height and the hitting of 22 shots in 65 attempts were the deciding factors.

Leyden also won the lightweight game 26-17 making nine field goals eight out of 16 free throws and 15 fouls. Warren had six baskets, five out of 18 charity tosses and 10 foul penalties. Lofgren had 11 points and Steingraber eight for the winners. Doyle made seven for the losers.

Lake Forest Scores Over Arlington, 31-20

Cards Hold Lead During Most Of First Half

Lake Forest won a well-earned victory over Arlington Heights in a Northeast Conference basketball game last Friday at Lake Forest.

The Scouts trailed through thirteen minutes of the first half, but took the lead then and never lost it again.

The Arlington Cardinals led 9 to 4 at the close of the first quarter, largely as a result of some good rebound work by Becker and Harth. Larson and Lohman had a basket apiece during that period. In the second quarter, Lightbody, of Lake Forest got two one-hand shots from the free-throw circle, where he scored five times during the game. Lohman, Eul and Kellner also scored field goals as the Lake Forest team hit a very warm fifty per cent of its shots in that quarter. Meanwhile the Cardinals were missing fourteen shots and making none. The half ended with Lake Forest leading 15-10.

The third quarter was almost a repetition of the second for the Cardinals as they made one basket in eleven shots. The Scouts did a worse job of shooting, hitting one of sixteen tries. They made two free throws, however, to none by Arlington, making the score 19-12 at the end of the third quarter.

Both teams played much better ball in the fourth quarter and hit a better percentage of their shots. Arlington made three field goals in ten shots and Lake Forest six out of eighteen. The Cardinals also made two free throws. Lightbody was the big gun in this period, making his last three baskets on successive tries from the outer edge of the free throw circle. All were one-hand shots of the pivot variety. Larson scored a rebound while Eul and Lohman hit once each from the field.

Both teams worked hard at set offenses throughout the game and frequently exhibited some well-executed screen plays which resulted in open shots. Inconsistent shooting and some very loose officiating affected the game considerably. Holding, especially under the basket, was frequent as both teams tried hard for the ball, but drew only two penalties in the entire game. To the credit of the boys on both teams it should be said that there was not a single case of intentional roughness.

The junior-varsity game was won by Lake Forest 14-9 when neither team was able to put up a consistent offense. In the second quarter Lake Forest outscored Arlington 6-1, which was the margin of difference at the finish. Arlington made two baskets in thirty-four shots.

Antioch Just Lasts To Beat Grant, 30-28; Still Undefeated

Antioch remained in a tie for first place in the Northwest Conference race by trimming Grant 30-28 in a close battle last week. The Sequoits of Antioch held a 21-13 lead at the half, but Grant narrowed the margin to 23-22 in the third period and gave the winners real competition in the closing minutes. Grant's lightweights won their second victory 22-19.

Palatine Travels To Barrington One Time Jinx

Cardinals 'At Home' To '39 Champions; Bisons On Road

Hayes' winless Arlington fives are going to make a real bid for victories Friday when they are host to Crystal Lake. The Lakers, who last year won the title in both divisions, are having their troubles. The varsity, like Arlington, is still gunning for its first victory while the lights have a lone triumph over Libertyville.

Palatine and Bensenville will both be on the road this week. The Pirates, who have an imposing string of victories, travel to Barrington Friday in a Northwest conference double bill and on Saturday trek to Skokie to play Niles on their big court in the new million dollar high school. Bensenville on the other hand is like Arlington in their guest for victories and will have mighty tough going in the varsity game at Northbrook Friday, but are pretty sure winners in the lightweight game.

Traditional Rivals Meet

When Palatine and Barrington meet it is always a battle royal. Last year the game at Barrington was the highlight of the season and broke a jinx that has followed Palatine teams when playing on the Broncho court. This year the Pirates appear to be stronger and Barrington weaker than the past seasons. The Bronchos who have only a victory over Bensenville to their credit would love nothing more than to upset the Pirates and are likely to be a lot tougher opponents than their record indicates. The lightweight game at least will be a battle for first place honors as the junior Pirates and Barrington's Ponies are both undefeated in conference games. Coach McElroy rates Barrington as the strongest lightweight foe the Palatine boys will meet in the league, so if they have any title hopes they will rest on this game. Unless they pep up more than at Northbrook it will be a Barrington victory, however.

Play at Niles Saturday

Saturday at Niles the Palatine teams will meet teams which may be on a par with the strong Crane quintets which they played last Saturday night. Niles beat Arlington by 13 points and is rated one of the best clubs in the Northeast Conference. The Trojans recently beat New Trier in both games of a double header. Quite a number of fans are expected to follow the Pirates to Barrington and Niles on their week-end basketball expeditions.

Niles and Woodstock Split Double Header In 37-36, 30-28 Game

Niles and Woodstock split a pair of thrillers at Skokie last Friday. Woodstock won the varsity tilt 37-36 while Niles came from behind to take the lightweight game 30-28.

Niles could not stop the combination of Dibler, Joorpetz, and Seagrist in the big game. The score at the half was 22 all and tied at 31 starting the final eight minutes. Podraza led Niles with 13 points while Dibler scored 14 for Woodstock.

Woodstock led in the preliminary until in the last period holding a 15-9 advantage at the half. Domas scored 13 points for Niles.

Libertyville Wins First Conference Game At Expense Of Crystal Lake

Libertyville won their first Northeast conference victory from Crystal Lake Friday, taking the varsity cage game on the Lakers court 32-27. The score was tied 18 all in a close first half, but the Wildcats pulled out to a 26-20 third period advantage and held on to the finish.

With Kaitchnick making 16 points and Eibish 11, the Laker lights won the preliminary 36-31. Eiserman had 10 points for Libertyville and Hanett had eight.

City Champs Meet Their Waterloo At Palatine

Crane Tech Behind All The Way As Pirates Win 30-26

Crane Tech of Chicago, a school of 6500 boys, found out Saturday night that they play a pretty good brand of ball out in the little Northwest conference. The Chicago champs were beaten by Palatine 30-26 in a game which was forfeited in the last two minutes of play by the refusal of the Crane coach to finish the game. Crane took the lightweight game 32-19 with a fine display of shooting and passing.

Pirates Lead All the Way

The city champs of last season, with three returning players, found Palatine plenty tough and trailed all the way. At the quarter the score was 10-6 and it was 22-14 at the half. Crane rallied in the third period on fine work by their star center Zuber and the score was still favoring the Pirates 27-23 at the beginning of the last period.

Stall in Last Quarter

With DeBerge out on fouls and both Hollinger and Hildebrandt having three each the Pirates played safe and held the ball in an effort to force Crane's zone defense to shift to man to man. Crane refused to move out until there were about three minutes to play and then Hahnfeldt promptly scored to practically sew up the game. With one minute and 47 seconds to play the Crane coach came on the floor to protest a decision on the part of the officials and was penalized with a technical foul. The foul was never shot as the coach refused to leave the court and continue the game. The referee Robert Ballard forfeited the contest to Palatine at that point.

Best Performance of Season

Hollinger and Hahnfeldt scored 11 and 10 points respectively for Palatine, as the boys shot from the weak spots in Crane's zone. The team, as a whole, played the best ball of the season to date though over anxiousness cost the team its full strength in the second half due to fouls. Zuber, leading scorer of last year's Crane team, topped the visitors with 12 points.

Crane Lights Win 32-19

After a first half which was very close with Crane leading 14-12 the visiting lightweight team set a fast pace and hit from all angles on long and short shots to whip the junior Pirates 32-19. Corgilione and Blasucci set the pace for Crane. Salvo and Howes scored seven points apiece for Palatine. After Howes went out on fouls Palatine's defensive rebounding fell off and Crane piled up the score. Little Hartman got in the game in the last period and immediately sank a neat basket just as he did at Northbrook the previous night.

Palatine To Compete In De Kalb Holiday Cage Tournament

Palatine has accepted an invitation to compete in the DeKalb high school holiday basketball tournament. The tournament will start Thursday, December 26 and end Saturday night, December 28. It will be played on the court of the Northern Illinois State Teachers College. According to reports the number of teams this year will be restricted as compared with other years. Just who will be entered is not known at this time. Last year the tourney was won by Waterman and the same school will again make a strong bid. Usually quite a number of schools from the West Suburban League and the Little Eight are in the tournament.

Wauconda Beats Ela In Last Quarter Rally

Wauconda and Ela, rivals of long standing, met on the Wauconda court Friday in a pair of very close contests with Wauconda taking the first team game 34-25 with a big last quarter rally and Ela nosing out a 16-15 victory in the preliminary.

The Bulldogs had only a 21-20 lead on the Ela Bears going into the final period but tallied 13 points to their opponents' five. Ela's big quarter was the third when they scored 14 points. Oswald and Froehlke led the Wauconda attack with 10 and eight points respectively. Kropp of Ela kept the Bears in the ball game with 16 points of which 14 came in the second half.

In the lightweight game Ela led 9-6 at the half, but Wauconda went ahead 14-11 in the third period. Baskets by Gleason and Holland won for Ela in the final segment. Harris made seven points for Wauconda and Rudsinski had six for Ela.

Palatine Beats Northbrook By 39-17 Score

Palatine's cagers remained on top in both divisions of the Northwest conference by defeating the Northbrook Vikings 39-17 in the varsity game and 29-9 in the lightweight encounter last Friday evening.

The Pirate varsity did not play particularly good ball from the stand point of passing, but they did hit 15 goals in 40 attempts while Northbrook was making but six out of 55 many of which were of the long and hurried variety.

The Palatine regulars piled up a 11-4 lead the first quarter and were ahead 19-9 and 30-14 at the other quarter rest periods. The reserve five took over in the final period and outscored the Vikings 9-3 with Schwolow, a junior, leading the attack with eight points. Scoring was evenly divided among the Palatine players. The Strauss brothers played best for Northbrook. Santucci and Klein who scored 18 points in the defeat of Barrington the previous week failed to tally a single point. Palatine's lightweights played such poor ball that Coach McElroy used freshmen boys all the second period. The half time score was 8-4.
